REQUIEM HIGH MASS.

MOLLOY—Solemn Requiem High Mass for the repose of his soul to-morrow (Tuesday), 10 a.m. (new time), in St. Mary's, Athlone. R.I.P.

IN MEMORIAM.

CORBETT—First Anniversary—In loving memory of Mr. Percy Francis Corbett, late of D.W. Distillery, who died at St. Mary's Hospital, Paddington, London, June 29th, 1924. Inserted by N. D.

DARLINGTON—In loving memory of Ruth Madeline, youngest daughter of James F. and Ellen Darlington, 1 Rutledge terrace, Donore avenue, who fell asleep June 28, 1917. "Safe on His gentle breast."

"Some time—some day—our eyes shall see
The dear face we hold in memory;
And God shall link the broken chain
Still closer when we meet again."

DEMPSEY—First Anniversary—In loving memory of George S. Dempsey, who died at his residence, Dunville avenue, June 29th, 1924. R.I.P.

McKEEVER—First Anniversary—In sad and loving memory of my darling wife, Maria McKeever, who died at her residence, Stephenstown House, Castletown, Navan, 28th June, 1924.

The midnight stars are gleaming
On a lone and silent grave;
Beneath sleeps one I dearly loved,
But whom I could not save.
The happy years we once enjoyed,
How sweet her memory still;
But death has left a vacant place
This world can never fill.

Inserted by her loving husband.

McKEEVER—In affectionate remembrance of our darling mother, Maria McKeever, who was called Home June 28th, 1924. "Thy will be done." Inserted by her loving sons and daughters.

WHELLER—In affectionate remembrance of dear mother, father, brother.

God saw when their footsteps faltered,
When the pathway had grown too steep,
So He touched the drooping eyelids
And gave "His beloved sleep."

Cis. June 29th, 1925.

SAILOR ROBBED.

COURT SEQUEL TO DERRY STREET SCENE.

At Derry Police Court on Saturday, Daniel Doyle, Walker's place, was charged with the theft of a £1 note from William George, a steward on H.M.S. Badminton, one of the mine-sweepers at present on visit to Derry.

The evidence was that after the arrival of the mine-sweepers in Derry George went on shore to purchase milk, and was taken by the accused to a dairy, where he bought four pints of milk and tendered a £1 note in payment. The shopkeeper had no change, and the accused snatched the note, saying that he would get change. He then went away and never returned. Twenty minutes later Constable Dunn found George and the accused arguing in Lecky road. George accused Doyle of stealing the note, and the constable arrested the accused, but was tripped up and both fell to the ground.

The constable alleged that Doyle kicked him on the leg and attempted to kick him in the stomach. A crowd collected, and in the uproar Doyle escaped, with the constable in pursuit. The accused entered a house in Gallagher's square and bolted it. After three minutes a woman opened the door, but Doyle had disappeared. A party of police after midnight visited a house in Walker's square and arrested Doyle, who was hiding on the stairs.

The accused was remanded.

SACKVILLE STREET MEETING.

Speaking at a meeting at Sackville street, Dublin, yesterday, Mrs. Maud Gonne MacBride referred to the proposed visit of Archbishop Mannix to Dublin to-night, and asked them to give him a worthy reception. She said that on a former occasion the British Government prevented him from landing in Ireland "because they were afraid of him, and," she added, "the Free State Government would love to prevent his landing in Ireland, but they dare not do it."

PITMAN FELLOWSHIP (DUBLIN BRANCH).

The gold medal presented to the Dublin branch of the Pitman Fellowship by the President, Mr. C. W. Bunbury, was offered for competition among the members on Saturday evening last. There were four entries. The speed required was 150 words per minute for seven minutes, two per cent. of errors only being allowed in the transcript. The medal was awarded to Miss Gertrude Kerr. The gold medal offered by Skerry's College for 100 words per minute was also competed for on the same evening. Fourteen transcripts were handed in, and the medal was awarded to Mr. D. V. Trainor. The second prize, offered by the Hon. Treasurer (Mr. M. T. O'Malley), was not awarded, as the papers were not up to the required standard.

RECENT WILLS.

Mr. John Smylie Robson, J. P., of Bray Lodge, Bray, Governing Director of Messrs. Crowe, Wilson and Co., Ltd. (personal estate in England and the Irish Free State) £24,516.

The Rev. Arthur William Ardagh, of 110 Pembroke road, Dublin, for many years Rector of Finglas (personal estate in England and the Irish Free State) .... £11,990.

Mrs. Catherine Fitzgerald, of Clantilew, Co. Armagh (personal estate in Great Britain and Northern Ireland) .... £7,562.

COOMBE HOSPITAL.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Gardians and Directors of the Coombe Hospital for the month of June was held in the Boardroom. There were present—Alderman J. Hubbard Clark (in the chair), Mrs. Michael Murphy, Captain W. Lombard Murphy, Very Reverend Patrick Hayden, P.P.; Louis A. Byrne, F.R.C.S.I.; Louis Cassidy, F.R.C.P.I. (Master); James Robinson, M.A.; Hugh Kennedy, W. H. F. Verschoyle. Apology from Sir William J. Thompson, M.D.

The minutes of previous Board and Committee meetings were read and signed. Correspondence of a varied nature was read and rulings made thereon. Thanks were passed to the Leinster Football Union for a donation of £20 to the funds of the Hospital. The monthly reports from the Master, Registrar, Matron, and Sister in charge of Nurses' Home were read and approved.

Routine business having been transacted, the Board adjourned.

The Guardians and Directors desire to return thanks to the following friends for their kind support:—

£30—Messrs. Guinness and Son.

£20—Leinster Football Association (per John J. Kelly, Hon. Treasurer).

£10—John Jameson and Son. W. and R. Jacob, Ltd.

ASSOCIATION FOR PREVENTION OF INTEMPERANCE.

The monthly meeting of the Executive of the Irish Association for the Prevention of Intemperance was held in the Boardroom last Friday. A letter from the Chairman of the National Programme Conference on Education was read, and the Secretary was instructed to draw up a memorandum of suggestions for the teaching of the nature and effects of alcohol, in all grades, under the head "Elementary Science," and the teaching of the evil effects of intemperance on the individual, the family and the nation, under the head "Elements of Citizenship." Correspondence with the Irish Motor Agents' Association and the Intoxicating Liquor Commission with respect to same was approved. Much consideration was given to the work of the Association at Licensing Sessions, and a sub-Committee was appointed to consult with the solicitor as to the best way to conduct that work in the future. Consideration was also given to the personnel of the Committee and to the appointment of honorary officers. A letter from Dr. B. Hercod, re an International Conference, on the alcohol question, to be held on the 1st, 2nd and 3rd of September next, and the Secretary's letters to Ministers and others were approved.

IRISH ARCHITECTURE.

ANNUAL REVIEW.

The Architectural Association of Ireland has issued its yearly publication dealing with the activities of the Association.

In his inaugural address the new President, Mr. L. F. Giron, M.R.I.A.I., referred to the apt description once given of architecture as "the printing press of all the ages, which gives a history of the state of society in which it was erected." Mr. Giron deplored the lack of national character in our buildings, caused by the tendency in past years to copy foreign designs, rather than to seek new ones framed on national ideals. France has been ahead of us for some time in this respect, owing to the encouragement given in the State schools to the expression of national aspirations in architecture.

The book also contains details of the constitution of the Association, summaries of the various meetings held during the last session, and a catalogue of the library.

CANADIAN COLONISATION.

The Rev. William Gleeson writes from the Canadian Pacific Railway Company's office at Queenstown that those who are interested in the colonisation scheme of the Archbishop of Edmonton (Dr. O'Leary), Alberta, may communicate with him before they make a final decision to go overseas to secure a livelihood.

LONDON MONEY MARKET.

BORROWING AT THE BANK OF ENGLAND.

There was again a good demand for loans on Saturday covering the end of the half-year, and a further moderate sum was borrowed from the Bank of England at 5½ p.c. for a week. Advances into next month continued to command 4½ to 5 p.c., but day to day loans were obtainable at 3½ to 3¾ p.c., while at the close there were lenders at 3 p.c.

Bank Rate Discount (changed March 5, 1925), 5%.

The discount market remained firm, with three months' bank bills still quoted at 4⁷⁄₁₆ p.c. and October Treasuries 4⁷⁄₁₆-4½ p.c. Business was practically at a standstill.

No gold movements were reported at the Bank of England.

In the Foreign Exchange market francs were a little firmer at the opening, but subsequently came on offer again up to 106.35. At the close, however, they rallied, and finished better on the day. Belgian francs moved in similar fashion, but Italian lire depreciated to a fresh low record, being offered at 137¾ for the £. Sterling was well maintained and Continental rates mostly moved favourably to this country. Greek drachmæ rallied to 290. The Argentine exchange improved to 45½d., and Valparaiso was again better, Rio being steady. In the Eastern market Chinese and Japanese rates were harder.

DUBLIN S.P.C.A.

At the last weekly meeting of the Committee of the Dublin Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (Incorporated), fourteen cases and thirteen convictions were reported by the inspectors for the week. The following subscriptions were received:—Mr. J. B. Yeats, 10/-; Mrs. Flinn, £1 1/-; Miss McCullagh, 2/6; Mrs. Musters, £1; Mr. A. Dalgetty, 15/-; Miss Castles, 12/6, and Mrs. Hickson, £1 16/8.

FINANCIAL PARAGRAPHS.

RUBBER UP TO 3s. 4d. PER LB.

The price of rubber again advanced in London on Saturday, standard plantation sheet spot being sold at 3s. 3½d. to 3s. 4d. per lb., with July 3s. 2½d. to 3s. 3½d., August 3s. 1½d. to 3s. 1½d., September 2s. 11½d. to 2s. 11d., November 2s. 9½d., and October-December 2s. 9½d. to 2s. 8¾d. and 2s. 9d. On Friday the price for spot sheet was inclined to droop early in the day, and was sold down to 3s. 1½d. per lb., but the market developed strength and closed at 3s. 3d.

THE OUTLOOK.

Our recent warnings as to the over-speculation that had been going on in leading Industrials has been fully justified by the demoralisation that followed upon the curtailment of contango facilities—a perfectly natural state of affairs at the end of the half-year, when funds are required for "window-dressing" purposes (writes the Sunday Times). Borrowers whose credit is good have had no difficulty in finding accommodation, and, although some £8,000,000 was lent by the central institution, there has never been any real fear of a rise in the Bank rate. With the turn of the half-year easier money conditions should develop. Home Railway Stocks look as though the fall had gone quite far enough in most cases. As regards China, nothing is more remarkable than the manner in which coupons on Chinese loans are paid as they fall due, showing that the administration of the revenues is in good hands. While labour conditions are disturbed and foreign politics are unsettled, it is natural that investors should turn to Rubber shares as offering welcome relief from both, and in this connection opportunities are still offered, the depression in other markets having prevented the rise from becoming too rapid.

TRAMWAY TRAFFIC RECEIPTS.

Official returns of forty of the principal tramway undertakings in the United Kingdom, as published by "The Tramway and Railway World," for the week ended June 13 give total receipts of £383,124, or £10,771 more than in the corresponding week of last year, which included Whit Monday. The total length of track included in the returns was 2,296 miles, as compared with 2,218 miles a year ago. Receipts this year were at the rate of £166 17s. 3d. per mile of single track, and last year at the rate of £177 11s. 9d., thus showing a decrease for the week of £10 14s. 6d. per mile open

VEREENIGING ESTATES.

At the twenty-sixth annual meeting of the shareholders of the Vereeniging Estates, Ltd., held in Johannesburg on Friday, Mr. Theodore Marks (Chairman) stated that the position of the company was incomparably better than it had ever been, the gross profit for the year 1924 being £102,653. This greatly improved position was due to improvements in every department. Increased profits were shown on every operation, and the collieries sold 1,798,487 tons of coal last year. With the extension of the steel industry at Vereeniging, and with all the company's undertakings on a sound footing, the future prospects of the company are very bright. Shareholders confirmed the action of the directors in declaring a dividend of 7½ per cent.

TYRES AGAIN DEARER.

As a result of the further increase in the price of rubber to 3s. 1½d. per lb., it is proposed to increase the price of ordinary tyres by about 10 p.c. and balloon tyres by about 12 p.c. The matter has been under consideration by the tyre manufacturers, and, while it is just possible that the higher prices will come into operation about the middle of this week, or even earlier, as regards some of the leading manufacturers, one or two of the firms, at least, which had already substantial supplies before the rubber market stiffened recently, will retain the old prices for the present.

LIPTON'S REPORT.

Rumour proves to have been wrong regarding the immanence of the issue of the reports of the directors of Lipton, Ltd. We are officially informed that it will not be available until Friday next. Probably rumour is more correct in stating that there will be no dividend on the Ordinary shares, and there seems little doubt that the results to be announced will not be satisfactory. This is not due to any lack of trade or enterprise at home, but to difficulties which have arisen abroad.

IRISH TOFFEE CO.

The North Kerry Manufacturing Co., Ltd., was registered in Dublin on June 23, with a nominal capital of £75,000 in £1 shares, to acquire the business of a manufacturer of toffee heretofore carried on by Thomas Armstrong under the style of the North Kerry Manufacturing Co. at Dublin. The subscribers are:—Sir Harold V. Mackintosh, Knaresboro', 500 ordinary; John E. Henderson, Halifax, 500 ordinary; John D. V. Mackintosh, Halifax, 500 ordinary.

THE REWARD OF PATIENCE.

It has been noted that two or three of the British mining enterprises formerly operating in Siberia have made terms with the Soviet Government for the restoration of their properties and the resumption of activity. If the Russo-Asiatic Corporation—by far the largest of them all—still hangs back, we (Investors' Chronicle) take it to be because Mr. Leslie Urquhart knows his Russia. A better bargain with the Soviet Government will reward those who have patience to wait, for the economic forces are all working in one direction, and that direction is not towards the world's conversion to anti-capitalist communism, but towards the conversion of the Bolshevists—if they would save their skins—to the capitalism that rules the world. That concession to the Russian peasantry marks the half-stage. The final stage may not be long delayed.

THE ENGLISH BANKING HALF-YEAR.

The first half of 1925 seems likely to have proved more profitable for the banks than the corresponding half of 1924. Whether, however, it will be found to have yielded better results than were secured in the second half of that year may be doubted. The Bank rate was advanced from 4 p.c. to 5 p.c. on 5th March, but a banker's profits depend upon margins, and a higher Bank rate does not necessarily imply a larger margin of profit on commercial advances. These generally bear a minimum rate of from 4 p.c. to 5 p.c., with a margin of ½ p.c. to 1 p.c. above Bank rate when the latter stands at or above the minimum, whereas a rise of 1 p.c. in Bank rate is usually accompanied by a similar advance in the interest rate paid by the banks on deposits. That commercial advances, which form the chief business of the banker, have, as shown by the monthly average figures of the banks in the London clearing, again expanded during the current half-year, is a satisfactory feature. Deposits have again declined, and a moderate reduction is shown in bills discounted. The operations of the banks in the Money Market should have proved more profitable than in the corresponding period of 1924, for margins between average deposit rate and average market loan and discount rates have been appreciably higher. On their investment holdings the banks have experienced depreciation of late months, but hardly of such proportions as to necessitate any draft upon earnings for purpose of writing down securities.

VOCALION GRAMOPHONE COMPANY (FOREIGN), LTD.

An issue of capital is in course of preparation in connection with the Vocalion Gramophone Co. (Foreign), Ltd., a company formed to acquire and develop certain valuable Colonial and foreign selling and other rights attaching to the well-known "Vocalion" and "Aco" Gramophone Records, the "Vocalion Long-Playing Record," the "Vocalion Record Controller," the "Picturephone," and the "Tudsbery Gramophone Motor Controller," etc.

GRAND CANAL COMPANY.

The Grand Canal Company announces that the transfer books of the company relating to the Irredeemable Debenture Stock will be closed from July 8th to July 14th, both days inclusive

GRAIGUENAMANAGH FAIR.

The Graiguenamanagh Fair was held on Friday last. A large fair and a good attendance of buyers. Good demand and prices for all classes, and an early clearance was effected. The following are the quotations:—Calves, under six months old, from £3 to £6 each; yearlings, £8 to £12; two-year-olds from £14 to £20; three-year-olds, £21 to £25; fat cattle, 50/- to 57/6; springers, £18 to £27; milch cows, £24 to £30; fat sheep, £5 to £5 17/6; hoggets, £3 5/- to £4 15/-; bonhams, £1 to 30/-; store pigs, 35/- to £3 10/-.

INCORPORATED ACCOUNTANTS.

Among those who have passed the Incorporated Accountants' examinations, held on the 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th of May last, are:—Crossey, Samuel Davison, Belfast; Johnston, Frederic Ludwig, Belfast; Keith, William, Belfast; Kenny, William Aloysius, Dublin; Love, John, Belfast.

Intermediate.—Bell, Isaac, Belfast; Brown, William, Belfast; Porter, Garnett, Londonderry; Taylor, Louis, Dublin.

PRODUCE AND FOOD MARKETS.

CATTLE.

DONCASTER.—Trade slow for all kinds of cattle, milk cows being £3 to £4 cheaper, highest price being £33; best three-year-old bullocks £23, heifers £14 to £18, stricks £14 to £17, and young stores £10 to £12. Sheep 80/- to 90/-, but demand slow. Pigs lower in price; trade slack.

NORWICH.—Fat beef was in smaller supply, business being firm and dearer at 14/- per stone. Store cattle were also offering in smaller numbers, and met a slow sale at £12 to £20 a head. Calves sold well at £8, while veal made 1/3 per lb. Trade was not so good for fair supplies of fat mutton, which changed hands at 1/4 per lb. Store lambs realised 67/-, and ewes with lambs 112/-. A good show of fat and store pigs were penned to-day, pork being in better demand at 12/6 per stone. Feeders made 52/-, and strong stores 37/-, while inquiry was fair for small stores. At market—Cattle 1,050, sheep 700, and pigs 350.

GRAIN.

FLOATING GRAIN CARGOES.—BALTIC.—points higher. Egyptian, Sakellaridis, F.G.F. 32.55. cargo Western Australia, per Chepstow Castle, 3,000 tons loading sold 55/6, Pacific August-September quoted 55/-. Australian afloat 55/6 to 56/-, as to size and position; Rosafe (63½lbs.) afloat 57/-. Entre Rios (63½lbs.) afloat 57/3. Parcels steady; No. 1 Northern Manitoba July sold 60/9, October-November 53/6; Australian June quoted 55/3, Rosafe (63lbs.) June 56/9 per 480lbs. MAIZE—Cargoes quiet, but steady; Plate steamers afloat sellers 39/- to 38/-, as to size and position, June-July 37/9, July-August 37/6, Dan.-Gal.-Fox. loading 39/6. Parcels dull; Plate May-June sold 37/1½ to 37/3, June-July sellers 36/3 per 480lbs. BARLEY market quiet, but sellers required previous prices.

LIVERPOOL.—American markets finished better than expected, and despite increased "Bradstreet's" shipments, forward deliveries of wheat here showed a fair advance at the outset, further improved considerably on "shorts" covering, especially in July delivery, and though finishing under best, marked a substantial gain on Friday night, July being most affected. C.i.f. parcels No. 2 Manitoba afloat sold at 59/6, No. 1 Duluth afloat 56/-, and No. 2 hard winter August-September (new crop) 55/- per qr. C.i.f. parcels MAIZE River Plate June-July and July-August sold at 36/- per qr. WHEAT on the spot firm and dearer. Maize spot parcels River Plate quiet and easier at 8/7 to 8/7½ per cental. FLOUR in only moderate demand at late rates. Graded wheat futures opened ½d. to 1d. per cental dearer, further improved liberally, then receded somewhat, but eventually closed firm, with July 2¼d., Oct. 1½d., and Dec. 1½d. per cental over last night. Sales—100 loads at 11/5½, 6d., 5½d. to 6½d. for July, 10/10½, 11½d., ½d. to ½d. Oct., and 10/8, ½d., ½d. Dec. delivery. Values—July 11/6½, Oct. 10/11½, Dec. 10/8½ per cental. Maize options entirely neglected and nominal. MISCELLANEOUS.

LIVERPOOL COTTON.—In response to the favourable overnight advices from New York, values here opened about 11 to six points higher, and continued to advance afterwards on trade calling, local walter went five furlongs, covering, and buying from Manchester. At the close the tone was steady, with this season's months 21 to 17 points, and next season's months about 16 to 13 points up on the day. Egyptian were again supported, and values at the close were 50 to 55 points higher on the day. Spot market—American quiet and 35 points higher. Egyptian, Sakellaridis, F.G.F. 32.55. Brasilian, Perpoints, and those of Upper and Brown 20 points higher. Brasilian quiet and 40 points higher. East Indian quiet and 20 points higher.

LEICESTER WOOL.—Business has been no more than fair during the past week. Specialities have been moving with some freedom, but sports goods have gone down, and the general underwear business has been slow in regard to new orders. The Leicester wool market this week showed prices in accordance with the all-round decline.

MANCHESTER PROVISION MARKET.

FROM OUR COMMERCIAL CORRESPONDENT.

So far as the provision trade is concerned, there has been a much stronger tone to note in all departments. The continuance of the dry weather has affected supply and demand for butter both here and on the Continent, and prices generally have advanced in consequence. Arrivals of Scandinavian produce have now resumed normal proportions, the quantity of butter coming forward last week-end totalling 24,621 casks, bacon 9,656 bales, and eggs 2,289 cases. A fair clearance of butter was reported at last Tuesday's market, and the upward trend in prices was not unexpected. Supplies of Irish creameries by no means heavy, and, so far as this description is concerned, demand runs chiefly on finest dairies only. As noted last week, the bulk of the consignments continue to find their way to other distributing centres. Colonial butter nominal, the continued high prices checking demand. English dairy offering in smaller quantities and trade, on the whole, rather firmer. Demand for bacon generally is on a moderate scale, and, with supplies by no means heavy, a fair clearance has been effected. The position of Irish has been somewhat difficult to gauge owing to the uncertainty in Danish, though sellers showed some disposition to ask a premium over official rates. Canadian has been in light offering, and, with a fair inquiry, rules firm. Moderate supplies of American are reported, and all cuts are held for full late rates.

In cheese there is a very firm tone in both home-produced and Colonial, and, in view of stronger Canadian cables, higher prices would appear to be imminent in the near future. As anticipated last week-end, eggs have advanced, and it seems as though there is a general shortage, and, while demand for imported can hardly be described as active, more movement is noted for best English new laid. Official returns of imports from the Irish Free State during the month of May for butter showed an increase of 800 tons, the total being 1,200 tons, and receipts of eggs 828,000 against 720,000 great-hundreds.

With the continued hot weather, business at Salford Cattle Market has been by no means brisk. Contrary to expectations, very few Irish beasts were shown last Tuesday, and numbers were much smaller than was expected. Interest centred chiefly on small, neat cattle at higher prices, but for heavy and rough sorts there was a much slower trade. Good offerings of sheep were in evidence, and nice meated light-weights cleared readily. As the lambing season draws to a close ewes are coming forward in larger numbers and meet a slower trade. Irish lambs were in about average arrival, but Welsh and South Country are fairly plentiful, and, although demand is good, purchasers were able to fulfil their requirements on rather easier terms. Supplies of pigs have been lighter, and a better trade was experienced. A steady consumptive demand was reported at the Manchester Dead Meat Market for both home-killed and imported meat; otherwise there were few features of interest to record.

Market for poultry slow, and sellers find some difficulty in maintaining prices. Best chickens in small supply, but appear to exceed demand. Frozen varieties plentiful, but attract little attention.

LIVERPOOL MEAT IMPORTS.

During the past week nine steamers landed cattle and fresh meat at Liverpool from overseas ports. There were smaller arrivals of mutton, lamb and fresh beef. The vessels with their freights were as follows:—The Kent, from New Zealand, with 18,709 sheep and lamb carcases, 500 carcases of pork and 3,755 qrs. of beef; the Princesa, from Buenos Ayres, with 18,177 sheep and lamb carcases, 4,565 boxes of beef and 46,687 qrs. of beef; the Montrose, from Montreal, with 2,069 boxes of meat; the Tasmania, from New Zealand, with 31,384 sheep and lamb carcases, 662 packages of pork and veal, and 1,190 qrs. of beef; the Canada, from Montreal, with 1,191 boxes of meat; the Clairton, from St. John, with 560 cattle; the Caronia, from New York, with 115 boxes of Pork; the Corrientes, from Montreal, with 336 packages of pork and 606 boxes of meat; and the Celtic, from New York, with 1,588 packages of pork and 39 packages of meat, making a total of 560 cattle, 68,270 sheep and lamb carcases, 3,221 boxes, etc., of pork, 8,470 boxes, etc., of meat, and 51,632 qrs. of beef. Compared with the imports of the preceding week these figures show an increase of 33 cattle, 1,547 boxes of pork, and 2,810 boxes, etc., of meat, and a decrease of 22,278 sheep and lamb carcases, and 29,045 qrs. of beef.

TROPICAL PRODUCE MARKET DULL.

FROM OUR COMMERCIAL CORRESPONDENT.

LIVERPOOL, Saturday.

Business in the Tropical Produce market during the week has been much larger, though, with the exception of Palm Oil, prices show a falling away. At the same time the tone at the close shows a hardening tendency. In the Palm Oil section there has been an active inquiry for all descriptions of oils. Opening the week some 5s. a ton dearer, prices gradually hardened to 12s. 6d. a ton on fairly large buying on the part of America, but on this being satisfied the market took an easier turn, and it has been possible to purchase the same material at 3s. 9d. to 5s. per ton less. Spot and near at hand oil has met with more inquiry, with a premium over distants in Lagos and soft oils of, roughly, 2s. 6d. to 5s. per ton, and in the case of mediums 15s. and hard oils 12s. 6d. per ton. Demand from the Continent still hangs fire, while the home trade has bought but sparingly. Business done during the week is estimated at 1,860 tons, with Lagos quoted £39, Sherbro £39 5s., Congo £39 5s., Opobo £39 2s. 6d., and Niger £40 17s. 6d.

Palm kernels have been heavy throughout the week, with prices gradually falling away until they reached, roughly, 12s. 6d. a ton less than a week ago. Consumers show little or no inclination to do business, even at the lower values, though sales have been recorded at £20 16s. 3d. any position, since which 2s. 6d. a ton less has been accepted for April-June and May-July shipments. Hull consumers have shown interest in near at hand material, for which up to £21 has been paid. June-July and July-August material has been freely offered at £20 17s. 6d., but consumers will only carry through further business at 2s. 6d. a ton less. Hamburg has bought freely, paying £21 for May-June and June-July shipment, but the same can now be acquired for 2s. 6d. to 3s. 9d. per ton less money.

Ground nuts have been easier for choice, with transactions recorded in Nigerian decorticated to North Continental ports afloat reported at £24 10s., June-July shipment being 5s. per ton more. Dealers, however, now require 3s. 9d. to 5s. per ton more, with August-September shipment held for £26. Gambia and Rufisque shows little or no change at £19 10s. respectively.

Refined oils have met with better inquiry, without any change in values, but nut oils have been slow throughout.

FIELD WILL CASE.

FURTHER EVIDENCE FOR DEFENCE.

(BEFORE MR. JUSTICE O'SHAUGHNESSY AND A SPECIAL JURY.)

The hearing was continued in Dublin last Saturday of the probate suit brought by Patrick Field, of Shanganagh Park, Shankill, Co. Dublin, and E. McGrath, 3 Bachelor's Walk, Dublin, for probate of the will of the late Patrick Field. The defendants, William J. Field and Mary Josephine Field, son and daughter of the testator, opposed probate on the usual statutory grounds.

Mr. Jellett, K.C., Mr. Lynch, K.C., and Mr. Kingsmill Moore (instructed by Mr. E. C. Jameson) appeared for the plaintiffs; and Mr. Wood, K.C., Mr. Geoghegan, K.C., and Mr. Cecil Lavery (instructed by Messrs. E. and G. Stapleton) for the defendants.

Dr. J. B. Magennis was called, and stated that in November he saw Miss Mary Josephine Field in a private nursing home at Wilton place. There were no signs whatever that she had been drinking.

Mr. W. J. Field, who was examined on Friday, continued his evidence. He said that he heard of the action instituted by his father against his sister in the Chancery Division, but was not concerned in the proceedings.

Cross-examined by Mr. Lynch regarding gifts from his father, the witness said that he got £500 and £1,000, and £1,000 from his father through his grandfather. He did not know that his firm sold fifty-seven Arthur Guinness preference shares. The shares might have been transferred on loan. He did not remember the transaction. His brother Timothy gave him a present of £150 about two years ago.

Mr. Lynch suggested that that was a gift from his father.

The witness did not agree that in 1913 he got a loan of £200 English Sewing Cotton shares which had been sold through his brother Patrick.

Mr. Lynch read a letter dated July, 1918, from Patrick asking the witness to return £500 and £200 shares, as he could not see his way to be out of his money or interest on the shares any longer.

The witness said that he did not think that he saw that letter. His brother told him that he could keep the English Sewing Cotton shares and return them when he liked. He left his father's house some time after the rebellion of 1916. He visited Shanganagh Park about three times after that. There was no unpleasantness, and his father shook hands with him and asked him to stay.

Rose Soughan, a maid who had been for twenty-two years at the residence of the testator, stated that she never saw Miss Josephine Field under the influence of drink, and never knew of a servant having left owing to Miss Josephine Field's conduct. Miss Josephine Field was always nice and gentle and easy to get on with.

Other female employés gave similar evidence.

Mr. Wood said that this closed his case.

Mr. Jellett asked his lordship for a direction.

Mr. Justice O'Shaughnessy said that the jury must find that this was the will of a capable testator. He would leave the question to the jury.

Mr. Jellett next addressed his remarks to the subject of undue influence. If undue influence was alleged it must be in reference to the will.

Mr. Justice O'Shaughnessy said that he would not withdraw the case from the jury.

ELDEST SON'S EVIDENCE.

Patrick Field, son of testator, said that his father died on the evening of November 3rd, between 5.15 and 5.30 p.m., and was a big loss to him. He was out and about the farm up to a short time before his death. He was never in Mr. Jameson's office from the time of his brother's death till his father's death. He never discussed his will with his father and did not know of its contents until after the funeral. He never discussed with his father the question of the disposal of his property. In 1920 his father told him that he would leave him Shanganagh Park. That year there was talk of the disposal of his property, and his father told him that he had a deed drawn up giving the witness all his Shanganagh property. He told his father that he would not agree to it, but his father said that no one that ever lived would prevent it going through. In July of the same year he wanted his father to sell the whole of his property, and told him that he (witness) did not want a penny of it. There was unpleasantness in the family at the time, and the witness asked his father's permission to walk out and go to live at his own place. His father would not agree. The witness was quite satisfied to get out and leave his sister to live in the place at that time. The bottles found in the avenue were not placed there at his instigation. He took them in to his father and said that some person in the place must be drinking heavily. They were whiskey bottles. His sister Josephine rushed into the room and said, "I must defend myself." His father said: "Your name was never mentioned, but from your action it looks as if you were the guilty one." He had nothing to do with the putting out of his sister in 1924, and offered to leave himself. His father bought the Ballybrack place for him, and he paid his father back half the cost. It was originally built by his grandfather.

The witness was the eldest son. Denis, a brother, was apprenticed to a solicitor, but he changed his mind and took up a druggist's business, and was now doing some sort of wireless work.

The further hearing was adjourned until 11 o'clock this morning.

A MASONIC FETE.

FEMALE ORPHAN SCHOOL PRIZE-GIVING.

The grounds of the Masonic Female Orphan School presented a gay spectacle on Saturday afternoon during the garden fête and prize-giving. There was a large attendance of Freemasons, among whom were Colonel Claude Cane, Deputy Grand Master, and Mrs. Cane, who presented the prizes for the various contests of the afternoon, and also for the scholastic achievements of the year. Drill displays, races and badminton went on energetically, watched with great interest by crowds of the performers' friends and relations; and numerous former pupils came to try their skill against the juniors in the "Past and Present" lawn tennis match.

The final for the school tennis tournament was played, and resulted in a win for Miss Eva Scott, who received a silver cup and tennis racquet. Miss Russell Jones, who is resigning from the post of headmistress after twenty-nine years' service on the staff, was given a gold wristlet watch by the various committees connected with the school management and other handsome presentations from the school staff and past and present pupils. The band of the Metropolitan Division of the Civic Guard provided an excellent programme of music.

The following are the results of the Lawn Tennis Tournament:—

Senior Finals.—Singles—Eva Scott beat Eva Henchie.

Doubles.—M. Ross Todd and G. Hawkes (captain) (past pupils) beat E. McLernon and E. Reilly (present pupils); C. Smith and M. Johnston (past pupils) beat P. Carey and A. Lamont (present pupils); M. Atkinson and M. Swanton (past pupils) beat E. Henchie (captain) and R. Graham (present pupils).

Junior Finals—O. Mather beat Lottie Payne.

Results of Sports:—

Governors' Sons' Race (50 yards, under 10 years)—Won by V. Boyle; 2nd, G. Seales.

Governors' Sons' Race (100 yards, under 15 years)—Won by Cecil Boyle; 2nd, V. Patterson.

Governors' Daughters' Race (50 yards, under 10 years)—Helen Boyle, 1; Muriel Kelly, 2.

Governors' Daughters' Race (100 yards, under 15 years)—G. Wylie, 1; V. Young, 2.

100 Yards (Girls) (under 12)—Nora Ingram, 1; D. McDonnell, 2; E. McElveen, 3.

100 Yards (Girls) (12 to 14)—N. McCreagh, 1; O. Mather, 2; W. Kilroy, 3.

100 Yards (Girls) (over 14)—F. Beamish, 1; Eva Scott, 2.

High Jump (Senior Girls)—Phyllis Carey, 1; Eileen Riley, 2. Winner's jump, 4ft. 5ins.

NATIONAL SCHOOL PROGRAMME.

The members of the Dublin School Managers' Association (Church of Ireland) and other school managers are summoned to meet at 37 Dawson street at 11 o'clock to-morrow to consider questions relating to the National school programme. A reasoned reply to the questions is to be sent to the National Programme Conference as soon as possible. A full attendance at the meeting is requested.

STONE-THROWING AT TRAINS.

When the 10 o'clock train from Howth was passing through Killester on Saturday night stones were thrown from one of the bridges, breaking the windows of two compartments. One young woman's face was cut by broken glass. This is not an isolated form of outrage on the stretch between Killester and Raheny; in fact, it is becoming too frequent.

RESTFUL HOLIDAY.

DUBLIN TO LONDON AND BACK BY SEA.

From Our Reporter.

Those who desire a holiday which is restful and at the same time full of interest should take the delightful trip from Dublin to London and back which the British and Irish Steampacket Company is now providing.

The strong sea air imparts a new flavour and relish to life, and the ports at which the steamer calls—Plymouth and Southampton—are full of variety and charm. Most important of all, the cost is little, if anything, more than what one has to pay for board and apartments at any of the well-known holiday resorts in Ireland or Great Britain.

The ship leaves Dublin on Saturday afternoon and arrives in London on the following Wednesday before mid-day. The greater part of the Monday is spent ashore at Plymouth and of Tuesday at Southampton. The return trip from London starts at noon on the following Saturday. Sunday and Monday are spent in Southampton, the first half of Tuesday in Plymouth, and Dublin is reached on Wednesday evening—a holiday of eleven days, of which three are in London.

COMFORT.

I did the trip on the last voyage of the Lady Wimborne (Captain Clark). The Lady Cloe is also on this service. These steamers, each of 1,700 tons, are unsurpassed for their sea-going qualities, and have been fitted up specially for the accommodation of passengers. They are extremely comfortable, and the cuisine is run on first-class lines. Passengers can have their morning tea or coffee in bed, and four elaborate meals are served daily.

For several hours out from Dublin the steamer passed close to the land, and we had an opportunity of enjoying the beauties of the Irish coast down to Wicklow Head. Then we were in open sea until some time on Sunday, when the hills of North Devon came into view. From that onwards, with glorious summer weather, there was a close view of the South-West coast of England, with the Cornish villages distinctly visible to the naked eye.

For many hours the Lady Wimborne went at a modest nine knots within half a mile or so of some famous beauty spots of the Cornish Riviera. In the evening there was a sunset over the Cornish hills that will long be remembered by those on board. At night we were at anchor in Plymouth Sound, beneath the famous Hoe. Monday was spent on shore. Some found the old-fashioned town of Drake and Frobisher, with its quaint tree-surrounded squares and glorious views from the Hoe, sufficient for the day. For others there were very cheap motor runs to Torquay and on to Dartmoor. The company make arrangements which enable passengers to see as many of the beauty spots about Plymouth and Southampton as can be visited in the time.

SOUTHAMPTON.

Southampton was reached during the night, and a stay of half a day was made in the port, our steamer lying under the shadow of the great floating dock, one of the wonders of the world, which can in a few hours raise the largest liner out of the water. All around were the yachts, hundreds of them, for which Southampton water is the Mecca.

The south-east coast, the chalk cliffs of Kent, and the Goodwin Sands were passed in the night, and with daylight on Wednesday morning we were in the Thames opposite Southend-on-Sea. The passage up the world's greatest waterway was so full of interest on either side that the travellers rushed breakfast so as to miss as little of it as possible. Our steamer was tied up in the Shadwell Basin, London Docks, at noon on Wednesday.

There followed three days in London, until 12 o'clock on Saturday, when the Lady Wimborne was ready for the return journey. The ship berths right in the heart of Stepney. Arrangements can be made for the holiday maker to sleep on board while in London.

On the return journey we had an opportunity to explore Southampton, one of the most interesting old towns in England. It might be called a great Tudor museum. In the principal streets ordinary twentieth century business is carried on in buildings whose fronts are exactly as they were in the days of Drake. Timbered houses with overhanging fronts are in every street. Some of the passengers also visited the New Forest. The return railway fare from Southampton to Lyndhurst, the chief village in the forest, is ninepence. A delightful drive is that through the forest to Bournemouth, where a whole day can be spent.

£13,000 GIVEN AWAY.

CHANCERY COURT LOOKING FOR IT.

During the hearing of an equity suit, in Cork on Saturday, concerning a lease made by an aged man, a witness stated that the man had given away £13,000 in five years, and that the Court of Chancery was trying to find where the money had gone.

The plaintiff in the suit was Timothy J. Canty, The Square, Clonakilty, retired company director, by his Committee, Joseph M. Cullinane, solicitor, and the defendant, Denis Brophy, Pearse street, Clonakilty, veterinary surgeon. The action was brought to have a lease rescinded and delivered up to be cancelled.

Mr. Moloney (instructed by Mr. J. M. Cullinane), for the plaintiff, stated that Mr. Canty was an old man of unsound mind, now under the care of the Court. He was at one time a very successful business man in West Cork, the owner of a large amount of property, and had been a director of a brewery in Clonakilty. The lease was made on August 31st, 1923, and referred to four and a half perches of ground, with a yard and some buildings, and was for one hundred years at £2 a year. Counsel said that at the time Mr. Canty was wholly unfit to carry on business; he was eighty-one years of age, and for years his mental health had been failing. Not only was he giving money away, but he pressed money on strangers.

Mr. Joseph M. Cullinane, a nephew of Mr. Canty, said that his uncle was declared to be of unsound mind on June 20th, 1924. In 1922 he paid his rent three times, but the landlord returned it. The witness added that in five years his uncle had distributed £13,000.

In cross-examination by Mr. McCarthy (instructed by Messrs. Wright and Son), the witness said that the Court of Chancery was trying to find out where the £13,000 went. His uncle had a mania for signing documents.

Dr. J. Cullinane, Clonakilty, and Dr. McCarthy, R.M.S., Cork Mental Hospital, both stated that Mr. Canty was suffering from senile dementia.

Mr. Brophy, giving evidence for the defence, stated that when he spoke to Mr. Canty about the premises now in dispute, he said: "That is no use to me; you can have it and welcome." He agreed to lease it to him. He did not want any money for it, and when the witness offered him £2 a year he said: "All right, I will take it." The witness expressed the belief that Mr. Canty's understanding was perfect at the time. The witness did not hear that he was giving away large sums of money to strangers or anyone else, and said that at present he was walking about Clonakilty, drove a pony and trap, and sometimes went out in his motor car with his chauffeur.

Judge Rosenthal made an order directing the lease to be delivered up to be cancelled.

FIRST PARISH PRIEST OF MONKSTOWN.

MEMORIAL TO CANON EATON.

A Celtic cross of Irish limestone was unveiled in Dean's Grange Cemetery yesterday to the memory of the Very Rev. Canon Robert Eaton, first parish priest of Monkstown, who died two years ago.

Before the unveiling ceremony a procession was formed at St. Patrick's Church, Monkstown, members of the Memorial Committee and the sodalities of the parish taking part. At the cemetery the paths were lined by the boys of Carriglea and district schools, and the deceased prelate's parishioners.

After unveiling the cross, Father John Healy, P.P., Monkstown, referred in glowing terms to the work of the late Canon Eaton. He expressed the hope that the memorial, which had been erected by St. Patrick's Church, Monkstown, would be worthy of their late revered pastor.

SWITZERS SALE

Commences at 9 a.m.

TO-DAY

THE keenness that exists in feminine circles for the coming of Switzers great semi-annual Sale is due to an unshaken faith in the merchandise of the house and an expectation—always realised—of seeing prices reduced to the lowest possible level. A glance through this announcement, which really features only a small proportion of the special Sale offers, and a close comparison of present with former prices, will reveal the importance of taking full advantage of the opportunity. It is only necessary to add that, with the new importation duties now in force and an increase foreshadowed in Silk prices, few, if any, of these goods can be repeated at present figures.

WEATHER FORECAST.

General Inference.—The anti-cyclone now covers the British Isles, and will maintain fair, warm weather, except near the North-East Seaboard, where freshening south-westerly winds and some rain or drizzle are probable, under the influence of a depression approaching Iceland.

Ireland North-West.—Wind south-westerly, moderate to fresh; cloudy or dull; some rain or drizzle; mist or fog locally; temperature moderate.

Ireland North-East, South-East and South-West.—Light or moderate south-westerly winds; fair to cloudy; visibility mainly good; temperature moderate to rather warm.

South-West Seaboard, Mouth of Channel to S.W. Ireland.—Wind light, variable, fine; visibility moderate to good; sea smooth.

Irish Sea and St. George's Channel.—Wind south-west; light or moderate; fair to cloudy; visibility good; sea slight.

North-West Seaboard, Northern Ireland to Hebrides.—Wind south-west; moderate to fresh or strong; some rain and mist; sea moderate, becoming rather rough.

NEWS SUMMARY.

IRELAND.

The Minister for Justice is to convene a conference of all departments concerned with a view to the establishment of a permanent scheme for the social welfare of children engaged in any form of employment, including the juvenile street traders of the City of Dublin.—(Page 7.)

GREAT BRITAIN.

Four motor cyclists, one car-driver, and a pedestrian were killed in road accidents during Saturday and Sunday.—(Page 7.)

ABROAD.

The freedom of the City of Verdun was conferred on the Lord Mayor of London at the anniversary celebrations of the battle last Saturday.—(Page 7.)

M. Caillaux's proposal to float a loan for the consolidation of France's floating debt has been accepted by both the Chamber and the Senate. The loan, which will be confined to holders of National Defence Bonds, will bear interest at 4 per cent. Payment of interest will be in gold.—(Page 7.)

There has been no further outbreak of organised disorder in China. Energetic measures to check the activities of agitators are demanded. The situation in Hong Kong is described as calm, although shipping has been seriously dislocated.—(Page 7.)

SPORTING.

At Phœnix Park on Saturday Flying Prince won the Garristown Plate, Flying Phœnix the Glencairn Plate, Trouville the Garadice Plate, Clough the Arnott Plate, Roi du Monde the Glenmaroon Plate and Irish Melody the Garlow Cross Plate.—(Page 10.)

At Sandown Park Marvex won the June Rose Handicap.—(Page 10.)

At Haydock Park Winalot won the Old Newton Cup.—(Page 10.)

FINANCIAL.

London Money Market was practically the same on Saturday as on previous days of the week. There was further borrowing at the Bank of England, and loans into next month commanded 4½ 5 per cent. Day-to-day loans were obtainable at 3½-⅞ per cent. Discount rates were firm.—(Page 4.)

French Finance.

After a great deal of desultory discussion M. Caillaux has scored a great personal success in the French Chamber. When he announced that he was about to unfold his plans for the financial salvation of France grave doubts were expressed concerning the reception which they would receive at the hands of the Socialists. The advocates of a capital levy had been very busy with their propaganda, and there was a general feeling that an attempt would be made to force the hand of the Finance Minister in this respect. In the event, however, M. Caillaux's Finance Bill has been passed in its entirety by 330 votes to 34. Most of the Socialists abstained from voting, but a number of them supported the Government as a result of M. Painlevé's strong appeal, and the only real opponents of M. Caillaux's measures were the Communists, who, of course, make a practice of voting against everything. There is nothing very startling about M. Caillaux's plans. They will not work a miracle in France; they cannot make one franc do the work of two, but they may force the people to realise the extreme gravity of their plight. If they have that effect, they will more than justify the "audacious gesture" which M Caillaux declares that he has made. There are two major proposals. The first is to secure a supplementary advance from the Bank of France of 6,000,000,000 francs, thus increasing the statutory issue of notes from 45,000,000,000 to 51,000,000,000, and, naturally, inflating French currency to that extent. The other proposal is to launch a consolidating loan, subscription to which will be limited to present holders of National Defence Bonds, which are short term securities, and are very largely responsible for France's financial difficulties.

National Defence Bonds have been continuing to mature during the last few years and the Government has been forced to pay them off at embarrassingly frequent intervals. M. de Monzie obtained an advance of 4,000,000,000 francs from the Bank of France some months ago, and M. Caillaux told the Chamber on last Friday that virtually all this sum has been used in redeeming these securities. Under the new plan a loan will be offered to holders of these bonds. It will bear interest at four per cent., which will be guaranteed by the Government in dollar parity. In other words, the interest on the new loan will be made independent of exchange fluctuations. By this means M. Caillaux hopes to induce a majority of the present holders of National Defence Bonds to convert their holdings into new loan. No new money is being sought, because M. Caillaux does not want further inflation. The success of the project, of course, depends entirely on the attitude of the bondholders. During the last few months they have been refusing more and more frequently to renew their bonds, on the ground that they needed ready money, and it is quite possible that many of them will refuse now to transfer their holdings of a very easily negotiable security for a long term loan. On the other hand, the guaranteed interest may act as a powerful inducement to investors, who are extremely uneasy at present lest further depreciation of the franc may ruin them as a similar depreciation of the mark ruined so many small investors in Germany a few years ago.

So far the Minister for Finance has made no direct mention of compulsion. The French financial newspapers, however, make no secret of the fact that the Government has given serious consideration to this matter, and suggest that, if the holders of National Defence Bonds refuse to answer M. Caillaux's call, steps will be taken to compel them to transfer their holdings before the end of the present year. It is to be hoped sincerely that such drastic measures will not become necessary. The French people already have rejected the proposal for a capital levy, and compulsory conversion of stock savours far too much of Socialist methods to appeal to the all-important bourgeoisie. M. Caillaux has expressed his conviction that there will be no lack of voluntary subscribers to the new loan. If his optimism is justified, the remainder of his great task will be simplified considerably; for the success of the loan will be only a preliminary to the work of reforming French finance. Once the 1925 Budget has been settled and M. Clémentel's illusory balance has been converted into a reality, the Budget for 1926 must be tackled. New taxes will be essential; otherwise M. Caillaux's hopes for a return to an effective gold standard will be shattered. The strictest system of tax collection must be enforced, and, above all, expenditure on military and other unproductive commitments must be reduced to rock bottom. M. Caillaux's obvious determination to succeed will do much to restore public confidence in French finance; but it will not do everything. It must be reinforced by practical proof of the Government's good intentions, and an announcement of a twenty per cent. "cut" in military expenditure would be an excellent beginning.

Satellite Towns.

No fewer than two million new houses are needed in Britain. Probably, as the Spectator observes, most of them "will be tacked on to cities already swollen to nightmare size" for bad habits are slow in dying, and, despite the progress made in the science of planning towns, Britain's cities continue to grow by accretion. London is typical of urban England. In the centre are the great commercial and government regions which change only in the replacing of ancient buildings by lofty and palatial modern piles. Residential London begins with a circle of Victorian houses, gabled or ornamented with flowery columns. This circle has declined from the dignity which it held when it formed the outskirts of the city, and now is dingy and decayed. Around it, and choking it, is a thick circle of little villas and seemingly endless terraces, reared during the "jerry-building" period with which our century began. This zone, too, has lost caste; for rapid modern transport has carried the swarming population farther in search of a more spacious environment. Thus has arisen what may be called the Georgian zone—a belt of suburbs largely constructed in the bungalow style and rendered so much more pleasant by labour-saving devices that its inhabitants wonder how their predecessors ever endured to live in the stuffy Victorian dwellings. Even this last circle of habitations is growing congested and the movement of the population is ever farther afield. All serious students of the urban problem are agreed that cities left to grow in this haphazard fashion never can be truly beautiful, healthy, or even economic. They recommend the adoption in the Old World of the principles followed in the planning of trans-Atlantic cities. Instead of adding what may be called a fresh layer to the urban agglomeration, the houses should be built a distant rural site, forming a new town—a garden "satellite." Such a town may be laid out from the beginning with a single eye to beauty and health, and need not suffer the depreciation which overtakes the suburb embedded in brick. "Welwyn Garden City" is the choice model of such a satellite town. Set deep in green Hertfordshire, it is as lovely as an old-world village, and its children are "visibly above the average for red cheeks and round limbs." Its residents are mainly professional men who journey to London by a swift train, and the town provides employment for many tradesmen, artisans and craftsmen who live beside their work instead of reaching it by crowded "workmen's trams" as in the City. In Ireland we have only two large cities, but we are allowing them to grow in the same aimless and congested manner as that which has so largely injured London. Both Dublin and Belfast are thickening their suburbs with new streets of villas instead of leaving green spaces between their outlying streets and building the needed new houses in the surrounding counties.

The Celtic Heritage.

This week the Pan-Celtic Congress will assemble in Dublin, and the people of Ireland will welcome scholars who come from Scotland, Wales, England and Brittany to visit the land in which the most ancient and copious body of Celtic tradition is enshrined. Learned men continue to dispute concerning the origin and numerical strength in ancient times of the Celtic element in the population of these islands. Many hold that the mass of the people both in Ireland and Britain are to this day of pre-Celtic stock, so that what we call the Celtic tradition is virtually indigenous and Celtic merely in the accident of its embodiment in the Brythonic and Gaelic tongues. However that may be, it is certain that for hundreds of years the constituent races of these islands have been blended beyond possibility of differentiation, so that the Celtic lore—the glamorous old tales, the songs, the legends—is the common heritage of the island breed. A Celticism which sought to segregate the Celtic speakers of to-day as a race apart and to discover in them peculiar gifts or a racial mission, would be absurdly unscientific as well as futile. A Celticism which addresses the whole population, appealing for a deeper interest in the fascinating memories of the island dawn, will evoke a cordial response. There is cause for pride that may be shared by every Irishman, every Scot, and every Englishman, in the knowledge that our mountains and glens, our meres, our highlands, and our misty coasts from the chalk of Dover to the granite of Donegal, are sources of an ancient epic imagination which has continued, from immemorial ages down to our own days, to infuse a distinguishing magic into the art and literature of these islands.

Norway's Progress.

Norway has less than half as many people as London, and yet it has given the world its greatest living explorers. Captain Amundsen, in his gallant journey by air through the Arctic regions, used a craft not much different in size from those in which the Norsemen of old explored the oceans. The visitor to the land of the modern Vikings finds it almost monotonous—fjord after fjord is but a rocky chasm between snowy peaks, with here and there a little, austerely simple port. Science, however, promises to transform this rugged and unhomely land. A correspondent of The Times tells how Norway is being fitted to support a greatly increased population. Taxation is high, and the Government is building houses and making roads on a grand scale. The abundant water-power of a land of cataracts is being harnessed and smoke is seen but seldom, while electric light, telephones and electric power are in universal use. There is hardly a lone farm dwelling but has electric current conveyed to it. Thus the solitudes of the mountains have been subdued, and the resources of civilisation may be summoned to any outpost by an electric flash. While timber, fishery and shipping still provide the staple Norwegian industries, new enterprises are being rooted in the towns. Electric power has made profitable the production of nitrate of lime by the extraction of nitrogen from the air. Paper mills are springing up, and paper is increasingly exported in place of wood pulp. Aluminium factories are appearing. Wise government, applying the powers of the State primarily to the development of the industries to which the resources of that sparse land are adapted, is bringing the land of the Vikings to the forefront of the nations; but all its efforts would be vain if the arduous spirit of the Vikings were lacking in Amundsen's people.

PHŒNIX PARK RACES.

A MIDSUMMER SPORTING EVENT.

Perfect weather, an interesting card, and a very representative attendance contributed to the success of the second June meeting in the Phœnix Park Club, which took place on Saturday at Ashtown, a course which is becoming one of the most popular in Ireland. It was an ideal afternoon, and in the picturesque surroundings the latest triumphs of the dressmakers and milliners were seen to the best advantage, and made an indescribably gay scene. Painted chiffons and crepes de chine were a special feature, and beautiful lace was employed as a trimming on many toilettes, while embroideries of several novel kinds were noted and admired. Originality found expression in parasols and footwear, and the inference of the Ascot môdes was discernible on all sides.

Among those present were:—Lady Sophie Grattan-Bellew, Miss Grattan-Bellew, Mr. and Lady Mary Corbally, Lord HolmPatrick, the Hon. H. and Mrs. Alexander, the Hon. Mrs. Dewhurst, Sir Walter and Lady Nugent, Sir John and Lady Arnott, Mrs. Van Cutsem, Major Loftus Arnott, Mr. T. Arnott, Sir George Brooke, Miss Brooke, General Sir Bryan and Lady Mahon, Lady and Miss Chance, General and Mrs. Waldron, Colonel Clarke, Colonel and Mrs. Clements, Colonel Hughes, Captain and Mrs. F. Brooke, Captain Hume, the Misses Hume, Mrs. A. J. M'Neile, Captain W. Redmond, Mrs. Croft, Miss M. Fitzgerald, Mr. E. Bellaney, Mr. and Mrs. Morton Jackson, Captain Lingard Goulding, Mr. Maxwell Arnott, Miss Knox, Mr. and Miss Dickinson, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Barker, Mr. and Miss Baillie, Captain French, Mr. H. Pack Beresford, Mr. and Mrs. Molony, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. H. Peard, Mrs. Brudenell Murphy, Mr. Newbolt, Mr. T. Lewin, Mrs. Croft, Mr. and Mrs. Shackleton, Mr. and Mrs. Murphy, Miss Robinson, Mrs. G. Nesbitt, Mrs. and Miss Evans, Miss O'Connell, Mr. Chaytor, Mrs. Haines, Miss M'Clintock, Mr. Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. A. Rogers, Mr. H. Hartigan, Mrs. H. Ussher, Mr. A. Lowry, Mr. A. H. Macaulay, Major Cape, Captain Harding, Mr. W. P. Gill, Mr. R. D. Jameson.

OBITUARY.

SIR PATRICK SHORTALL.

After a very brief illness, Sir Patrick Shortall died on Saturday morning at his residence, St. Lawrence road, Clontarf. The announcement will come as a shock to his many friends in Dublin; for he was a well-known and popular figure in the business life of the city. He was a native of Dublin and was in his fifty-fifth year.

Sir Patrick started business as a builder, in a comparatively small way, in York street, Dublin, and by his industry and energy he became a large and successful contractor, employing at times hundreds of men. For several years he was a member of the Dublin Corporation, representing the Rotunda Ward, and he filled the office of High Sheriff of the City for the year 1915-1916. In 1916 he was knighted in recognition of his work in connection with the Civic Exhibition, which was held that year.

Sir Patrick unsuccessfully contested the Parliamentary division of Clontarf as a supporter of the Nationalist Party. He took a practical interest in charitable work, and was a governor of the Meath Hospital.

MAJOR R. E. ODLUM.

We regret to announce the death of Major R. E. Odlum, late of the 14th Hussars and the Royal Irish Constabulary, which took place at Adelaide Hospital, Dublin, yesterday. Major Odlum had reached his 70th year.

Major Odlum belonged to an old Queen's County family, who were originally members of the Society of Friends. He joined the Army in early life, serving in the cavalry. Subsequently he was appointed riding master of the Royal Irish Constabulary, which position he held for several years.

Major Odlum took a great interest in the Sackville Chess Club, of which he was President for more than a decade. He was a gentleman of kindly disposition, extremely popular in the circles in which he moved. When in the Army he excelled in all branches of athletics, winning numerous cups and other trophies. During the late war he was sent out to Canada to obtain a suitable supply of horses for the Army.

Since his retirement from the Royal Irish Constabulary on the dissolution of that force Major Odlum had resided in the suburbs of Dublin, and had been a daily visitor to the Sackville Chess Club, now at La Scala Buildings, Abbey street.

NEW APPOINTMENTS.

The King has approved of the following appointments:—The Earl of Clarendon, to be Chairman of the Overseas Settlement Committee; the Earl of Plymouth to be Captain of the Gentlemen at Arms, in succession to Lord Clarendon; the Duke of Sutherland to be Paymaster-General.

NEW BELL IN ST. PATRICK'S CATHEDRAL.

The Belfry of St. Patrick's Cathedral has been enriched by the gift of a bell, presented by Lady Seeds-Kaye, in memory of the late Mr. Robert Seeds, J.P., LL.D., Q.C., Queen's Advocate General. It was placed in position last week, and was dedicated yesterday morning by the Dean.

The new bell weighs five hundredweights, and is tuned to the note A. It was supplied by Messrs. Taylor, of Loughborough, and in combination with the bells presented to the Cathedral by the Earl of Iveagh in 1902, makes up new rings as follows:—Eight in A Minor tenor (11 cwts.), ten in F tenor (19 cwts.), twelve in D Minor tenor (30 cwts.).

The whole now make up a combination which is unique in the British Isles, including two rings of twelve, three of ten, and four of eight.

After the dedication the Cathedral ringers rang touches upon the three new rings as follows:—Grandsire Triples in A Minor, Grandsire Caters in F, and Grandsire Cinques in D Minor.

The following members of the Society of Change Ringers took part:—Messrs. G. Lindoff (conductor), R. S. F. Murphy, W. Wilson, R. Tait, T. McMorran, C. Harrison, J. A. Atkinson, J. C. Cherry, G. F. Wilmot, W. Gibson, H. P. Collins, J. Lane, and G. G. Lindoff.

COURT AND PERSONAL.

The King and Queen, with several members of the Royal Family, visited Hendon last Saturday and witnessed the Royal Air Force pageant, which attracted crowds of spectators and was pronounced a magnificent display. To-day the King, who will be accompanied by the Queen, will open the new building of the Canadian Government in Trafalgar square.

* * *

Next Saturday the King will hold an Investiture at Buckingham Palace, and a similar ceremony is fixed for Monday, July 6th. Their Majesties, with a party, will be on board the Royal yacht at Cowes for the regatta week, and will be the guests of the Duke of Richmond and Gordon at Goodwood for the races. Later, when in residence at Balmoral Castle, the King and Queen will attend the Highland gathering at Braemar.

* * *

To-morrow night the Duke of York will preside at the farewell banquet to the Japanese Ambassador, which will be given at the Hyde Park Hotel. Princess Mary visited Guilford last Saturday and inspected the Surrey Girl Guides and Rangers at Stoke Park. Over six thousand girls took part in the proceedings.

* * *

The United States Ambassador and Mrs. Houghton were the principal guests at the dinner party given at Hurlingham last Saturday evening by the American Army polo team, consisting of Captain Charles H. Gerhart, Major A. H. Wilson, Major L. A. Beard, Lieutenant E. McGinley and Lieutenant J. A. Smith. The team will leave London next Saturday for New York. Major J. A. Baird has arrived in London and has taken up his duties as Assistant Military Attaché at the United States Embassy.

* * *

The Marchioness of Linlithgow is laid up with an attack of iritis and will be unable to receive the guests at the Ladies' Carlton Club ball to-morrow night or to fulfil any engagements at present. The Marquis of Linlithgow was among the guests at the farewell dinner party given last Friday by Major the Hon. John Astor and Lady Violet Astor, who started on Saturday for Canada, en route for Australia, and will not return to England for six months.

* * *

The Marchioness of Aberdeen and Temair, who presided at several meetings of the Women's National Health Association of Ireland last week, has left Dublin for Glasgow. The Marquis and Marchioness of Blandford have left London for a short stay in Paris. Lord D'Abernon left London last Saturday for the British Embassy, Berlin, where Lady D'Abernon will join him next month. Lord and Lady Stanley have left London and are spending a few days in Paris. Lady Curtis-Bennett and Miss Violet Curtis-Bennett have sailed for New South Wales in the ss. Orama.

* * *

A marriage will take place quietly in Scotland to-day between Henry Holmer (Harry) Peard, son of Mr. J. H. H. Peard and Mrs. Peard, Ashtown House, Castleknock, Co. Dublin, and Fan, younger daughter of the late Fredrick Foster McClintock, J.P., formerly of Rath House, Termonfeckin, Co. Louth, and Mrs. McClintock, 49 Brighton road, Dublin.

RELIEF IN TAXATION.

TO-MORROW'S MEETING OF CHAMBERS OF COMMERCE.

The second annual general meeting of the Association of Chambers of Commerce of the Irish Free State will be held to-morrow in the Commercial Buildings, Dame street, Dublin.

The business will include a motion approving of the proposals contained in the Budget speech of the Minister for Finance, in which he outlined the policy of the Government to raise loans for the purposes of meeting compensation claims and other non-recurrent expenditure of an exceptional character. It proposes also to ask the Government to effect reductions in expenditure, so as to provide further relief in taxation.

Resolutions will be moved in relation to transport charges, delays in clearance of dutiable goods, early closing of railway goods yards, stamp duties on cheques and receipts, amendment of bankruptcy laws, co-operative societies and income tax.

The interim report of the Commission of Inquiry into Health Insurance and Medical Services will be submitted for consideration.

"GRASS SICKNESS."

FATAL OUTBREAK IN SCOTLAND.

Over the Northern half of Scotland there has been a sudden outbreak of "grass sickness" among horses, followed by heavy mortality. Expert opinion is that the disease has been accentuated by the spell of dry, hard weather.

It is estimated that about eighty Clydesdale horses have succumbed to the disease.

DINNER IN ROYAL COLLEGE OF SURGEONS

The President of the Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland and Mrs. Maunsell entertained His Excellency the Governor-General at a dinner, held in the Examination Hall of the College, on Saturday last, in honour of the President of the American College of Surgeons, Dr. Charles H. Mayo, of Rochester, Hon. Fellow of the Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland. Among the guests was Dr. George W. Crile, of Cleveland, Hon. Fellow of the Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland, who is ex-President of the American College of Surgeons.

LONDON LETTER.

AN IMPORTANT WEEK.

59 FLEET STREET, LONDON,
SUNDAY NIGHT.

The coming week will be one of the most important as regards industry that the country has experienced for a very long time. Both the miners and the railway workers have to face a grave crisis, and it is impossible to forecast what will come out of the discussions which are to take place. It is understood that the railwaymen have to consider a reduction in working expenses of some £6,000,000, and this can scarcely be achieved without a general reduction in wages. The miners will hold some interesting conferences on Thursday and Friday. The extremist element will try its utmost to wreck the situation; but a strike seems very doubtful, for all the available funds of the Miners' Federation have been expended on unemployment pay.

The debate on unemployment to-morrow may be of considerable importance if the Government decides to make known its intentions with regard to the future, more particularly the use of the "dole." The discussion, however, must have an empty sound; for the facts regarding unemployment are patent to every member of the House of Commons, and when in office the Socialists had to admit that rabbits could not be produced from nothing. It is said in the Lobby that Mr. Macdonald was not particularly anxious to raise the question so definitely as a vote of censure entails, but that he could not resist the pressure of his back benchers. It is understood that the Prime Minister will intervene quite early in the debate, in order that he may reveal the Government's attitude, and it is only a reasonable expectation among his followers that he will be able to disprove the story that he, to quote the terms of the censure motion, "has failed to take measures to deal with a situation of unprecedented gravity."

Unemployment.

Before the debate opens the Minister of Labour will bring in the new Unemployment Insurance Bill, but this will be a purely formal business without discussion. It is generally understood that the provisions of this new measure will restore the six days' preliminary wait before benefit can be secured. The Socialists when in office reduced this to three days. A reduction of the period for which the benefit may be paid is another point. It was suggested that the amount to be paid to unmarried persons was to be lowered, but I understand that this point has been emitted from the Bill. If the Bill is passed it will mean a great decrease in the burden now placed on the employer and the employed, but that the Socialists will fight it tooth and nail is a foregone conclusion.

The Rail Crisis.

Although the subjects discussed at the conference between the railway companies and their employés, regarding the method by which wages are to be brought into line with economic conditions of working, are veiled in secrecy, speculation is permissible as to the result of the negotiations. There is an impression that the flat rate of pay for all parts of the country will not be continued. It has been contended in other industries that a national rate in injudicious, if not actually unfair, for a rate that is good pay in an out-of-the-way agricultural area is insufficient in a large town, and, if the rate is brought up to the standard of the urban districts, it gives too much to the workers in the rural parts. It probably will be found that the wage reductions, when they are finally agreed upon, will be less severe in London than in the provinces.

Poplar and Moscow.

The Mayor of Poplar, Mr. Edgar Lansbury, is the son of Mr. George Lansbury, M.P., and, therefore, it is not altogether surprising to find him saying that he hopes one day that the Red Flag will be hoisted in Poplar, which would become the centre of the first Labour Republic of England. The Mayor was addressing a party of twenty Russian men and women attached to the Soviet service in London, who were making a tour of Poplar under his guidance. Mr. Lansbury added that he was pleased to see his visitors, because there is a special bond between Poplar and Moscow, and one day Poplar may be as great as Moscow. The Russians were naturally delighted with such a speech, and expressed the hope that the wish of the Mayor might soon be realised.

An American Experiment.

An experiment of world-wide interest is to be inaugurated in the Irish Free State; for it is understood that the United States Government has decided to put into operation in Ireland the system which has for so long been advocated of accepting emigrants in their own countries instead of at Ellis Island. If the system proves successful, of which there is little doubt, it will be extended to all countries to which a quota has been allotted by the American immigration authorities. The plans provide for the attachment of immigration officers and public health officials to the United States Consulates in Ireland.

Canada House.

The King and Queen will drive from Buckingham Palace to-morrow to the new Canada building at the corner of Trafalgar square, and will be met at the door by the High Commissioner, Mr. Peter Larkin, and conducted to the Great Hall of the building where the opening ceremony will take place. Many well-known people have been invited to be present, including the Prime Minister, the Lord Chancellor, the Ambassadors, the Marquis and Marchioness of Lansdowne, Lady Strathcona, Mr. Ramsay Macdonald and Mr. J. H. Thomas. Three keys of gold, silver and nickel, all of Ontario metals, will be presented to the King and Queen and the High Commissioner, while a set will be sent to the Dominion Premier, Mr. Mackenzie King. Members of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police will be on duty during the proceedings.

Sunshine in London.

After several days of gloominess overhead and cold winds London this evening experienced a few brief moments of sunshine, much to the general delight; for everybody was getting quite depressed at the greyness dominating everything after the glorious weather of the heat wave. The warm sunshine of the early summer, in marked contrast to the last two years, has had its effect upon grouse. Suitable weather ruled throughout the breeding season, and since then the birds have developed splendidly. Reports from Scotland and the Yorkshire moors are all of an optimistic character, and excellent sport is foreshadowed, providing the climatic conditions do not take a bad turn in the next few weeks.

Motor Insurance.

In quite a number of cases recently it has been found that the owners of motor vehicles which have inflicted serious injury upon other motorists, or upon pedestrians, have been uninsured, and have had insufficient means to compensate the victims. Since motoring is daily becoming a more democratic pastime, and owing to the number of cars in use, accidents are increasingly numerous, the time must soon come when some action must be taken to secure the position of those who are injured through the faults of others. The method of providing the greatest protection to pedestrians in the easiest manner is held by many to be the compulsory insurance by owners against third-party risks, and legislation on the point is by no means improbable in the near future.

GOLD BASIS AGAIN.

FRANCE'S NEW LOAN.

CONSOLIDATION OF DEBT.

M. CAILLAUX'S PLAN.

PASSED INTO LAW.

M. CAILLAUX, who was called out of obscurity to solve the French Treasury's difficulties when the Herriot Government fell, has forced the first part of his plan of reform through both Houses of Parliament within thirty hours.

The most urgent problems which he has to meet are the honouring of the State's obligations to the holders of Treasury Bonds which fall due within the next sixteen days and the consolidation of the floating debt.

The Minister proposes to obtain an advance of 6,000,000,000 francs (about £60,000,000 at the present rate of exchange) from the Bank of France and to issue a loan which will be confined to holders of National Defence Bonds. The interest on this loan (4 per cent.) will be paid in gold, thereby protecting the holders from fluctuations in the rates of exchange.

The bill provides that the maximum total of the floating debt of the Treasury, not including the advance by the bank already mentioned, shall be fixed at the sum which it will reach on the date of the closing of the subscription list to the loan. This total will not afterwards be increased except by the sums necessary for the repayment of the short-term debt as it falls due.

With the success of these measures the Government hopes to be able to meet all the expenditure of 1925 not covered by revenue. For next year it hopes to avoid "financial complications" by asking the Chamber to vote the necessary taxation.

ALL-NIGHT DEBATE.

AN "AUDACIOUS GESTURE OF CONFIDENCE."

(Reuter's Telegrams.)

PARIS, Saturday.

The debate on M. Caillaux's proposals in the Chamber began last Friday afternoon and lasted all night.

M. Caillaux made an extremely able speech in support of his proposals. He declared that of the advance of four milliards which M. de Monzie had obtained from the Chamber nothing now remained except a few millions, in consequence of withdrawal of National Defence Bonds. This situation could not go on. The first duty of the Minister of Finance was to assure complete equilibrium of the Budget. All expenditure should be covered by taxation.

He would never allow the country to embark on the path of inflation.

With the same energy he would reject the idea of a moratorium. The Government did not want any unproductive consolidation. It simply intended to ask citizens to convert their National Defence Bonds. He refuted the assertion that the Bourse would take exception to the fact that the exchange rate was guaranteed, and pointed out that many shares—Suez Canal shares, for instance—had the exchange rate guaranteed.

BACK TO GOLD STANDARD.

M. Caillaux added: "Our audacious gesture is a gesture of confidence. Our idea is a return to the gold standard. When Germany and Great Britain and the majority of the Powers have returned to the gold standard our industry would be placed in an inferior position if we did not bring our country back to a normal condition. We appeal for the confidence and collaboration of the nation."

M. Leon Blum rose and said that he was convinced the loan would be a complete success, and that seeing the path chosen by the Government, it was not possible to have recourse to another method of issue. The Socialists would refrain from voting on the entire bill, because they were opposed in principle to inflation. On the other hand, they would not vote against it if they found the final ballot put the Cabinet in danger. They would vote for the bill.

PREMIER'S APPEAL.

M. Painlevé, the Premier, urged the Chamber to pass the bill by a large majority. "If it is not passed by a large majority," he said, "my task will be too onerous."

A Socialist amendment for a provisional capital levy was defeated by 340 votes to 210, and at 6.15 a.m. on Saturday the whole of M. Caillaux's proposals were passed by 330 votes to 34.

CERTAIN OF SUCCESS.

APPEAL TO A PROSEPEROUS FRANCE.

PARIS, Saturday.

Shortly after six o'clock this evening the Senate adopted M. Caillaux's proposals, which, accordingly, now become law.

The Senate's session began at 10 a.m. M. Caillaux was followed with close attention, and was, at times cheered. He did not, he said, hide the gravity of the present situation. He quite agreed that it was regrettable to be obliged to make an appeal to the Bank of France, but it could not be helped. He realised the menace of a floating debt, and thought the only measure to take was the consolidation of that debt. This was the reason he had created a loan, the holders of which would be guaranteed against fluctuations of the exchanges.

STEP BY STEP.

Applauded by almost every bench in the Senate, he concluded: "People are asking from us a cast plan of refunding. This would not be sufficient. There is a need for several stages, the first one being the balancing of the Budget, and that is why we proclaim the necessity for economy, and we are agreed among ourselves that the most satisfactory way is the launching of the loan we are proposing to-day.

"It is not our fault that we are obliged to ask an inflation of six milliard francs; it is due to the fact that we have many payments to make, and it must not be forgotten that we are asking at a time when France is enjoying great economic prosperity, and we are sure that the country will respond to our appeal."

M. Painlevé said that he was sure the present Government had no responsibility for the present state of the finances. He added that no other Government could do any better. He realised the peril of the floating debt. As far as he himself was concerned, he was against all kinds of inflation, but the one that was asked for that day could not be prevented, and the result would be to consolidate the debt.

INTER-ALLIED DEBTS.

PARIS, Sunday.

In an interview to-day, M. Caillaux said that during the Parliamentary vacation he would begin to study seriously the problem of inter-Allied debts. He was certain he would find a solution giving satisfaction to the creditors of France.—(Exchange.)

BRITISH CADETS IN FRANCE.

LE TOUQUET, Sunday.

A hundred and twenty boys of the Duke of York's Royal Military School at Dover arrived this morning at Etaples on a two days' visit to France. They were first taken to the great English military cemetery at Etaples and were afterwards reviewed at Paris Plage by General Mourier.—(Reuter.)

NO COAL STRIKE.

STAVELEY CHAIRMAN AND MASTERS' ASSOCIATION.

CHEAPER COAL WANTED

Mr. Charles P. Markham, Chairman of the Staveley Coal and Iron Company, and several other companies, speaking on Saturday at Staveley in connection with the starting of a new gas engine at their iron works, said that they had been riled by the accusations of the miners' leaders of inefficiency against the owners' management. Yet the leaders themselves had never advanced any proposal for its betterment. As far as he was concerned, there was going to be no coal strike, and after the end of the present month the company would be dissociated from practically every masters' association or ring of any sort. They wanted cheaper, and not dearer, coal for the trade of the country.

He believed that the workmen were beginning to see through the rotten and abortive promises made to them, and that there would be little chance of inducing the Government to grant any subsidy to the industry at the present time. There was also no truth in the statement that the coal-owners' notices to terminate the existing agreement, which has been decided upon, has actually been despatched to the Secretary of the Miners' Federation.

As has been announced already, notice will be given on Tuesday, and it will terminate the present agreement on July 31st.

A DELICATE SITUATION.

Avoidance of discussion on the delicate situation was advised by Mr. Thomas Richards, General Secretary, at the closing session of the annual conference of the South Wales Miners' Federation at Cardiff on Saturday. It was stated that, although the employers had given notices to terminate contracts, no intimation had been received of the variations which the owners desired to introduce into the new agreement, other than in general terms, that they required alterations both in respect of hours and wage rates. It was revealed during the brief discussion that all the available funds of the Federation had been expended on unemployment pay during the past few years.

ROYAL AIR FORCE PAGEANT.

THE KING AND QUEEN AT HENDON.

The King and Queen attended the Royal Air Force Pageant at Hendon on Saturday. There was a large attendance on the flying ground. Besides the usual races for light aeroplanes, the programme included landing and other competitions, an aerial combat, the destruction of a giant dummy cruiser, and drill in the air, by wireless telephony, with the King issuing an order from the Royal Box.

SUDDEN DEATH AT TENNIS.

DOCTOR COLLAPSES IN SECOND SET.

While playing tennis at the Marlborough road Tennis Courts, London, yesterday morning, Dr. Henry Graeme Anderson, of Harley street, consulting surgeon to the Royal Air Force, was seized with a heart attack, and died almost immediately. He was taking part in the third round of the Veterans' Singles Lawn Tennis Tournament. He had won the first set, and was leading in the second, when he collapsed.

Dr. Anderson, in his official capacity, attended the Royal Air Force pageant at Hendon, on Saturday. He was the author of several books on surgery, the chief of which was "The Medical and Surgical Aspects of Aviation." He was forty-one years of age.

HASTINGS CLIFF MYSTERY.

TRAGIC END OF A HONEYMOON.

At the foot of Ecclesbourne Cliff, three miles east of Hastings, on Saturday evening, a Mrs. Evelyn Nellie Burton, aged twenty-seven, who was spending her honeymoon at Hastings, was found lying unconscious, and terribly injured. She died while on the way to hospital. Mrs. Burton was the wife of Mr. Cyril Henry Burton, a temporary clerk in the Civil Service, to whom she was married in Buckinghamshire, on June 14. They were on most affectionate terms, and were looking forward to establishing their home at Croydon.

Early on Saturday morning Mrs. Burton left the apartments where they were staying, and said that she was going to buy something for breakfast. As she did not return, her husband, having made an unsuccessful search, told the police. Mrs. Burton's movements during the twelve hours following her disappearance are a mystery. At eight o'clock p.m. a woman was seen to disappear over the cliff at Ecclesbourne, the police were informed, and they found the missing woman.

FIGHTING IN FRENCH MOROCCO.

ENEMY ATTACK REPULSED.

PARIS, Sunday.

A communiqué from Rabat states that the force under Colonel Freyeenberg, continuing its operations in the region of Teroual, has arrived at Ain Bonaiissa without difficulty. The force operating in the central zone, while ascending the valley of Leban, encountered stubborn resistance from the enemy in the region of Babtaza, but its advance guard succeeded in reaching the post of Buhalima, driving back the enemy and re-establishing liaison. In the Eastern sector, in the region of Cheyab, the enemy's attacks continue, and an engagement took place with some of the French troops from Msila Babmorong. Further to the east, in the region of Buhiris, an enemy attack was repulsed with great brilliance.

DATE OF ISSUE.

STOCK CARRIES INTEREST AT 4 PER CENT.

From The "Financial News" Correspondent.

PARIS, Sunday.

The law embodying M. Caillaux's financial plans, which were adopted officially yesterday by both Chambers, is published in this morning's Official Journal.

It is announced that an internal loan at 4 p.c. on a gold basis will be issued to holders of National Defence Bonds between July 10th and 15th.

So far the impression created by M. Caillaux's energetic proposals in the country, as well as abroad, appears to be favourable, and, no doubt, will be reflected in the trend of the franc.

BUZZARD AS CLUE.

BODY OF MISSING MAN FOUND.

PARIS, Sunday.

The remains of a man who has been missing since last October have been discovered as the result of a farmer's lucky shot. M. Mouilleron, living near Chaumont, saw a buzzard flying close to the ground with what looked like a human skull between its claws. He had his gun with him, and fired, bringing the bird to the ground, when he found that the object was, in fact, a skull. A search was organised, and after some time the body of a man was found, and was identified by means of the clothing.—(Reuter.)

SIX FATAL ROAD ACCIDENTS.

FOUR MOTOR CYCLISTS KILLED.

DEATH ROLL OF THREE IN BELFAST.

Five motorists, four of whom were motor cyclists, were killed and three seriously injured in road accidents last Saturday. Two motor cyclists who collided near Belfast were killed, and a third, in avoiding the others, ran into a telegraph pole and sustained serious injuries. A woman pedestrian was knocked down and killed by a car at Dundonald, on the outskirts of Belfast. The car in which Dame Clara Butt was returning from her silver wedding celebrations in Bristol collided with a motor cyclist, who died in hospital. In Derbyshire a motor cyclist received fatal injuries in a collision with a wagonette, and a leading Newcastle-on-Tyne surgeon was killed by the overturning of the car which he was driving.

THREE MOTOR CYCLES INVOLVED.

Two motor cyclists, Hugh McQuoid, aged 21, of Crossnagreevy, near Belfast, and Alexander McKibbin, aged 30, were killed in a head-on collision between the motor cycles that they were riding at Carryduff, near Belfast, last Saturday night. McQuoid, with his brother, William, aged 25, were returning from the city. William swerved to avoid the wreck and dashed into a telegraph pole. He sustained serious injuries, and lies in the Royal Victoria Hospital in a critcal condition.

The accident happened at an "S" bend. McKibbin was instantly killed, and Hugh McQuoid died a few minutes after admission to hospital.

CLARA BUTT'S CAR INVOLVED.

Dame Clara Butt, the prima donna, while motoring to her country residence at Wallingford, Surrey, on Saturday evening, collided with a motor cyclist, Francis Willis, aged 20, Oakhurst road, Swindon, who died from his injuries. Dame Clara Butt, with her husband, Mr. Kennerley Rumford, had been to Bristol to give a concert in connection with the celebrations of her silver wedding, her marriage having taken place in Bristol on June 26, 1900. She left for her country home on Saturday, driving in a fifty horse-power Rolls-Royce car. At Kimber Corner, near Swindon, it came into collision with a motor cyclist, who was thrown heavily to the ground. He was taken to the Savernake Hospital, where he died.

COLLISION WITH WAGONETTE.

On Saturday night, Brian Wharton, aged 22, was motor cycling along the Bakwell road, Derbyshire, when he collided with a wagonette. He received severe injuries, and died before reaching hospital. Mr. Wharton was the son of an official of the London, Midland, and Scottish Railway.

MOTOR CARS OVERTURN.

While motoring to Newcastle-on-Tyne on Saturday, Dr. Hamilton Drummond, the well-known Newcastle surgeon, was fatally injured. Dr. Drummond, who was a major in the Territorial Royal Army Medical Corps, attached to the Northumberland Hussars in training at Fourstones, was returning from the camp when his car swerved and overturned. Dr. Drummond sustained a fractured leg and died six hours later. Two other occupants of the car were removed to hospital. The doctor was a son of Sir David Drummond, the eminent brain specialist.

Late on Saturday night a motor car overturned near Risca, Monmouthshire, and two Newport butchers were seriously injured and removed to hospital at Newport.

WOMAN KILLED BY CAR.

Mrs. Margaret Bell, aged 50, of Ballystockart, was knocked down and killed by a motor car at Dundonald, near Belfast, late last night.

AMERICAN RUBBER CONCESSION.

TO BREAK POWER OF BRITISH COMBINE.

WASHINGTON, Saturday.

The first step in the plan of the American rubber manufacturers to break the power of the British "combine" is seen in the announcement of Mr. Harvey S. Firestone, President of the Firestone Tire and Rubber Co., that his and other American interests have practically concluded negotiation for a concession in Liberia to cultivate rubber on a huge scale.

Coincidentally with the conclusion of a tentative agreement regarding the concession, an arrangement is being made for the flotation in the United States of a loan of 5,000,000 dollars for the Government of Liberia. The Firestone interests are understood to have already acquired an experimental rubber plantation of eleven hundred acres in Liberia. The plantation is said to have been originally planned out by British interests.—(Reuter.)

TYRE INDUSTRY.

AMERICAN PRICE OF TUBES ADVANCED.

NEW YORK, Saturday.

The General Tire and Rubber Company has advanced the price of its inner tubes by 33½ per cent. This is one of the largest single movements in the upward history of the industry.—(Reuter.)

VERDUN ANNIVERSARY.

CITY'S GRATITUDE TO LONDON.

VERDUN, Sunday.

The ninth anniversary of the Battle of Verdun was celebrated yesterday. Nearly all the houses in the town were draped with the French and British flags, the latter in honour of the Lord Mayor of London, who was present at the celebrations. The Lord Mayor was welcomed by M. Schleiter, Deputy Mayor of Verdun, M. Poincaré, the Prefect of the Meuse, and all the members of the Municipal Council.

Following the inauguration of a water tower built with the assistance of gifts from London, the Municipal Council held a public sitting at the Town Hall, where M. Schleiter read, in the name of the Municipal Council, a proposal to confer the Freedom of the City of Verdun on the Lord Mayor and his successors. The Lord Mayor replied in English, and thanked the Municipality and the town of Verdun for this great honour.

The city gave a banquet at night, at which the Lord Mayor of London was the principal guest. M. Poincaré said that London's generosity was not a fugitive demonstration of the sentiments of a day, but a brilliant testimony of solid, unshakable friendship. All citizens of Verdun realised what sympathies and great interests closely united the two countries, and he felt that he would certainly be their faithful interpreter in drinking to the perennial alliance of the French and British peoples.

M. Poincaré concluded with the toast of "Our Alliance, and, through it, the peace of the world."—(Reuter.)

CANADIAN VIMY MEMORIAL.

PARIS, Sunday.

The Canadian Vimy Memorial Church (Protestant) was inaugurated at Lens to-day in the presence of Mr. Philippe Roy, the Canadian High Commissioner in France, and Professor Bieler, of Montreal.—(Reuter.)

TRANS-ARCTIC AVIATION.

RIGA, Sunday.

The German airman, Captain Bruns, has worked out a scheme for the organisation of an expedition to the unexplored regions of the Arctic Ocean off the Northern coast of Russia and Siberia, with a view to inaugurating regular airship communication between Europe and the countries on the Pacific Ocean via the Arctic regions. Dr. Nansen has submitted plans to the Soviet Government in connection with the proposal and a commission of six members has been formed to study the question.—(Reuter.)

LESS ANXIETY IN CHINA.

SPORADIC OUTRAGES BY HOOLIGANS.

MISCHIEF-MAKING PROPAGANDISTS.

ENERGETIC FOREIGN ACTION DEMANDED.

The situation at Shanghai, Tientsin, Tsingtao, Chefoo and Peking is described generally as quiet, except for persistent stone-throwing at the tramcars in Shanghai. Some hooligans there threw vitriol into a tramcar, with the result that a Chinese woman had to be taken to the hospital and several Chinese received minor injuries. The tramcars run as usual during the day-time, but are discontinued at nightfall.

At Hong Kong shipping is dislocated by the desertion of the crews. The Governor has mobilised the Volunteers and put into force the Peace Preservation Ordinance.

The British Chargé d'Affaires in Peking has sent a written protest to the Chinese Government on the attack at Shameen (Canton) and the wounding of British subjects. To-day the Diplomatic Corps in Peking will meet to consider the report of its delegation on the incidents at Shanghai.

DEMAND FOR FIRM HAND.

SHANGHAI, Sunday.

The only redeeming feature of the very serious situation is that the Diplomatic Body is holding well together and showing an increasingly firm front in dealing with the Peking Government. It should be clearly understood that the unfortunate Shanghai incident and the others following it are being used by professional agitators as an excuse for turning the country upside down. Public sympathy has been enlisted by a campaign of barefaced misrepresentation, which has established the belief that monumental wrong is being done to China by foreigners, particularly the British. There is no foundation whatever for this assumption, either as regards the series of incidents or in connection with the treaties.

A settlement of the Shanghai affair might easily have been achieved if it had not been maliciously exaggerated from the very beginning. The British Government has the particular duty in this juncture to see that all possible precautions are taken to ensure the protection of its nationals. The Canton affair aptly illustrates present possibilities, and a grave responsibility rests on the authorities who neglect to increase the present inadequate naval and military forces.—(The Times Correspondent.)

PROPAGANDISTS FOR INDIA.

IRISH TIMES FOREIGN SERVICE.

From Our Own Correspondent.

PEKING, Sunday.

Chinese Mohammedans, under Chi Ti-jen, President of the Mohammedan Foreign Relations Association, and the Mohammedan General, Ma Liang, who directed last Thursday's demonstration here, have decided to send delegates to India and other British Protectorates to arouse the people against Great Britain as the common enemy.

Two well-known Soviet agitators, members of a group which is under surveillance here by the authorities, departed this morning for Hankow, where a three-days' demonstration is being held against foreigners. Most of the other Chinese cities are holding similar demonstrations on Tuesday. The situation here generally is quietening.

SHANGHAI INQUIRY

PEKING, Sunday.

A mandate appoints the following Commission to inquire into the shooting at Shanghai—Dr. W. W. Yen, ex-Premier and ex-Foreign Minister; Dr. C. T. Wang, who negotiated the first Sino-Russian Treaty, and became Provisional Premier after the Feng Yu-hsiang coup d'etat, and Admiral Tsai Ting-kan, who was the senior Chinese delegate in Shanghai recently. It is expected that the Foreign Commission will now be appointed without delay.—(Reuter.)

JAPAN LOTH TO TAKE ACTION.

TOKYO, Sunday.

Although the "sensational" Press continues to publis articles hostile to Great Britain, and some newspapers advocate active policies in regard to China, there is no question that the Government earnestly desires to avoid active measures, since there is no knowing whither they might lead. The attitude of Japan towards China is almost the reverse of that of five years ago. Chinese affairs, unforunately, are becoming more or less a matter of party politics.—The Times Correspondent.

SITUATION IN HONG KONG.

SUPPORT FOR LAW AND ORDER.

A Reuter telegram from Hong Kong says that the general situation there is very calm. The food situation, as far as the Europeans are concerned, is good. The dislocation of shipping through the desertion of crews is very severe. A score of British coasting steamers and ocean liners are lying idle in Kowloon Bay.

The Colonial Office issues the following:—

The Governor reports that he has mobilised the Volunteers, put into force the Peace Preservation Ordinance, and issued regulations under the Emergency Regulations Ordinance, 1922. The Regulations issued are similar to those issued on the occasion of the last strike in 1922, with the omission of the provisions relating to labour, which are not at present required.

The Governor states that he has prohibited the exportation of foodstuffs and money and has granted the request of the Chinese bankers for a moratorium. A censorship has been imposed on Chinese telegrams, correspondence and newspapers.

The behaviour of the European population is admirable, and responsible Chinese are being of great assistance. The call for special constables has met with an enthusiastic response, and the Governor wishes particularly to acknowledge the help of the American community, which has come forward en masse for this purpose. He has received all possible help from the Naval and Military authorities.

The Governor adds that the strikers are half-hearted and are only brought out by pressure from Canton. The absence of an anti-foreign feeling is marked, and but for intimidation there would be no strike.

BANKS TO RE-OPEN.

HONG KONG, Sunday.

A meeting of Chinese bankers to-day decided to re-open on Monday. The Committee of the Shareholders' Association also resolved to fall in with the action of the Stock Exchange and to re-open on July 7. Naval ratings conveyed stores to Shameen yesterday afternoon. A gang of coolies, under police protection, last night discharged the cargo of the former German steamer Anhalt at the Kowloon wharves.

CAPTAIN AMUNDSEN'S PLANS.

A LECTURING TOUR.

OSLO, Saturday.

Interviewed by wireless, by the Aftenposten, Captain Amundsen said that he intended to leave for a lecturing tour in America after delivering a lecture in Oslo. Mr. Ellsworth would return to America immediately, while MM. Riiser Larsen and Dietrichsen were to undertake a lecturing tour in Europe.

Captain Amundsen expressed the view that aeroplane flights over longer distances in the Arctic regions, under ice conditions, such as his party found, are too hazardous. Navigation in the Arctic region was not more difficult than they had supposed before starting.

The explorer did not answer the question whether he will be a member of the proposed Zeppelin exploration party next year, and the paper suggests that this may be interpreted as tacit confirmation of the rumour that he is interested in Captain Eckener's plan for an airship flight to the North Pole.—(Reuter.)

VISION THE REAL NEED.

INDUSTRIAL DEPRESSION AND ARMAMENTS.

MR. LLOYD GEORGE'S VIEWS.

In an address at the Castle street Welsh Baptist Chapel, London, yesterday, Mr. Lloyd George said that there never was greater need for vision than at the present moment. The clouds were never darker and denser. This country, and most of the nations of the world, stood in deep need of light. Whence was it to come? There were a great many lamps about, of all colours—blue, yellow, and, above all, red; but the value of a lamp did not depend on the colour, but on its light.

They were all trying to do their best with their little safety lamps, and he was the last man in the world to underrate the value of politicians. He heard people disparage politicians, but, as he had said before, the nations with the worst politicians were the nations which were beaten in the last war. Therefore, the politician had his place in this world, at least, and, he hoped, would not be forgotten in the next. But they were not going to get that light, that vision, at the present moment from the politicians, or from political economists, or captains of industry, whether they be employer or labour. It had got to come from something that could illuminate the hearts and minds of men.

Asking "Why do the nations rage so furiously together?" Mr. Lloyd George said that there was no more incurable animal on earth than man. Everybody thought that he had a lesson of the ages in the last war. But let them look at the armaments of nations liberated for the first time. Like Lazarus, called forth from the tomb, Poland came forth and Czecho-Slovakia. All were making huge Armies, and borrowing money for mechanism of human torture and slaughter. We were spending, and France and the rest were spending, millions on armaments. We had learnt nothing. Going on to refer to the industrial troubles, Mr. Lloyd George said that they could not find a solution, except on the basis of human brotherhood, and there would be no real cure for present evils of society until they got a vision that would illuminate the hearts of men.

THE LIFFEY SCHEME.

WHY CORPORATION'S BILL WAS DROPPED.

"No public purpose would be served by the Corporation's incurring further expenditure on the promotion of the Dublin and District Electricity Supply Bill" was the view expressed in a letter of the Ministry of Industry and Commerce, a copy of which, transmitted from the Secretary to the Ministry of Local Government, was presented to the Dublin Borough Commissioners—Mr. Seumas Murphy, Dr. Dwyer, and Mr. P. J. Hernon—at their meeting in the City Hall last Saturday.

Mr. Ignatius J. Rice, the Law Agent, suggested that the letter indicating the views of the President of the Executive Council, and the letter from the Ministry of Industry and Commerce should be fully entered on the minutes, so that there might be no mistake about the reasons which prompted the action of the Corporation in withdrawing their bill. He added that this seemed to be necessary in view of the "extraordinary ignorance of current events" displayed by the ex-chairman of an important Dublin Public Board, as indicated by the report of his remarks, and by the still more extraordinary fact that the solicitor of the Board in question, who, as a member of the firm promoting one of the opposing bills, was not able to give the Board an authoritative account of the transaction.

In the letter referred to from the President it was stated: "As the Government has decided to proceed with the Shannon Bill . . . . the attitude of the Government to the Liffey Bill must be that it would not be in the public interest to allow the latter to proceed."

The Commissioners resolved that the letters from the Ministry of Industry and Commerce, and from the President, be inserted on the minutes, and that in view of the considerations set out therein they approve of the decision not to proceed further with the promotion of the Dublin and District Electricity Bill.

EARTHQUAKE SHOCKS.

STATE OF MONTANA SHAKEN.

BILLINGS, MONTANA, Sunday.

Two-thirds of the State of Montana were shaken by a series of earthquake shocks, which began at 6.23 o'clock, last evening. No casualties are reported, but widespread, though not serious, damage has been caused to buildings, roads, and bridges. The big copper mines at Butte, and elsewhere, were not damaged. Landslides between Lombard and Three Forks bottled up three trains, but, according to officials of the Northern Pacific Railway, the trains are safe.—(Reuter.)

FANZA, Sunday.

The apparatus of the Bendani Observatory recorded a violent earthquake shock at 2.32 this morning, at a distance of about 5,600 miles.

HINDU AND MOSLEM TENSION.

ANXIETY AT ALLAHABAD.

ALLAHABAD, Sunday.

The exceptionally acute tension between the Hindus and the Moslems is causing anxiety in regard to the coming Mahomedan festival of Bakr-Id. Both Hindus and Moslems are reported to be secretly arming themselves. The district magistrate here has issued orders prohibiting the carrying of lathis (bludgeons) over four feet long and one inch in diameter within the municipal limits from to-morrow until next Sunday, and he has also issued a warning that the employment of gangs of bludgeon wielders is a criminal offence.—(Reuter.)

NEW SWARAJIST LEADER.

CALCUTTA, Sunday.

Mr. J. M. Sen Gupta has been elected leader of the Swarajist Party. Mr. Gupta formerly was chief lieutenant to the late Mr. C. R. Das in Calcutta. He was engaged recently, for the defence, in the Bawla trial. At a meeting to-day he promised his audience that he would not depart from the policy of Mr. Das.—(Reuter.)

BY AIRSHIP TO THE POLE.

ZEPPELIN TO BE BUILT IF POWERS PERMIT.

IRISH TIMES FOREIGN SERVICE.

From Our Own Correspondent.

BERLIN, Sunday.

A Zeppelin expedition to the North Pole in the spring of 1927 is now virtually assured as the result of the negotiations between the International Polar Exploration Society and Dr. Eckner, a Zeppelin commander. As the result of these negotiations which have just been concluded it has been decided that the expedition shall be commanded by Dr. Eckner, with Captain Nansen heading the technical department. Whether Captain Amundsen will take part in the expedition has not yet been determined.

The exploration will be carried out with a Zeppelin airship, having a capacity of 100,000 cubic metres, nearly double the capacity of the Zeppelin airship which was flown to America from Friedrichshafen last year. The Zeppelin Company has agreed to pay for the construction costs of the airship, while the International Polar Exploration Society has undertaken to obtain from the Council of Ambassadors permission for the construction of the dirigible, which will be built at Friedrichshafen.

The construction of the airship will require from 16 to 18 months, and, with complete equipment, it will cost ten million gold marks. It is probable that the ship will be equipped with an 800 h.p. Maybach engine. The German Government, following investigation by the Ministry of Transport, announces that it will support the flight to the Pole in every possible way.

LATE NEWS.

UNEMPLOYMENT.

TO-DAY'S DEBATE IN THE COMMONS.

The Times, in a leading article upon to-day's vote of censure which the Labour Party are anxious to move in Parliament on the subject of unemployment, remarks—If speeches and resolutions could cure unemployment every man and woman of working age would have been in full employment for the last four years. Unfortunately, industry is still in the main beyond the control of Governments. British industry, in particular, is dependent on world conditions which the British Government cannot control and pathetic or threatening appeals to the Government to cure the evil of unemployment do nothing to increase the Government's powers in that matter.

The root cause of the present abnormal unemployment is the destruction of wealth by the war; the world is unable to buy in the old quantities at the old values what we have to sell, and we are unable to offer anything else. The cure, however it is brought about, is not likely to be effected unless we can produce more at lower costs. This will involve sacrifices of privileges, of leisure, of ease, and everybody expects someone else to make the sacrifice. If a practical scheme can be elaborated that offers any prospect of improving employment, then it will be welcomed, whatever its scale and whatever its reactions on vested interests. But the mere creation of Governmental machinery is not such a scheme, and would raise hopes only to disappoint them.

Let the parties combine, therefore, to make the best use of existing devices on the basis of the existing organisation of industry and endeavour, in particular, to find a prophylactic against what is the chief evil of the present unemployment—the demoralising effects of prolonged idleness.

DEATH OF MR. A. D. GODLEY.

LEARNED AND WITTY IRISHMAN.

The Times announces that Mr. Alfred Denis Godley, Public Orator at Oxford, and a notable parodist and wit, died in Oxford on Saturday after a short illness, at the age of 69. He sprang, says The Times in an obituary notice, from a well-known family which has for more than one generation produced divines, soldiers, scholars and civil administrators, and was specially connected in the last century with the colonisation of New Zealand. One of the most distinguished in this country is his cousin, Lord Kilbracken, so long Permanent Secretary to the India Office, and one of the most brilliant of Oxford's classical scholars. He himself was the eldest son of the Rev. James Godley, Rector of Carrigallen, County Leitrim, and he possessed, together with the quiet sagacity of his family, much of the genial, eloquent and humorous temper associated with the soil from which he sprang, and, perhaps, found in full perfection nowhere else.

Godley was born on January 22, 1856, and was sent as a small boy to a very remarkable private school in Dublin, kept by a Mr. Tilney Bassett, which initiated a striking number of distinguished pupils, among them being Sir Charles Stanford, Sir Dunbar Plunket Barton, Sir Conyngham Greene, and his brother, Plunket Greene, and Mr. Sidney Graves Hamilton. Thence he passed on, like so many Irish lads, to Harrow, then under the congenial rule of Dr. Butler. Alike to his school and its head, he remained devotedly attached, and became in due course a member of the Governing Body.

From Harrow he won first a Classical Exhibition at Balliol in 1872, when Lord Milner and his own Harrow friend, S. G. Hamilton, were elected Scholars, and in 1873 a scholarship, and was soon recognised at Balliol, as he had been at school, as one of its best classical scholars.

Tall, manly, and of vigorous physique, he was, at first sight, of a very sober, and, indeed, like so many notable wits, somewhat sad aspect which lent an enhancing element of surprise to the quiet, but infinitely rich, humour of his utterance. In modern letters he was a sound critic, if a little conservative. Of Tennyson he was always an uncompromising admirer. If to be a little Victorian is a fault, he, perhaps, had it, though he was also an admirer of Henry. If to be a scholar, a gentleman, and of Christian temper and unaffected piety, is to have foibles, he certainly had all these.

£2,000 DAMAGE.

DUBLIN GARAGE DESTROYED BY FIRE.

Damage to the extent of about £2,000 was caused by a fire which broke out early this morning at the Hibernian Motor Garage, Anne's Lane, off South Anne street, Dublin.

Slight damage was caused also to some adjacent dwellings. The alarm was given shortly after two o'clock. It appears that a young man who sleeps on the premises was awakened by smoke issuing from the garage. He escaped by jumping from a window, and notified some persons who were passing.

The garage was completely gutted, and four motor cars were destroyed.

MILK-GIVING RECORD.

NORTHERN COW'S BIG YIELD.

"Vanity," the British Friesian cow, the property of Mr. T. J. McVeigh, "Fairy Knowe," Whitewell road, Belfast, created a European record on Friday, June 25th, by giving 133lbs. of milk (1 cwt. 0 qr. 12lbs.) in 24 hours. She had been calved one month. After calving she gave 100lbs., and gradually improved every day, until she gained the championship. She has given 1½lbs. more than the previous champion, a British Friesian cow, called "Findlay Clara 2nd." "Vanity" is fed on the Ministry of Northern Ireland ration for dairy cows, and her milk is recorded by the Ministry's officials.

THE CELTIC CONGRESS.

A large number of representatives from the Universities of the various countries will participate in the forthcoming Celtic Congress in Dublin. Delegates are expected from the Universities of Scotland, Wales and Britain. The Colleges and Gaelic Societies of the National University of Ireland are also appointing representatives.

Mr. Robin Flower, Curator of Irish Manuscripts at the British Museum, despite great personal inconvenience, has announced his intention of delivering an address on "The Future of Irish Literature."

At the grand concert, to be held in the Theatre Royal, at 8 p.m., on Sunday, July 5th, the No. 1 Army Band, under the direction of Colonel Fritz Brasé, will perform three Irish Fantasies, which embrace an unusual collection of traditional melodies. The well-known Welsh prima donna, Mme. Megane, will sing "Winson," the delightful lyric by Sir John Morris Jones, himself a delegate to the Congress, the haunting Cymric strain of which is the composition of Osborne Roberts. She will, in addition, render three folk-songs, descriptive of various phases of Welsh national life.

The Irish violinist, Mr. Arthur Darley, has also submitted a programme of tunes of historical interest, a number of which are unpublished. These include "The March of Hugh O'Neill" and "A County Tyrone Air," which were personally collected by this artist, and "Molly McAlpine," of entrancing beauty, written by one of the brothers O'Connellan about the year 1785. Some airs from the Petrie collection, not often heard in our city, will complete an admirable programme.

ENGLISH RAILWAY CONFERENCE.

The British Railway Supervisors and Foremen's Association met at York yesterday for the purpose of receiving a report from the representatives who attended the Railway Conference held in London on Thursday last. The Executive discussed the report for three hours, and decided not to issue a statement to the Press. The meeting stood adjourned. The appointment of Mr. William Potts, General Secretary, as representative to the Railway Conference was confirmed.

AN UNENFORCED ACT.

STATE OF JUVENILE STREET TRADING.

GOVERNMENT TO TAKE ACTION.

SCHEME OF SOCIAL WELFARE.

A conference, representative of the various parties concerned, will be convened by the Minister for Justice at an early date with a view to the establishment of a permanent scheme for the social welfare and economic advancement of children engaged in any form of employment and the juvenile street traders of the City of Dublin.

At the last sitting of the Children's (Street Trading) Court held at the Courthouse, South William street, Dublin, the President (Mr. F. W. Ryan, M.A., Barrister-at-Law), in commenting on the administration of the Employment of Children Act, 1903, said that the whole question of the enforcement of this Act and the by-laws made under it from time to time since 1903 by the Corporation of Dublin had presented difficulties to those responsible for its administration. The present machinery and staff of the Court, were insufficient and inadequate to secure to the full that supervision of the lives of juvenile street traders which, according to the law, should include provision for their educational training and settlement in permanent, progressive employment.

PART TIME WORKERS.

This class of young workers whom the Act sought to protect were in no way limited to those selling newspapers in the streets, but extended to a large and unknown number of both children of school-going age and young persons in various small occupations. While regulations had been made for the juvenile street traders between fourteen and sixteen years of age, no supervision under the Act—though it had been in existence now for twenty-one years—had been made as yet in respect of the children of school-going age in legitimate part-time employment before or after school hours.

As respects the need of continuation classes, the President mentioned that other countries and cities had long ago instituted compulsory attendance at suitable continuation classes by all their young workers—in some cases, it was understood, even up to eighteen years of age. Denmark, so far back as the early 19th century—even during the Napoleonic wars—had evolved a system of compulsory school attendance, to which their present well-ordered trade and commerce was largely due. At Munich there was a three year course for the unskilled working boy—just what was wanted for our messenger boys—which include instruction under such practical heads as "entry into the industrial world," "rights and duties as citizens," "duties to employers," "the use of leisure time, choice of books for reading, and the pursuit of hobbies," and "personal and public hygiene."

With the individual instruction of each citizen from, say, the 14th to the 18th year in such subjects, with much physical training for both discipline of mind and body, the act of life would be quickly made the easier for all in our country.

LONDON'S EXAMPLE.

In London a child employed under this Act was subject to suitable medical inspection, and provision must be made for adequate clothing against wet weather. Their hours of work were carefully limited, and certain occupations, injurious to them, were prohibited. Action under this Section of the Act still required to be taken in Dublin.

Continuing, Mr. Ryan remarked that the present condition of the boys and girls street trading in Dublin requires more than ever, in order to allow a chance of their economic advancement, the organisation of a sufficient number of welfare centres for educational training, etc.—for both work and play—where the young citizen would be under the supervision of skilled social welfare workers, and looked after physically, mentally and morally. When such a scheme as the Minister for Justice proposed was established for Dublin and district other local authorities, town and country, might invoke their powers under the Act, and thus improve the wage-earning capacity of a large and at present unknown number of young Irish citizens.

The departments represented at the conference will be expected to co-operate in giving effect to the object of the Act and the by-laws under it.

POACHING ON THE BARROW.

MASKED MEN ESCAPE WITH NET.

In the early hours of Friday morning, while Wm. Earls, water bailiff, Knockbodly; Sergeant Kelly, Graiguenamanagh, and a number of the Civic Guard, were on fishery duty on the River Barrow, they saw a net in the free gap at the Castle Weir at Clohastia.

Earls entered the water to remove the net, and two masked men, who were hiding on the opposite bank, pulled the rope attached to the net and drew it towards them. They retreated with the net, and although the Guards gave chase, escaped.

MR. GARVIN AND IRELAND.

ADDRESS AT LITERARY SOCIETY.

Mr. J. L. Garvin was the principal guest at a dinner given last night by the Irish Literary Society, at the Florence Restaurant, London. In responding to the toast of his health he said that he never saw Ireland until he he was past his majority. When he was a very young man, Mr. Parnell had a great influence on his life, and when his last crisis came, he arranged for Mr. Parnell, at Newcastle Town Hall, the last meeting which he addressed in England. That was how he came into politics.

The Shannon scheme, which was being carried out in the Irish Free State, was, he believed, one of the finest in Europe. There was no reason why every firm in Ireland and every industrial plant should not obtain power under that scheme. He hoped that by mutual arrangement some day Ireland would be as completely one as England or Wales, and that Ireland and Great Britain would become nearer and nearer to each other as time went on.

OPERATION ON PRESIDENT COOLIDGE'S FATHER.

PLYMOUTH, VERMONT, Sunday.

President Coolidge's father, who is eighty years old, was operated on to-day for bladder trouble. President Coolidge, who is at Swampscott, Massachusetts, is hastening to his father's side.—(Reuter.)

COUNTY COUNCIL ELECTIONS.

BELATED RETURNS.

The counting of the votes in the Roscommon County Council election concluded at midnight on Friday. The result brings back six of the pre-Treaty members to the Council. The Farmers' Party have gained considerably, and all candidates from Roscommon Town were eliminated.

Roscommon Area—William Donnelly, M. Killian, M. Drennan, John Burke, John Flynn, John Allen, D. J. Kelly, John Millar, P. Ledwith.

COUNTY GALWAY.

The counting of the votes for the Tuam and Galway areas of the County Galway was completed late on Friday night. The parties now stand as follows:—Republicans 12, Farmers 12, Cumann na nGaedheal 11, Independents 4, and Labour 1. A number of the Cumann na nGaedheal members also represent the Farmers' interests, so that the Farmers will dominate the new Council, and it is expected that a Farmer chairman will be elected to fill the position vacated by Mr. G. Nicolls, T.D., who resigned his chairmanship and membership of the Council in order to qualify as a candidate for the secretaryship of the County Council.

Galway Area—Thomas Flanagan (S.F.), Patrick Furey (F.), John Coogan (C. na nG.), Bartley Lydon (S.F.), John McDonagh (F.), Timothy Kyne (S.F.), Nicholas Kyne (S.F.), Michael O'Neill (F.).

Tuam Area—William Concannon (S.F.), Michael Keaveney (C. na nG.), James Nester (F.), J. W. Ronaldson (C. na nG.), C. J. Kennedy (C. na nG.), James M. McLoughlin (I.), John Egan (S.F.), Christopher Jones (C. na nG.), Thomas Gilmore (C. na nG.).

NENAGH URBAN ELECTION.

A demand that the votes should be recounted is being made by one of the defeated candidates put forward by the official Labour Party for the Urban Council in Nenagh.

COUNTY CLARE.

The composition of the new Council is:—Sinn Fein 10, Farmers 14, Labour 5, and Independents 9. Politics did not enter into the contest in any form, and the thrty-eight successful candidates proclaim their intention of having politics excluded from the Council chamber. The Sinn Fein members, in particular, are very emphatic on this point, and they resent the term anti-Treaty being applied to them in connection with a local election. The percentage of the electorate who recorded their votes was 71. In the Killaloe area the percentage was almost 80. Three National teachers who stood as official Labour candidates were defeated.

Miltown-Malbay Area—Martin Sexton (L.), David Neylon (S.F.), P. M. Kelly (I.), Thomas Burke, Clonlaheen (S.F.), Thomas Green (F.), Thomas Burke, Doonsallagh (L.), and Patrick King (F.).

Kilrush Area—Thomas McGrath (I.), Michael McMahon (L.), James Clancy, jun. (S.F.), Thomas Falvey (I.), John Hedderman (F.), Thomas Crowe (F.), James King (F.), John O'Dwyer (S.F.), Thomas Reidy (F.).

COUNTY CORK.

Bandon Area—Thomas Joseph Bennett (I.), Callaghan J. McCarthy (F.), Jeremiah Sullivan (F.), Jeremiah Ahern (I.), Timothy Murphy (L.), John Buckley (S.F.), Michael Walsh (F.), Eamonn O'Neill (I.), Barth. Cooney (F.).

Kanturk Area—Michael K. Barry (F.), Daniel Hinchin (L.), Jeremiah McCarthy (S.F.), Cors. O'Callaghan (F.), Daniel Donegan (I.), Maurice Murphy (S.F.), John M. O'Connor (F.), William J. Philpott (F.).

Cove area—William J. Broderick (C. na G.), Edmond Ahern (I.), Brooke Braiser (F.), Martin J. Corry (S.F.), Richard Daly (F.), Charles Bailey (C. na G.), John Kelleher (I.), Edmond Carey (Lab.), Eamonn Lynch (Lab.), Thomas Walsh (S.F.).

A difficulty arose at the close of the scrutiny in the Mallow area. At the end of the fourteenth count it became apparent that the surplus of seven votes which Mr. John Barry had might affect the result, as the difference between Messrs. Kent and Barrett, who were fighting out the last place, was only seven. All of Mr. Barry's surplus votes went to Mr. Kent, who then tied with Mr. Barrett, and, as it was then midnight, the returning officer intimated that though he was entitled to adjourn at 8 o'clock, he had not done so in the hope that they could finish. Naturally they had not anticipated such a situation, and as it would be manifestly unfair to ask Mr. Exham to look into the law on the subject at that hour, he adjourned the scrutiny till Monday morning.

The following members were elected at the time:—

David L. O'Gorman (F.), Philip Barry (I.), Barry Sullivan, solicitor (I.), John Daly, T.D. (Lab.); John Cronin (F.), John Barry (S.F.), Michael Walsh (S.F.).

Messrs. J. S. Russell (I.) and James Grove White (F.) will also be declared elected, and the tie between Messrs. Barrett (F.) and Kent (S.F.) remains in abeyance.

COUNTY MONAGHAN.

Castleblayney Area—W. McLean, Patrick Duffy, T.D.; James Johnston, John Coleman, James Kerr, J. Carragher.

OSSORY FEIS.

BIG GATHERING IN KILKENNY.

An enormous crowd attended at the Ossory Feis yesterday in St. James's Park, Kilkenny. Excursion trains brought great numbers from all parts, and the hosting of Irish Irelanders was the largest that ever patronised a gathering of the kind in the Marble City. The entries in the various competitions constituted a record. The industrial section was an outstanding feature, and the exhibits were numerous and interesting.

Pipers' bands attended from Cork, Churchtown, and Kells, Co. Kilkenny. The opening ceremony was performed by Dr. McEnri, of Galway College.

He said that they wanted to revive the Irish language because it was their own language, because it was the language of their ancestors, the language spoken by Irish saints, scholars, kings and princes up to the last one hundred years. Why did the Irish language die out? It died out because the English Government knew that unless they killed the Irish language it would never kill the Irish nation. It was the work in the schools that was going to bring back the language. It was in the schools that it was killed, and it was in the schools that it was going to be brought back.

Mr. Sean Gibbons also addressed the gathering.

Senator Deloughry, Mayor of Kilkenny, said that the Gaelic League was founded on a broad national programme, and as long as it remained so and kept clear of politics it would have the support of the general public.

THE CABARET.

ARTISTS ENTERTAINED AT DANCE.

The members of the New Princes' Frivolities who performed during the past week at the cabaret at the Dublin Mansion House were entertained last night at a largely-attended farewell dance in the Round Room.

The thanks of the troupe were expressed by Mr. Beaumont Alexander, general manager of the Princes' Restaurant, London, who spoke of the great pleasure which they had derived from their reception in Dublin. They were returning, he said, for the Horse Show week, in August, with an entirely new edition of the cabaret.

The dance music was supplied by the New Princes' Toronto Orchestra, Alfredo and his Band, Hal Swain, and the New Princes' Saxo Five, and the Adelaide Orpheus Band.

KILTERNAN CHURCH.

FETE TO PROVIDE HEATING APPARATUS.

A fête, organised by the Rev. F. E. Byrn, was held in the Rectory grounds, Kilternan, yesterday for the purpose of providing funds for heating apparatus in the church. The opening ceremony was performed by Mrs. Gregg, who said that she hoped that all who had come would go home without any money, as there was plenty to buy; there was everything of the most useful character.

The principal stallholders were—Mrs. Wisdom Hely and Mrs. E. Darley (Household Stall); Mrs. Byrn and Mrs. Somers (Jumble Stall); Mrs. Barrington Jellett and Mrs. Popham (Clothing Stall); Mrs. Harrison and Mrs. Russell (Country Produce Stall); Mrs. Moore (Fancy Stall), and Mrs. Stephenson (Tea Stall). The Kilternan Girl Guides had a handicraft stall supplied with toys made by themselves.

CHILD ATTACKED BY DOGS.

Our Belturbet Correspondent states that on Friday evening Frank M'Evoy, aged seven, the son of Mr. William M'Evoy, Patrick street, Belturbet, was attacked by four dogs, which bit him about the legs, body, and on the neck. The dogs were driven off by the child's mother. Dr. Stuart, who was called to the injured boy, had him removed to Cavan Hospital, where he is said to be in a serious condition.

THE HARVEST PROSPECTS.

OPTIMISM IN COUNTY DONEGAL.

LAST YEAR'S FUEL SUPPLY.

FROM OUR AGRICULTURAL CORRESPONDENT.

STRANOLAR, Saturday.

There is an old saying in Co. Donegal that, if the weather is fine from June 8th (the date of Letterkenny Fair) until June 22nd, the harvest will be good. For nearly a month now the weather has been as good as anybody could desire, and it is hoped that the saying will be justified. Farmers and small holders have become optimistic under the influence of the sunshine.

Last season, owing to the excessive rainfall and the flooding of land, their crops were ruined, and those who depend upon turf for fuel were short of supplies during the winter. Now things are different. Not only has last year's turf—somewhat deteriorated—been saved, but this year's is being secured in very good order. The bogs in this windswept county are scenes of great activity until a late hour every evening, and the fuel is taken home as quickly as possible. If anybody is without a fire during the coming winter it will not be the fault of the season.

MIGRANTS.

Economic conditions in Donegal are peculiar. The people do not depend so much upon the result of their labour on the land, as upon some home industry or the money earned by those who migrate to Scotland for seasonal employment. Last year the labour market in Scotland was so depressed that many of the Donegal harvesters had to return empty-handed. Relief, however, was forthcoming in the grants allowed for work on the roads by the Land Commission and the Road Board. Unless the men went to Scotland or elsewhere for the season it would not be possible for families in the more congested areas to exist. Where there is no bog, the soil is simply a mass of boulders, with occasional patches of earth, which are highly cultivated, and a credit to those who till them. The wonder is that so much is made of the little land available.

The bog areas provide a lesson in good cultivation, which farmers living on better land would find it well to study. In every part of the county potatoes and oats are doing well. The tubers are being moulded up, and there is no sign of disease. The straw of oats is likely to be short owing to a late start. In hay-growing districts the crop is good, although possibly light. Mangels and turnips have made a good "hit," on the whole, but would be improved by rain. During the past week or ten days the sunshine has been tempered by cool northerly winds. These are retarding growth, especially in potatoes. In a tour of the county last week I could find no trace of "a famine area." There is now no scarcity of money, and the credit of landholders generally is good.

FISHING INDUSTRY.

So far as salmon-fishing is concerned the season has not been so good as last year. Catches are smaller, and prices, which started high, are now tending downward. The summer herring-fishing was small, but the fish caught were of good quality, and were sold at good prices to Germany, thus reviving a pre-war connection. There is also a demand for Irish herrings in America, but prime quality is absolutely essential.

Donegal possesses many attractions for anglers and sportsmen, as well as for those who admire mountain scenery. That visitors are again anxious to spend their holidays in Ireland is evident from the fact that Port Salon and Rosapenna hotels have been booked up for July and August. There have also been heavy bookings at Gweedore.

At Dungloe the co-operative movement, guided by Mr. P. Gallagher, has done much to improve the conditions of life. It is an inspiring example of self-help. Mention may be made of the society's granite quarry. From this is obtained a hard wearing stone that cuts easily and makes admirable street setts. A cargo was recently sent from Dungloe to Liverpool in the society's own boat with satisfactory results. When the new pier is completed, it is hoped to establish a more regular service with Liverpool, and to develop the trade in granite. The pier is being constructed with the aid of a £2,000 grant made by the White Cross Association. Dungloe also excels in the production of fancy golf hose and jumpers. These are in keen demand in the United States, although they are subject to a 50 per cent. ad valorem duty, and 45 cents per pound tax.

The quantity of eggs which the Dungloe Society handles is enormous. It indicates what a source of wealth poultry would be if the industry received the attention it deserves in every part of the country.

NEW CHURCH IN COUNTY MONAGHAN.

FOUNDATION STONE LAID BY BISHOP.

Yesterday the Most Rev. Dr. McKenna, Bishop of Clogher, laid the foundation stone of a new Roman Catholic Church at Scotshouse, Parish of Currin, Co. Monaghan. There was a large attendance of the clergy and the laity.

The ceremonies opened with High Mass, at which the bishop presided, and the following clergy assisted:—Celebrant, the Rev. Bernard Maguire, P.P., Inniskeen; Deacon, the Rev. J. Timothy, C.C., Ballyshannon; Sub-Deacon, the Rev. Peter Connolly, C.C., Threemilehouse; Master of Ceremonies, the Very Rev. Canon Magrath, President, St. McCarten's Seminary, Monaghan. The ceremony took place within the walls of the new building, which stands about 15ft. high, and his lordship preached from an improvised pulpit.

At the conclusion of the Mass a long list of donations was read from clergymen within and without the diocese, as well as from laity, including the Governor-General of the Free State. The bishop headed the list with a donation of £600.

Father Breen, in returning thanks to the bishop for coming to assist at the noble work and for his generous subscription, also thanked all other subscribers, and announced that the day's subscriptions, including money sent by letter, amounted to the sum of £1,709.

The church is being built of beautiful green stone, faced with dressings of Ardbracken limestone, and will consist of a nave, aisles, chancel, and two side chapels and a sacristy. The architect is Mr. Butler, F.R.I.B.A., Dublin.

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

The General Assembly of the Canadian Presbyterian Church, which met just before the establishment of the United Church of Canada, expressed its appreciation of the sympathy shown by the Home Churches in sending deputies to the meeting. The Church of Scotland was represented by Professor Main; the United Free Church by Drs. W. M. MacGregor and P. D. Thomson; the English Presbyterian Church by the Very Rev. Joseph Rorke, and the Irish General Assembly by the Rev. R. K. Hanna, of Dublin. Dr. Main and Mr. Hanna were among those chosen to preach the Assembly Sermons in College street Church, Toronto.

The garden fête, organised by the Ladies' Committee of Clontarf Presbyterian Church, was held, by kind permission of Mr. and Mrs. George Campbell, at Iona, Howth road, last Saturday afternoon. The weather was ideal, and contributed largely to the success of the tennis tournament, golf putting, and other outdoor games. The fête realised £200.

Hillhall Presbyterian Church has invited the Rev. Archibald Duff, of Edenderry, to succeed the Rev. William McNutt, now minister of Olrig, N.B. Mr. Duff is the son-in-law of the Lord Mayor of Belfast.

Donegal Presbytery has installed the Rev. W. J. Logan, Letterkenny, in Ballyshannon, in succession to the Rev. J. Jackson Wright, transferred to Ahorey, Co. Armagh.

Glenhoy Presbyterian Church has invited Mr. John A. Aiken, licentiate of the Omagh Presbytery, to succeed the Rev. T. McKinney, now of Lislooney, Co. Armagh.

THE SUGAR BEET INDUSTRY.

TIPPERARY FARMERS' GUARANTEE.

An important conference representative of North and South Tipperary was held in Thurles on Saturday in furtherance of the claims of the town of Thurles as the site for the beet sugar factory in the Free State.

The Rev. Fr. O'Brien, who presided, read a letter from the Archbishop, the Most Rev. Dr. Harty, in reference to the object of the meeting, in the course of which he wrote:—

"Thurles has great advantages on its side. It is the centre of a wide tillage district. It has a never-failing supply of water; it is favourably situated on the main railway lines of the south; the people of the surrounding district are most industrious and reliable. These are advantages that ought to appeal to the Belgian firm."

Continuing, the chairman said that after a meeting in Thurles some time ago with a representative of the Belgian firm, Messrs. Liepens, who were about to start the industry, they set up a central committee in Thurles and sent out delegates to various centres within a twelve-mile radius to organise them in divisions, and in this they had been successful. The delegates were received with enthusiasm, and farmers promised every support. Forty-one divisions had been organised, and promises of approximately 5,200 Irish acres to be devoted to the cultivation of the beet-root crop had been forthcoming. They were assured that the site for the factory would be determined within the next fortnight, so that they must employ every moment to further the claims of Thurles to the site. They must give guarantees for the necessary acreage, and they would not be satisfied with verbal guarantees. The central committee would have to satisfy the Belgian firm with regard to the acreage and water. He hoped that the conference would carefully consider all these matters.

Messrs. Ryan and McDonagh, of the Department of Agriculture, also spoke promising co-operation.

Messrs. Heffernan, T.D. (Farmers) and Morrissy, T.D. (Labour), as well as several large farmers from the North and South Ridings of Tipperary, Kilkenny and Leix, promised hearty co-operation. One of these, Mr. Fitzgerald, undertook to devote fifty acres to the cultivation of beet.

A resolution was formally passed guaranteeing to grow for the next three years 5,000 acres of sugar beet.

IRISH PRESS GOLFING SOCIETY.

THE PRESIDENT'S DINNER.

The prospects of tourist development in Ireland during the coming season and of public golf in Dublin provided the keynote of the speeches at the dinner given in the Grand Hotel, Greystones, on Saturday night by the President to the members of the Irish Press Golfing Society. The President, Sir James C. Percy, presided, and was supported by the Right Hon. Lord Glenavy, the Right Hon. James MacMahon, Sir Stanley Cochrane, Bart.; Dr. W. Lombard Murphy, Mr. William Ireland, Mr. J. E. Healy (captain), Mr. J. J. Simington, the Rev. J. L. Morrow, M.A.; Mr. Hayes, Mr. Young, captain of the Cooden Beach Golf Club, Sussex.

The toast of the King having been honoured,

Sir James Percy gave "The Governor-General." He said that the Governor-General had accepted the invitation to come to the dinner, but unfortunately for them there was a dinner at the College of Surgeons to the American doctors, which was an event of international importance, and His Excellency could not be among them.

The Free State, continued Sir James, was exceedingly fortunate in having the Governor-General in the recent years through which they had passed, and he had, with the help of Lord Glenavy, steered their country into the harbour of complete success, with the result that they could now see the sunshine before them. With the toast he associated "Prosperity to Ireland" and the name of Senator James Moran.

Senator Moran said that during his visit to the United States he found that it was up to him to give a push to the tourist development of their country. He was glad to say that his efforts had not been in vain, and that the matter was taken up whole-heartedly by the railway and shipping companies of the States. Thousands would also be leaving America for Italy this year, and very large numbers of these would come to Ireland, so that they were likely to have a busy time. They were anxious that the hotels should rise to the occasion and keep to the tariffs which had been fixed. Visitors would not expect luxury, but they would expect cleanliness.

PROPOSED PHOENIX PARK COURSE.

Lord Glenavy, in proposing the toast of the "Irish Press and Golfing Society," said that the Society were very fortunate in having for their president Sir James Percy, and for their captain, Mr. J. E. Healy, who for the last twelve months had been striving earnestly to bring about the accomplishment of the movement for providing a public golf course in the Phoenix Park; while not a little of the work had fallen on the shoulders of their hon. secretary, Mr. Rooney.

In replying, Mr. Healy referred to the progress which the Committee of Public Golf had made since the matter was taken up last autumn. With regard to the prospects of the course in the park, he thought that they would be glad to know that the deputation which had awaited on the officials of the department concerned had been very well received, and that the result was more than reasonably satisfactory. They found the disposition of the Commissioners entirely friendly. The prospects were excellent, and if they could rely, as they thought that they could, on the generosity of the golfers of the city and county, everything would be plain sailing.

The "Golfing Union of Ireland" was given by the Right Hon. James MacMahon, who coupled with the toast the name of Rev. J. L. Morrow, one of the Vice-Presidents of the Union. The Union, he said, brought together all the Irish clubs in friendly rivalry and brotherly sportsmanship. In golf there was no such thing as partition in Ireland. Mr. Morrow had rendered a very great service to the game.

The Rev. Mr. Morrow, alluding to public golf, said that he might not be able to do all that was expected of him for it, but so far as in him lay all his enthusiasm and all his knowledge of the game were at the disposal of the people of Dublin.

Dr. Lombard Murphy gave the toast of "Our Guests," and associated with it the names of Sir Stanley Cochrane, Mr. William Ireland, and Mr. Young, the captain of the Cooden Beach Golf Club.

Mr. Quilty proposed "Our Honorary Chauffeurs," which was responded to by Mr. P. J. Lawrence, Mr. Robinson, and Mr. Summerfield; and "The Delgany Club," given by the Chairman, was responded to by Mr. N. Purcell.

The proceedings were brought to a close by Lord Glenavy proposing "Our President," to which Sir James Percy briefly replied.

The best cards returned for the Captain John Arnott Memorial Cup, played at Delgany, were:—T. Quilty (Independent) and A. A. Hall (Irish Times), 81½; W. Cruickshanks (Weekly Irish Times) and M. Harrington (Cork Examiner), 83; Captain Hewson (Irish Golf) and T. J. Jones (Irish Times), 83½; Fitzjames Russell (Motor News) and R. M. Hooper (Dail Staff), 84½; W. G. Lyon (Talbot Press) and R. Arnott (Irish Times), 85; Sir J. C. Percy (Motor News) and J. W. Mannix (Independent), 86. The "Hon. Chauffeurs'" prize was won by George Robinson with 76, R. J. Tamplin being second with 80.

MEMORIAL UNVEILED.

COUNTY MONAGHAN MEETING.

Mr. John D. Nugent, at Emyvale yesterday, unveiled a memorial to the late Arthur Treanor, a well-known Hibernian, who was shot by armed men in June, 1921.

At a public meeting, over which Mr. Francis Duffy, County Councillor, presided, thirty Hibernian divisions were represented from Monaghan, Louth, Armagh, Tyrone and Cavan.

Mr. Nugent congratulated all on the great victory that they had achieved in the recent Council elections, and said that they should continue the struggle for a free and undivided Ireland by fair, just and moral means.

Mr. John P. Gaynor, Mr. J. J. Bergin (Dublin), Mr. James Coburn (Dundalk), Mr. P. Duffy, Mr. H. J. McArdle, Mr. P. Loughran and Mr. Thomson also spoke.

DUBLIN AND THE PROVINCES.

DUBLIN.

St. Peter's Church.—Festival Services will be held to-day, St. Peter's Day, in St. Peter's Church, Aungier street, Dublin. There will be celebrations of the Holy Communion at 8 and 11.30 a.m., and Evening Prayer, with special music, at 8 p.m., when the preacher will be the Dean of St. Patrick's Cathedral. The offerings at all Services will be devoted to church expenses.

PASSENGERS BY B. AND I. LINE, VIA LIVERPOOL.

ARRIVALS:—Mr. G. N. Jacob, General Twigg, Lieut.-Commander and Mrs. McDowell, Mr. and Mrs. Smalley, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold, Miss Bamford, J. Patterson, Messrs. O'Hea, J. O'Neill, Power, Hayes; Miss Boyle, Miss Smalley.

DEPARTURES:—Harry Tate, Dr. Litman, Rev. W. O'Brien, Mr. Postlethwaite, Mr. and Mrs. Mallett, J. McConnell, Mr. and Mrs. Raynor, Miss Caffrey, Mr. and Mrs. McNamara, Miss Leechman, Mrs. McAuley, Miss K. Harte, Mr. and Mrs. Kierson, Mr. and Mrs. Coppin, Mr. and Mrs. Nichol, Mr. Woolley.

LEINSTER.

Charge Against Bank Teller.—John Cummins, formerly employed as teller in the Athlone branch of the National Bank, was committed for trial on bail last Saturday on charges of having on various dates between January 1st, 1923, and May 18th last, embezzled £304, making false entries and omitting material particulars from the books of the bank. The manager of the branch said that the accused man admitted that there were irregularities in his books and facilitated the witness by pointing out the different items. Cummins made a clean breast to the bank inspector, in writing, but the witness swore an information against him, by direction of the authorities. The money had since been repaid. The accused man said that he had taken the money with the intention of returning it, which he had done since. By his father's will he was entitled to some hundreds of pounds and house property. Asked why he did not make good the money before, Cummins replied that it was "because of dallying."

Arrest in London Costs £18.—For obtaining £7 14s. 4d. by issuing a worthless cheque, Philip Dolan, who was arrested in London, was sentenced to three months' imprisonment in Athlone on Saturday, but in view of extenuating circumstances, the sentence will be remitted if the accused repays the amount and refunds £18 15s. 7d. expenses incurred in connection with his arrest.

MUNSTER.

Agrarian Outrages.—Our Ennis correspondent writes that a report was received in Ennis last Saturday of an attack on the house of John and Michael Downes, farmers, Lack East, near Kilmihil. Volleys were poured into the dwellinghouse from close range, and three shots penetrated the kitchen door, the bullets being found embedded in the wall. Empty .303 cartridges were found in the fields outside when a search was made later. All the stock was driven off the farm. A grouse moor of 15 acres, the property of Mrs. Caroline E. Delmege, has been burned at Ballycannon, near Ardnacrusha, and much game destroyed.

Prison for Cruelty to Horse.—A man giving the name of Michael O'Dwyer was sentenced to seven days' imprisonment at Limerick last Saturday for cruelty to a horse. It was stated that the animal's back was a mass of sores. The defence was that the horse, which was suffering from warbles, fell in the street. The District Justice said that he was glad to see the Civic Guards interesting themselves in this class of offence.

Dole Law: Ignorance No Excuse.—Timothy Eason was fined 40s. and costs at Limerick last Saturday for obtaining unemployment benefit while he was in receipt of sickness benefit. The defence was ignorance of the law.

Day Trades Classes Suggestion.—Limerick Technical Education Committee has decided to take up the suggested formation of day preparatory trades classes with the Employers' Federation and Trades Council.

Alleged Intimidation.—James Hogan, farm labourer, of Urra Puckane, was remanded in Nenagh last Saturday on a charge of intimidating and preventing William Cleary, employed at St. David's, Nenagh, from working.

ULSTER.

Late Mr. W. Gallagher.—The death has occurred of Mr. William Gallagher, aged 69, of Castlefin, Co. Donegal, who was well-known in the North-West as an agriculturist. He was formerly a member, and some time chairman, of the Donegal County Council, and sat on the Agricultural and Technical Committees.

Mr. James Lennon, stationmaster, Goresbridge, Co. Kilkenny, has been transfererd to Laffan's Bridge, Co. Tipperary. Mr. Lennon has been a stationmaster for twenty-five years.

NORTHERN IRELAND.

Illegal Seizure for Debt.—Informations were refused in Enniskillen last Saturday in the case in which Thomas Edward Watson, motor dealer, Enniskillen, was charged with the theft of a motor car, the property of John Humphreys, Enniskillen. Watson took delivery of the car for Humphreys, in whose employment he then was. He contended that Humphreys owed him £213, and he held the car against the debt. Since his arrest he had issued a writ for the amount of his debt and has returned the car. The Court said that accused man had acted foolishly, but there was no criminal intent. The case in dispute would come before a superior court. The car has been returned to the owner.

Derry as Matriculation Centre.—Correspondence with Queen's University, Belfast, in reference to the establishment of a centre for matriculation examinations at the Londonderry Technical School was submitted at the monthly meeting of the Londonderry Technical Instruction Sub-Committee last Saturday. It was decided to leave the negotiations in the hands of the secretary and principal.

Contrast in Contract Prices.—Londonderry Technical Instruction Sub-Committee has accepted the tender of a Belfast firm of £230 for the manufacture and erection of gates at the school. This tender was lower than any other by £139.

Woman Motorist Charged.—A remand until Friday was granted in the Belfast Custody Court last Saturday in the case in which Lily Arthurs, Killaughey road, Donaghadee, is charged with the manslaughter of James Jackson, aged 70, Ormeau road, whose death took place on the previous evening from injuries received through being knocked down by a car driven by the defendant.

Alleged Deserter Under Bed.—H. Weir, Corradreenan West, Co. Fermanagh, was remanded at Enniskillen last Saturday on a charge of being a deserter from the Royal Garrison Artillery. He was found hiding under a bed.

Seaforth Highlander's Death.—Private McSween, of the Seaforth Highlanders, died in Down Infirmary last Saturday night as a result of injuries received earlier in the day by being crushed by a goods waggon at Dundrum Railway Station when loading the military equipment of a party returning to Holywood after the annual musketry practice at Ballykinlar.

UNTRAINED MIDWIVES.

CALL FOR A REGISTERED UNIFORM.

A deputation from the Irish Nurses' Union (29 South Anne street, Dublin), waited on the Central Midwives' Board for Ireland last Friday to urge the adoption of a registered uniform and badge for midwives, so that nursemaids and untrained women could no longer usurp the nurses' uniform. It was pointed out that chemists would sometimes readily supply drugs to women in a nurse's uniform, and sometimes refuse them to a registered midwife who was not in uniform.

The Chairman (Sir E. Coey Bigger) explained that there was no provision in the Midwives Act for the adoption of uniform or badge. The Board, however, was in full sympathy with the proposal, and had already, in response to the Union's previous requests, approached the Government with a view to getting the necessary legislation. They understood that the matter was receiving the attention of the Ministry, and the Union might rest assured that the Board would adopt a uniform and badge as soon as possible. The lady members had already been asked to go into the matter in detail, and would be glad to receive any suggestions from the midwives.

The question of "handywomen," untrained women attending midwifery cases, was then discussed. The Union's deputation asked that Section 1 (2) of the Act, which prohibits any untrained woman from attending a midwifery case, except under the direction of a registered medical practitioner, should be enforced by the Board. It was pointed out that the Dental Board had already prosecuted "quack" dentists. The Chairman gave it as his opinion that the local supervising authorities (the County Councils) were to blame for not carrying out the Act; the Board had asked the Local Government Department to remind them of their duties in this respect.

The Board agreed to consider the Union's suggestion as to publicity of the illegality of the practices of "handywomen." The question of students from the maternity hospitals working with these women would also be considered. The Board thought that the new rules adopted, whereby in future candidate midwives would be required to attend a larger number of cases, might help to solve that problem, as they might go out with the students; also that the Union should approach the maternity hospitals, which, the Secretary said, was already being done in one case.

THIS FREEDOM.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE IRISH TIMES.

SIR,—I have just heard from our children, who are attending the local national school, that they are getting their holidays next week, and that they will last for three months again this year. The reason for these long holidays is to allow the teachers to learn Irish. Will the common-sense parents who all say that they do not want it in private say so in public? It is the duty of us all to see, and comfort to us all to know, that our children are educated to fight the battle of life, when we are dead and gone, wherever it may be their lot to go. The competition of the world to-day will not allow for sentiment, and who can say that the Irish language will ever be any use to anyone anywhere? The majority of country children are those of the labourer and small farmer, and have often a long way to go to school, badly clad for the wet winter, and find it difficult to attend regularly; and now, when they could go, they are left at home for three months.

It is up to the parents, who have the welfare of their children at heart and are responsible for them, to protest. I see that the teachers, at some of their meetings lately, objected to carrying Irish too far; but it is rather the parents' business to object. Teach them subjects that will help them to get their living in after life—book-keeping, shorthand, typewriting, drawing and some of the languages in every-day use. They will then find a place in some office, but the Irish language will lead them nowhere. I know that some farmers and shopkeepers, who can afford it, send their children to England to have them educated, and there would be many more if their means would allow. We were told that the recent troubles were a fight for freedom. When our children are compelled to learn what they do not want, and our farmers are told that they must get rid of the bullock, and the larger ones told that they must give up half the land to men that have none, it is hard to see the freedom.—Yours, etc.,

"COUNTRYMAN."

NEWLY-ELECTED COUNCILLOR RESIGNS.

Mr. James McDermott, of Millbank, Lucan, writes to say that he has tendered his resignation as member of the Celbridge (No. 2) Rural District Council, to which position he was elected quite recently.

DUBLIN SEASIDE RESORTS.

RUSH TO THE NORTH COUNTY.

For the fourth time in succession, Dublin yesterday enjoyed a Sunday of glorious summer weather.

The week-end again saw the preference of citizens for the North county seaside resorts rather than for those between Blackrock and Greystones. This year Portmarnock has suddenly grown to be a popular outing place for the day. Yesterday the Great Northern Company ran trains there, and on to Malahide, at the rate of two per hour, and every train was crowded. It was calculated that at least 7,000 people got off at Portmarnock Station to spend the afternoon on the "velvet strand," one of the most attractive stretches of sea beach in Ireland.

Howth had many visitors on Saturday, and yesterday's contingent from the city must have run up to ten thousand. From noon there was a twenty-minute train service from Amiens street, with pretty well-filled trains up to as late as 7 o'clock. The Dublin United Tramways Company put on a service of cars which started from the Pillar at intervals of five minutes, from 3 o'clock onwards. Every car carried its full complement of 75 passengers. Howth is such a huge place that the great crowd of visitors was hardly noticeable, except at the tramway and train termini.

The tramway arrangements for getting people home are deserving of all praise.

THE CHURCH OF IRELAND.

The Board of the Widows' and Orphans' Fund (Church of Ireland) met last Thursday. The Bishop of Clogher presided. The other members present were:—The Dean of Christ Church, the Archdeacon of Connor, the Archdeacon of Armagh, Canon Harvey Stewart, Canon Kernan, the Earl of Belmore, Major Wellesley, and Mr. W. Ireland. Six cases were investigated. All the clergymen whose incomes were declared liable to deduction, as provided by Section II. (a) of the Statute, were registered as contributors. Permission to continue membership was granted to a clergyman who had removed to England. The premium of a member who had returned from Africa was reduced during his residence in Europe. Two members, who had been superannuated, were granted exemption from further premiums. (Section 21.). The deaths of five contributing members were recorded. Claims in respect of two widows and three orphans were admitted at normal rates. The Board ordered that there be paid on July 1, out of the funds provided by the General Synod, a bonus of £14 10s. 0d. to each widow, £5 to each orphan, and £10 to each motherless orphan. In addition, a grant of £5 each from the Supplemental Fund was ordered to be paid to each orphan chargeable on June 30. Mr. J. A. Maconchy was re-elected Chairman, and Canon R. A. Kernan and the Earl of Belmore were re-elected Honorary Secretaries for the ensuing year. The scheme settled by the High Court on April 20, 1925, for the future management by the Board of the Tuam Diocesan Widows' Fund was read and approved. The Archbishop of Armagh having nominated three ladies—daughters of deceased clergymen of the Diocese—to provisional annuities of £30 each, payment was ordered to be made out of the Armagh Diocesan Fund. Including the foregoing payments were ordered as follows:—Church of Ireland Fund, including bonus, £4,872 17s. 9d.; various Diocesan Funds, £456 19s. 2d. Having transacted the remaining business the Board adjourned to July 16.

The Bishop of Cork held a visitation for the United Dioceses on Tuesday, at which the sermon was preached by the Dean of Cork.

Mr. A. F. Sharman Crawford has been elected a representative for the Diocese of Cork on the Church Representative Body.

Mr. Stanley Wright has presented to St. Anne's Cathedral, Belfast, a chair of rare design. It was originally the property of the Earl of Belfast, second son of the third Marquis of Donegal, who died in 1853.

Curacies are vacant in Bray and in Seagoe, Portadown.

OSSORY AND LEIGHLIN CHOIR FESTIVAL.

The annual Ossory and Leighlin choir festival was successfully revived in St Canice's Cathedral, Kilkenny, on June 9. Choirs from various parts of the diocese took part, the singing being of a high order. The choirs were conducted by the Rev. H. McClelland, and the Service was intoned by the Rev. D. H. Chillingworth and the Rev. B. Loughead. Mr. W. H. South was the organist. The Primate preached, and the Service was attended by the Bishop of Ossory, who, with Mrs. Day, afterwards entertained the choirs to tea.

THE ULSTER LINEN TRADE.

PRESENT POSITION AND PROSPECTS.

(FROM OUR BELFAST CORRESPONDENT.)

The linen trade at present is passing through an exceptionally dull period, and were it not that there are several promising features a review of existing conditions would be very dismal reading. Production, both of yarns and cloth, has been drastically curtailed. Manufacturers are avoiding operating their spinning and weaving plants to produce stock that they can only offer at prices to cover their cost of productoin without adequate margins for overhead charges, much less reasonable profit. This has both its evil and good effects. Under the first heading may be placed the 45 per cent. of the workers in the linen trade unemployed. On the other hand, curtailed production has had a steadying effect both on prices and future prospects. It is now generally recognised that prices of linen goods to-day are as low as they are likely to go, with the result that there are more inquiries in the market, and far-seeing people are quietly replenishing their depleted stocks. It is not generally recognised that the export of linen goods now is only about half the pre-war figure, when about 200,000 yards of linen were exported.

FLAX SUPPLY.

Consequently, while the supply of flax is not up to pre-war standard, neither is the production. The great danger to the linen trade is that the raw material may settle permanently upon that basis, with the result that, if a renewed demand should arise for linen, the world's flax supply will not be able to meet it. Before the war three-quarters of the flax used in the Irish linen trade was imported from Russia, the other quarter being supplied by Ireland and Belgium, the latter two principally supplying the finer yarns for cambrics and fine linen. The unsettled conditions in Europe is the principal factor in causing the shrinkage of exports. What is required in the linen trade to-day is increased outlets for linen goods and, incidentally, better selling methods. The undoubted superiority of linen and its durability, in comparison with other textiles, will require to be brought constantly before the consumer by advertising or other means, so that there may be a steady expansion both in output and the area under flax cultivation.

OVERSEA MARKETS.

At present the oversea markets and practically the principal one (the United States) is not absorbing linens even at the normal rate. Last month the total exports of linen piece goods was 5,806,300 square yards. In the same month last year the exports were 10,936,100 square yards. The values for the same period were £512,806 and £794,706 respectively. A drop of nearly 50 per cent. in the quantity of exports is a serious matter not only for the workers, but the industry as a whole. Canada took only 398,200 square yards in May this year as against 745,000 square yards last year; Egypt 104,800 square yards against 207,000 square yards, Denmark 79,200 square yards against 141,600 square yards, and there was a fall in exports of over 250,000 square yards to unenumerated countries. Australia, Brazil, East Indies, and South Africa showed advances, when compared with May last year, but the net results showed an adverse balance of roughly five million square yards. Another interesting fact was that the exports of checked printed or dyed and damask and diaper piece goods last month were only 1,374,600 square yards, as against 4,000,100 square yards last May. The value of the exports of table linen, not in the piece, showed a decline of roughly £19,000 on last May's returns, and even handkerchiefs have fallen £34,000.

Among the encouraging factors in the present situation is the small stocks now held in all the markets of the world. This, it is believed, will lead to renewed and steady buying. The recent dry spell in the United States created a demand for linen dress material, and retailers have been able to unload surplus supplies. This again should lead to renewed buying in the autumn, particularly as the firm stand taken by the manfacturers in curtailing production wipes out the possibility of any further price reductions. Consequently, there can be no encouragement to buyers to adopt a hesitating attitude or holding back for lower price levels. In the autumn, it is believed, there will be a tendency for linen prices to harden; at any rate all the factors point in that direction.

PAPER MILL CLOSING DOWN.

The closing down is announced of the Chadwick and Taylor Paper Mill, situate at Ordsall Hall, Salford. The business, established over 50 years ago, passed into the hands of a receiver and manager in January, 1924, and all efforts to sell the business as a going concern having failed, the Court has ordered the receiver to discontinue trading.

At a recent meeting of the employés when the decision of the Court was announced, Sir Basil Mayhew, the receiver and manager, stated that during the last eighteen months he had endeavoured to the utmost of his ability to sell the mill as a going concern, but without success.

In thanking the employés for their loyal support, Sir Basil stated that in spite of almost overwhelming difficulties, the trading during his period of office had more than covered the expenses, and that this satisfactory result was in the largest measure due to the loyal co-operation and help of everyone in the mill. Lieutenant-Colonel Reginald Chadwick had increased the order book to such an extent that from a few tons a week at the time of appointment of the receiver, the mill was now, and had been for some time, working at full capacity. The excellence of the paper turned out was largely attributable to the work of the paper-makers and to the female staff under the able leadership of Miss White. Everyone had contributed of their best.

In wishing the employés success in their efforts to obtain work in other directions, the receiver stated that Colonel Chadwick was approaching some of the other mills in the neighbourhood in the hope that they would be able to absorb some of the freed labour.

Colonel Chadwick has been the recipient of universal expressions of regret and sympathy from members of the trade.

FUNERAL OF DR. C. RYAN.

There was a large attendance at the funeral of the late Dr. Charles E. Ryan, which took place in the family burial ground at Emly on Friday. Dr. Ryan, who was in his 76th year, served with the American Ambulance during the Franco-German war in 1870-71, and afterwards published a book giving a graphic narrative of his experiences. He was present at the battle of Orleans and the battle of Sedan, and was all through the siege of Paris. He underwent many hardships and privations, and at Sedan was taken prisoner by the Germans.

He was a fearless rider to hounds, and for very many years had been a familiar figure at the Scarteen Black and Tan Hunt. He was also a very keen dog fancier, and had a famous breed of Irish terrier which won prizes at the Crystal Palace and at many of the principal shows in England. He was one of the best known medical practitioners in the South of Ireland. His brother, Monsignor Arthur Ryan, P.P., Tipperary, died three years ago.

U.S. MARKETS.

STOCKS CLOSED FIRM.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAMS.)

NEW YORK, Saturday.

Stocks opened strong. Rumours of a stock dividend in American Can. caused it to jump 10 points to 200, this being a record figure. There was a heavy accumulation of Rubber and Motor issues, due to the increased tyre prices, larger dividend prospects and possible merger of some minor companies. Special strength was shown in Dupont Common, U.S. Cast Iron Pipe, General Electric, Pressed Steel Car and Rutland Preferred. There was some late realising, and the market closed firm. Government Bonds firm; Railroad Bonds steady. The day's sales totalled 640,000 shares.

THEFT OF JEWELLERY.

When a train from Guildford arrived at Waterloo Station, London, on Saturday night it was discovered that a case containing £3,000 worth of jewellery was missing from a luggage van. The case was seen in the van at Guildford, and the police are endeavouring to find out whether the theft took place at Waterloo or en route.

STAGE AND SCREEN.

DUBLIN PROGRAMMES.

At the Gaiety Theatre this week Mr. Jack Esmond (by arrangement with Miss Eva Moore) will present the comedy, "Eliza Comes to Stay." The cast is a good one. The comedy will be preceded by "The Punctual Sex."

Madie Hope and Bunny Doyle appear in "The Love Doctors," a new musical comedy, which is to be performed at the Theatre Royal. The entertainment includes much dancing, the Scarf Dance being especially interesting.

Arthur Sinclair's company will perform "The Eloquent Dempsey" (W. Boyle) at the Olympia Theatre. The cast includes Arthur Sinclair (Jeremiah Dempsey), J. A. O'Rourke, Harry Hutchinson, Joyce Chancellor, Sydney Morgan, David Yorris, and Maureen Delany.

CINEMAS.

The Japanese earthquake is introduced into the film "Torment," which will be exhibited during the week at La Scala. The scenes are laid in Russia and America, as well as Japan. The cast is headed by Owen Moore and Bessie Love.

The principal film at the Metropole Cinema is "So This is Hollywood," in which Betty Blythe and Vera Gordon take leading parts. The film purports to give an insight into life at the Californian cinematograph centre.

"The Beauty Contest," in which Viola Dana appears, will be shown at the Grafton Cinema. The story deals with a beauty competition.

John Gilbert is the leading player in "The Snob," which is to be shown at the Carlton Cinema. He is supported by Norma Shearer, Conrad Nagel, Phyllis Haver and Hedda Hopper.

"Racing for Luck" is the title of a sporting film to be exhibited at the Grand Central Cinema. The chief players are William Fairbanks and Eva Novak.

HOWTH HERRING FISHING.

Almost a fortnight before the usual time, the Howth herring season has started, with every promise of a repetition of last year's successful harvest of the sea.

So far only the local boats are out, but they returned each morning of the past week with good catches. Some of them have done remarkably well. On Thursday morning one boat was so full that she could get no further than Arklow, and catches of seventy cran for the night's work are reported. A cran represents from 850 to 1,000 herrings, according to size.

Although there was only one buyer, the prices have been satisfactory. The first catches fetched 45s. a cran, and the lowest price for the week was 17s. 6d. This is higher than the price received by fishermen for small catches during the many lean years through which they have passed. A large addition to the fleet is coming from other ports next week, and buyers from England and Germany are expected.

MINE-SWEEPERS VISIT LONDONDERRY.

INSTRUCTIONAL VESSELS.

Three mine-sweepers, part of a flotilla of seven ships based at Portland, have arrived in the Foyle, off Derry, from Lamlash. They are used for instructional purposes, chiefly in connection with mine-sweeping, and are known as the Hunt Class, later type. No fewer than eighty-seven ships of the class were built, the first vessels being delivered in 1918.

H.M.S. Leamington is commanded by Commander H. T. Baillie-Grohman, D.S.O., the senior officer of the mine-sweeping flotilla—800 tons displacement; i.h.p., 2,200; speed, 16 knots; armed with one four-inch and one twelve-pounder guns.

The other two vessels are H.M.S. Badminton (Lieutenant-Commander J. Figgens) and H.M.S. Burslem (Lieutenant-Commander W. V. H. Harris, D.S.C.).

The officers were entertained to dinner by the Mayor on Saturday. A dance will be given at Brook Hall to-day by Lieutenant F. Gilliland, R.N.V.R.

A DOCTOR ON FASHIONS.
When out of sorts get a new frock. It's a splendid tonic—so said a doctor recently. At Marleen Salons we have the kind of exclusive frocks and hats that give a new interest in life. Reasonably priced, too.—114 Stephen's Green (continuation of Grafton street).

A COUNCIL'S MONEY.

COLLECTOR'S PLEA.

At the Trim Circuit Court, before Judge Doyle, K.C., a young man named Laurence Daly, Trim, pleaded guilty to an indictment charging him with converting to his own use the sum of £257 18s. 7d., moneys received by him for and on account of the Trim Urban District Council

Mr. Mooney, solicitor, who appeared on behalf of the accused, said that he was a young man of 36 years of age, and had a wife and two children. He was appointed in the year 1919 to the post of collector of water and gas rents, rents of artisans' dwellings, etc., by the Trim Urban Council; the total collection worked out at £1,600 to £1,800 a year, and for that his salary was £30. It was increased to £36, and subsequently to £48—not a handsome salary considering the amount of money that he had to deal with. Everything went well until the rivalry started between the two Governments—Dail Eireann and the British. As his honour was aware, certain countermanding orders were given from time to time. Ordinarily he lodged the money he had collected with the bank, but collectors of rates got orders not to do so, for certain reasons, and sometimes the collectrs handed the moneys to certain nominees, or officials, or they retained them when they could do so in safety, for the public bodies.

In the town of Trim the position became acute, business was bad, the accused, who had charge of the money had nowhere to put it, and it got mixed up with his own money in small sums. He did not think that he misappropriated quite as much as the sum stated. The manner in which he allowed the money to go astray was not due to any criminal intent to deliberately defraud the Council. It was a pure misapplication in the first instance. There was a bonus of 10 per cent. coming to the accused for the sale of certain land the property of the Council. When the position was discovered when the auditor was going round the accused went before him and admitted the matter and gave all the assistance that he could to mend the situation. The bonus to which he was entitled he was quite willing to let go to the Urban Council. He submitted that where young men were placed in positions handling large sums of money and received a remuneration on which they could not live it was tempting them to become criminals.

His honour said that he was disposed to take into account the position of the young wife and children of the accused, and the circumstances under which he originally slipped into the irregularities. He bound him to enter into two solvent recognisances of £100 each and his own bail of £100, to come up for judgment on receiving ten days' notice, and he would rely on him to use every effort to see that the money would be recouped to the Urban Council. Bails were forthcoming.

At a meeting last Thursday in the parish room of St. Matthias's Church, Dublin, an address and cheque for £50 were presented to Mr. Richard Butler on the occasion of his jubilee as Sexton of the Church. Mr. Butler has no recollection of missing a Service in the Church during his fifty years of office.

NOURISHMENT in the form Baby can digest

THE ceremonial laying of a Foundation Stone is symbolical of the tremendous importance attaching to a sound beginning. The entire structure depends on the foundation. Wisdom calls a blessing on a work so well begun.

The same principle applies in building a little body. In the first year of life you are laying the foundation for future health and happiness—for future prosperity even, since the race is ever to the strong. Let your Baby's food be the finest you can procure. Will it nourish him? Can he digest it? Does it make for hardiness and strength? Is the foundation a happy augury for future health?

The 'Allenburys' System of Infant Feeding answers all these questions satisfactorily. The secret lies in the progressive grading of the Foods: No. 1 from birth to three months—No. 2 from three to six months—Malted Food No. 3 onwards. Investigate for your own satisfaction.

Write for Booklet & Free Sample tin

Baby's digestion readily assimilates the 'Allenburys' Food graded to his age. As proof we offer free a ¼ lb. tin of Food so that you may judge for yourself. Write for it to-day, being careful to mention Baby's age and this paper. We will send at the same time the 'Allenburys' Book 'Infant Feeding and Management'—120 pages of practical information and guidance for Baby's health and comfort.

UNPURCHASED TENANTS.

At a recent meeting at Thurles of unpurchased tenants in the County of Tipperary (writes Mr. Patrick Harvey, hon. secretary), a resolution was adopted tendering support to Senators Butler, Irwin and Lenihan in their attempt to have the present Land Bill amended, and pledging co-operation with them in their efforts to place unpurchased tenants on a level with the yearly tenants, under the Land Act of 1923. A working committee was formed from those in attendance, and it was urged that all interested parties in the twenty-six counties should communicate with the Secretary with a view to holding a convention in Dublin at an early date.

ROYAL DUBLIN SOCIETY.

POSITION OF THE LIBRARY.

A meeting of the Council of the Royal Dublin Society was held at Ballsbridge on Thursday, the Right Hon. Lord Rathdonnell, H.M.L., President, in the chair.

The following resolutions were passed in silence:—

"That the Council of the Royal Dublin Society have learned with deep regret of the death of their old colleague, Professor E. J. McWeeney. Thirty-eight years ago Professor McWeeney joined the Society, and during that long period he took an active interest in its affairs, especially in its scientific work, until failing health prevented his attendance at its meetings. He became a member of the Council in 1906 and was elected a Life Governor in 1922. The Council desire to convey to Mrs. McWeeney and family their deep sympathy with them in their bereavement."

"That the Council of the Royal Dublin Society have received with extreme regret the news of the loss sustained by Captain Fowler in the death of his son, and desire to convey to him their feeling of deep sympathy in his bereavement."

The Director reported that the Trustees of the Carlow County Club were desirous of asking the Society's acceptance, on permanent loan, of a picture by Mr. Catterson Smith, painted in 1861, of Mr. Watson, a famous Irish Master of Hounds. The Council accepted this with thanks, and arrangements were made for the immediate transference of the picture to the Society's headquarters.

3—,oru :Sl shrdlu cmfwyp shrdlu cmfwyp p

Mr. Charles Allen, F.R.C.V.S., also asked the Society's acceptance of a small picture of the late Empress of Austria mounted on a famous Irish hunter, "Merry Andrew." This horse won the Championship High Jump at one of the early Horse Shows of the Society, held in front of Leinster House, when it cleared the jump raised to six feet three inches. The Empress of Austria afterwards purchased the horse on Mr. Allen's certificate and presented him with the picture as a memento. This appropriate gift was also accepted with thanks.

The Library Committee reported very fully on the proposed reorganisation of the library, and expressed the hope that under the new system the library will be in full working order by next winter session.

NASTY ACCIDENT TO DONOGHUE.

MARVEX WINS JUNE ROSE HANDICAP.

From Our Travelling Correspondent.

LONDON, Sunday Night.

The air was heavy at Sandown yesterday with stories about the past, present and future of a couple of well-known jockeys. Never have the gossip-mongers had a time more entirely after their own hearts. Those who might be in a position to know were being buttonholed for names and facts, and the subject seemed to be intriguing many people far more than the current racing. Some of the London Sunday newspapers this morning were also hot on the trail. One journal had flaming headlines, such as: "Jockey Refused a Licence—Ruling Body to take Drastic Action?" The note of interrogation is informative, because the text of the story was made up of suggestion with an admixture of statements that were not quite accurate.

The question of the other jockey who also is temporarily standing down is on rather a different plane. It is not a question, as most people suppose, of the powerful stable for which he rides being dissatisfied with his efforts on their horses, but concerns an incident over which he has taken the bull by the horns and laid his case before the Stewards of the Jockey Club. It is to be hoped that if there is anything to be said officially in either case it will be said without delay, as the sort of atmosphere that has been created during the past few days is not exactly a pleasant one or a healthy one for the Turf.

An amusing story current just now concerns a well-known owner and trainer, who had a slight disagreement recently. The trainer ordered the owner peremptorily to take his horses away from the stable, and the owner promptly did so. He retaliated, however, by pointing out to the trainer that he was the landlord of all his best gallops, and as such proposed to exercise his rights. As the owner has a sardonic sense of humour he will, doubtless, be satisfied with his gesture, and the matter may end happily.

Zionist seems to have created a very favourable impression by the style in which he won the Irish Derby last week, and he is now being spoken of as a likely St. Leger candidate. It is not only that his breeding by Spearmint out of Judea suggests that he stays well, but his performances in public have given evidence that he has a good reserve of stamina. He would appear to have beaten Sparus at the Curragh far more easily than Solario did at Ascot, and Solario has been very much in the limelight as a likely St. Leger colt ever since he won the Ascot Derby. Solario is, I believe, to run for the Princess of Wales's Stakes at Newmarket on Thursday, where he is to be ridden by Donoghue.

The Best Four-Year-Old.

It is likely that St. Germans will be the selected of the Manton stable from a powerful batch, which includes Saucy Sue, Hurstwood, and Cross Bow. In spite of the defeat of St. Germans in the Gold Cup I still regard him as the best four-year-old in England at a mile and a half, and it should afford a very good test of Solario to try to beat him at weight for age. Such as Obliterate and Kentish Knock can join issue, and we may possibly see a very good race. Zionist is not in the least likely to be sent after his two races on the hard ground in the last two weeks. Manna is not engaged in the race, and I understand that he will not run again before the St. Leger.

The racing on the ever-delightful July course at Newmarket looks like being very interesting this week. At the first July Meeting some of the historic two-year-old races, like the July Stakes, are run for, and we generally see a number of good youngsters. Lord Derby's COLORADO is in both the July Stakes on Tuesday and the Exeter Stakes on Thursday, but I understand he is more likely to run for the latter, which he is almost certain to win. Sun Yat Sen, who is trained by Mr. Cottrill, and is regarded as a highly promising youngster, is engaged in this race, but he is a very big colt, and he is not likely to show to advantage for some time. Buckler, the Buchan colt, who came unexpectedly to beat Monk's Way at Ascot, is engaged in the July Stakes on Tuesday and the Stud Produce Stakes on Wednesday, where he has to give 10lb. to Apple Sammy, who was third to Colorado in the New Stakes. The King's good filly, Aloysia, is engaged in the July Stakes and also in the Stud Produce Stakes. It is doubtful if the pair will clash, and they may win their selected races. EMBARGO, who was left at the post in the Windsor Castle Stakes at Ascot, is in the Fulbourne Stakes on Friday, and may win it. Diomedes is engaged in the July Cup on Thursday, but he is not likely to be seen out again before Goodwood. Pharos, after his mishap at exercise before the race for the Hunt Cup, is not likely to run, and Heverswood suggested by his weak display at Ascot that he has trained off, so the best in the July Cup may be the Salford Borough Handicap winner, ARAUSIO.

Forthcoming Newmarket Sales.

The bloodstock sales during the week are likely to be a little overshadowed by those at the Second July Meeting when the late Sir Edward Hulton's entire stud comes up. The principal lots of yearlings offered this week will be those from the Buckland Stud, owned by Lady Fitzgerald and the Knight of Kerry, which generally fetch high prices, and those from the National Stud. Indeed, these First July sales are largely "carried" by the Buckland and National Studs. An interesting batch coming up on Wednesday is composed of twelve yearlings from the Eaton Stud. This seems to suggest that the Duke of Westminster, who has never taken more than a passive interest in racing, will have nothing to carry his colours in public when Twelve Pointer is retired.

There seem to be few Irish yearlings outside the National Stud's half-dozen in the catalogue, but I note that Mr. A. H. Maxwell offers a half-sister to Diomedes, by My Prince, and that Captain Cullen, of Liscarton, is putting up an Achtoi colt and a full-brother to that excellent staying colt Imprudence. Among the horses in training offered are Maureen Bawn, Shaun Or and Winged Wave, the property of Mr. E. L. Lloyd.

It is regrettable to hear to-night that Donoghue was rather badly smashed up when Aquatinte fell with him in the race for the Grand Prix de Paris this afternoon, and that he may not be able to ride for some weeks. Donoghue throughout his career has been singularly immune from serious accident. He had the escape of a lifetime when he came up practically unhurt after Abbott's Trace fell with him in the race for the Derby of 1920.

The result of Longchamps seems to have created a big surprise, for it was won by a head by the filly Reine Lumiere, who beat another filly, Madame Nouvien, by a head, while neither of the popular choices, Belfonds or Chubasco, was in the first three. In the French Oaks, run for three weeks ago, Reine Lumiere could only finish fourth behind Aquatinte. The winner is owned by Mr. James de Rothschild, who, although the major part of his racing interests are in England, occasionally keeps one or two in France. She was ridden by the English jockey Smirke.

At Sandown Park.

A good crowd saw racing at Sandown yesterday which was only good in patches. The two selling events only produced horses of very moderate class, and the Robert De Wittville Handicap brought out but four runners. Gold Star was favourite among these, but he was all out to win by a head from Mr. A. P. Cunliffe's colt The Moy, on whom Harry Beasley rode a powerful finish. The colt, however, was not quite good enough and lost by a narrow margin.

It is remarkable how many good two-year-old fillies we have seen this season—Bella Minna, Aloysia and Spinel Ruby, among others. We saw another at Sandown who is quite likely to hold her own with the best. This was Lord Astor's Buchan filly, Short Story, who made a most flattering début on the Turf when she won the British Dominion Two-Year-Old Plate in a canter. She is a whole brown filly of delightful quality and, undoubtedly, has considerable racing merit, for when Bullock let her have her head when they had gone half-way she fairly ran away from the others and won in a canter by four lengths from Helter Skelter. Harper's stable ran a highly-fancied candidate for this event, the Spearmint filly, Spearfish, but after showing good speed for about three-and-a-half furlongs she was beaten. Simon the Beggar ran on to gain third place, but nothing ever had a chance against the winner, who, although she started at 8 to 1, was not a little fancied by the Manton stable.

There was a very interesting race for the June Rose Handicap, which fell to that very useful colt, Marvex, who, with a few pounds the worse o' the weights, completely reversed the Newbury Cup running with Baton Rouge. The latter started favourite, with Caprier, who had made a very exciting pace in the Alexandra Stakes at Ascot, next in demand. Caprier did not make such strong running here, and Herodias was mostly in front of him. He was beaten, however, after entering the straight, when Marvex took it up. The latter was never seriously challenged afterwards. Baton Rouge came into the straight with a lot of leeway to make up, and although he flattered for a second or two, he never could make any real impression on the winner, and Bursle‍m ran him out of the second place.

Both Sunderland and St. Croix were much fancied for the Coombe Maiden Plate, but the latter ran badly, and although Sunderland did better, he was beaten out of a place. The race was very easily won by Lord Zetland's Pomeroy, who had no difficulty in beating Camden by a couple of lengths.

Except in one case, favourites were generally successful at Haydock Park, where Winalot followed up a splendid victory in the Manchester Cup by winning the Old Newton Cup by half a length from Devonshire. The winner of the Two-Year-Old Selling Plate was the colt by Righ Mor out of Goura, bred by Mr. James Daly. It is really remarkable how Goura, year after year, keeps on throwing winners. This is a smart colt, whom Jack Leader's stable bought in after the race. There is no racing in England to-morrow afternoon.

Herodias broke the tapes. Caprier made the running from Knockgoriff, Herodias, Marvex, and Right Ho, with Burslem last, for three furlongs, when Herodias headed Caprier, the pair being clear of Marvex, Knockgoriff, Right Ho, and Baton Rouge. Entering the straight Marvex raced up on the inside, and, quickly passing Herodias and Caprier, Mrs. Rudd's horse increased his lead at the distance and won in a canter by three lengths from Burslem; one length separated second and third. Knockgoriff was fourth, Right Ho fifth, and Herodias last.

SPORTING PARAGRAPHS.

The Paris "Auto" announces that Francis Charles, the former French Middle-Weight champion, has sent Carpentier an official challenge for the title of French champion in all categories. This challenge, with a guarantee of 1,000 francs has been sent to the French Boxing Federation. Charles is also challenging Paolino. His weight will be about 80 kilogrammes.

Lady James Douglas's mare, Bayuda, who won the Oaks six years ago, and was retired to the stud at the end of that season, is in training again owing to her failure as a brood mare, and is due to run in the Cheluvelt Welter Plate at Worcester on Thursday next. She has been showing fine form in her gallops.

BOWLING.

KENILWORTH AGAIN DEFEATED.

An interesting match took place at the Blackrock Bowling Green on Saturday afternoon between a team of the Blackrock Club and a team of the Kenilworth Club, when Blackrock won by 7 shots. It was a very popular victory, and is stated to have been the first time that Blackrock has succeeded in defeating the much-fancied Kenilworth. The beaten team extended to the victors their hearty congratulations on the result, which should do much to encourage the Blackrock men to persevere in bringing their players up to first-class form. Four rinks were played, and in only one of these were the Kenilworth players "up." On two of the rinks the rivals peeled. The rink skipped by Bertie Stephens was the only Kenilworth rink that was on top, being 3 up at 20, to Murphy's 17. In the fourth rink R. H. Felton, for Kenilworth, was down 10-18 to West's 28. Finlay Kerr (Blackrock) is to be congratulated on holding Bestall (an international), and in finishing level with him at 15. Another close contest was that between MacNeice (Kenilworth) and MacKay (Blackrock). In this case they also peeled—19 each. Total score:—Blackrock, 76; Kenilworth, 69.

The following were the teams:—

Blackrock—Hand, Richardson, M'Cann, Crafton, Wilkinson, Cameron, Clarke, Seaman, White, Marshall, Stewart, and Felton (J. B.), the skips being West, Finlay Kerr, MacKay, and Murphy.

Kenilworth—Cleland, Chalmers, Cunningham, Clarke (G.), Stockman, Stephens (C.), M'Rea, Wilkinson, Ingram, Jones, Young, and Carmichael, the skips being Felton (R. H.), D. H. Stephens, Bestall, and MacNeice.

PHŒNIX PARK.

CLOUGH WINS ARNOTT PLATE.

FLYING PHŒNIX MAKES AMENDS.

FIVE FAVOURITES SUCCESSFUL.

The coughing epidemic and the hard state of the ground at most of the training quarters was responsible for the comparatively small fields at Phœnix Park on Saturday, the runners not being up to the usual strength at this venue. Thanks to a liberal dispersal of sand over the various courses, however, there was no jar in the ground and the racing suffered in no way. The weather was delightful, and the large company witnessed a very enjoyable afternoon's sport, a feature of which was the success attending favourites, five of which got home in front.

Flying Prince, whose runaway victory at the previous meeting was fresh in the minds of most people, was opposed by Lady Nightingale and Eagle Royal for the Garristown Plate, and, though not winning in quite such easy style now, the son of Flying Orb never gave his supporters much cause for uneasiness. W. Redmond, who rode, took him into the lead at the start, and there he remained throughout the race, winning in comfortable style from Lady Nightingale.

Flying Phœnix, another son of Flying Orb, who had disappointed his connections when beaten by Golden Quest and Sir Stingo in the Flat Rath Stakes at the Curragh, was afforded an opportunity for making amends in the Glencairn Plate, and this he did, but not at all in the ready style anticipated. Though in front from the start and well clear of the field a couple of furlongs from home, he was hard put to it to shake off Horatius, whose challenge, delivered in the last hundred yards, almost spelt disaster. It may be that Flying Phœnix had a bit in reserve, for so safe did the issue seem that there was justification for D. Ward taking things a trifle easy, but as the race was run he was lucky to have the judge's verdict of a "short head" in his favour instead of against him.

The Garadice Plate was won by Trouville, the property of J. Hunter, the Curragh trainer, whose luck has not been of the best of late. The daughter of Cygnus won in such smart style as to suggest she is more than useful in her class, and it was not surprising that there were many bidders for her at the subsequent sale. She was eventually retained by her owner for 260 sovs. Although only six runners turned out for the Arnott Plate, it proved an attractive race. Sir Thomas Dixon's gelding, Clough, who ran a dead heat with Nantenan for the Laidlaw Plate at the second May meeting; Fedamore, Philanderer, and Little Vera were all fancied, and for four furlongs the four kept close company, and in a fine finish Clough got the better of Fedamore by a length.

The only failure of a favourite was in the Glenmaroon Plate, for which Golden Jewel was regarded in the light of a good thing, but cut up in disappointing style. The race fell an easy prey to Roi du Monde, whose owner, Mr. James Daly, is another who has not tasted much of the sweetness of success in recent times. It was the colt's first score out of twelve attempts, and may be the turning point in the luck of colours long remembered and respected by racegoers. Irish Melody had an easy task in the Garlow Cross Plate, taking the lead two furlongs from home and scoring in a canter. Details:—

3.0—GARRISTOWN PLATE of £100. Second £5. A handicap. 1 m.
Mr. T. O'Neill's ch. h. FLYING PRINCE, by Flying Orb—Princess Ena, 5, 9-7 ...... W. Redmond 1
Mr. Rogers's LADY NIGHTINGALE, 3, 8-9 ...... D. Ward 2
Mr. J. Hunter's EAGLE ROYAL, 3, 7-12 ...... Joe Harty 3
(Winner trained by J. J. Parkinson).

Betting.—11 to 10 on FLYING PRINCE, 11 to 10 agst. Lady Nightingale, 10 to 1 Eagle Royal.

Flying Prince went off in front of Lady Nightingale and Eagle Royal, and, making all the running, won easily by two lengths; six lengths divided second and third. Time—1 min. 39 4-5 seconds.

3.30—GLENCAIRN PLATE of 200 sovs. Second 10 sovs. An open handicap. 5 f.

Mr. Peard's Charley's Nephew, 2, 7-0 ...... G. Cannon 0
(Winner trained by Owner.)

Betting.—6 to 4 on Golden Jewel, 5 to 1 each agst. ROI DU MONDE and Joven, 7 to 1 each Miss Nurmi and Sabra, 20 to 1 any other.

Roi du Monde went off in front of Joven, Golden Jewel, Sabra, and Narbonne, and, making all the running, won by three lengths; half a length divided second and third. Sabra was fourth, Aircomb fifth, Miss Nurmi sixth, and Kilmagar next. Time—61 3-5 secs.

Mr. Peard declared to win with Sabra.

5.30—GARLOW CROSS PLATE of £100. Second £10, third £5. 1 m. 2 f. 50 yds.
Mr. J. H. H. Peard's ch. f. IRISH MELODY, by Charles O'Malley—Head Note, 3, 8-7 ...... J. Connolly 1

Mr. T. Ray's Odd Cat, 4, 9-7 ...... P. Higgins 0
Mr. M. J. Farrell's Princess Tozzi, 3, 8-7 ...... Morgan 0
(Winner trained by Owner.)

Betting—Evens IRISH MELODY, 3 to 1 agst. Sanders, 7 to 2 Light Hussar, 20 to 1 any other.

Princess Tozzi set the pace to Odd Cat, Sanders, Irish Melody, and Light Hussar, until three furlongs from home, when Odd Cat showed in front, but was immediately headed by Irish Melody, who won in a canter by five lengths; four lengths divided second and third. Odd Cat was fourth. Time—3 mins. 17 1-5 secs.

LIMERICK JUNCTION.

TO-DAY'S SELECTIONS.

Although for various causes, mainly the coughing epidemic at the Curragh and the hard state of the ground, runners may not be as numerous as usual at the "Junction," the sport will attain to an interesting standard. A special dining car train leaves Kingsbridge on both mornings of the meeting at 11 o'clock, and as it returns at 4.15 Dubliners can get back to town at a convenient hour each evening. Chief interest to-day will centre in the decision of the Limerick Junction Plate, which is endowed with 500 sovs., and for this nice prize a good-sized field will go to the post. The following are the

SWIMMING.

INTERNATIONAL CONTEST.

The French Swimming Federation is organising a two days' International contest, to be held on July 13 and 14, at the Tourelles Stadium. Official invitations have been sent to Great Britain, Holland, Belgium, Czecho-Slovakia, Hungary, and Italy. Among the events to be disputed is the Grand Prix de La Ville de Paris, 100 metres, free style.

DUBLIN UNIVERSITY S.C.—The following will represent Dublin University v. Pembroke (Senior League Water Polo) at Blackrock this evening at 6.30.—T. Stafford, D. Corbet, D. Murtagh, T. H. Dockrell, J. H. Wallace, H. G. Elierker (capt.), A. B. Brooks. Junior League—Dublin University (Juniors) v. Pembroke (Juniors) at Blackrock at 6 o'clock this evening—L. Orr, O. S. Wallace, J. R. Hanna, F. M. Purcell (capt), R. W. Mather, T. F. M. M. Woods, J. Walsh.

PEMBROKE S.C.—Ladies' 50 Yards Handicap (Junior)—Miss Storling, 1; Miss M. Cullen, 2; Miss E. Little, 3. Time—53 secs. Ladies' 220 Yards (Handicap), Mooney Cup—Miss Carroll, 1; Miss Wadsworth, 2; Miss K. O'Connell, 3. Time—4 mins. 16 secs. Men's 50 Yards Handicap, crawl stroke—O. S. Wallace, 1; I. H. M. Mecredy, 2; A. D. Sarratt, 3. Time—32 secs.

DUBLIN S.C. (Ladies' Section).—Races postponed on last Thursday will be held this evening at Blackrock Baths, at 6 o'clock; a 50 yards handicap and a beginners' race. Men's Section—The junior water-polo team v. University College this evening at Blackrock Baths, at 6.30 o'clock, will be—E. Kay; A. D. Egan, J. Hughes; H. M. Dockrell; H. M. Corbet, K. C. Doyle, M. Dockrell, and E. G. Mulhern.

After his fall in the Grand Prix at Paris yesterday Donoghue was taken to a nursing home, where the doctors found that his left shoulder had been fractured. The fracture was at once reduced. Donoghue is also suffering from several bruises, and will be X-rayed this morning. The doctors last night considered that his condition was satisfactory, and that there was no danger.

HAYDOCK PARK.

FIVE FAVOURITES SCORE.

WINALOT TAKES THE CUP.

The Haydock Park meeting concluded on Saturday and was successful in every way, for not only was the weather fine, but the favourites held their own in the majority of the events. Lighthouse was not pulled out for the Old Newton Cup, with the result that the Manchester Cup winner, Winalot, and Devonshire monopolised the market. As matters turned out the pair had the race to themselves. Jelliss kept Winalot in the rear until more than half the distance had been covered, when he moved up into third place, just behind Bowood and Devonshire. Soon after entering the straight Bowood was done with, and from that point Devonshire took it up. A furlong from home Winalot began to close the gap, and getting his head in front in the last fifty yards went on to score a popular victory.

For the Willows Handicap Plate Niloak, who won cleverly at Windsor a week ago, was a good favourite. Nivose was quicker away, but, after being three lengths in front, at the end of a furlong had shot her bolt, and in a desperate finish Niloak was all out to win by a neck from Coral Wreath, with Paintbox, a head away, third. An objection to the winner for crossing a furlong from home was overruled.

With only four to oppose him in the Saturday Selling Welter Golden Flake, who failed at Newcastle, dominated the market. Fairfield Swell made the running until half way up the straight, when the favourite went on, to win by a length and a half.

Yet another favourite scored in the Ashton T.Y.O. Selling Plate, for once Goura gelding drew up to Zahrat at the end of three furlongs he quickly settled the pretensions of the remainder.

The fifth favourite of the day looked like winning the Paddock Two-Year-Old Plate, for it was only in the last few strides that Germination was caught and beaten by Squat, who was practically friendless in the market.

Phalaros made his three opponents for the Winwick Plate look like hacks.

1.30—WILLOWS HANDICAP PLATE of 200 sovs. Second receives 15 sovs. and the third 5 sovs. 5 f.
Mr. J. Sharples's br. g. NILOAK, by Sunbright—Lady Lee, 4, 7-4 ...... J. Marshall 1

GRAND PRIX DE PARIS.

ACCIDENT TO DONOGHUE.

PARIS, Sunday.

The following is the result of the Grand Prix run here to-day:—

REINE LUMIERE	1
MADAME NEUVIEN	2
DARK DIAMOND	3

Erofite was fourth. Eighteen ran.

Betting—Pari-mutuel prices, reserved enclosure—Stake 10 fr., winner 1,201.50 fr. Places—Reine Lumiere 202.50 fr., Madame Neuvien 110 fr., Dark Diamond 56.50 fr. Popular enclosure—Stake 5 fr., winner 360 fr. Places—Reine Lumiere 80.50 fr., Madame Neuvien 28 fr., Dark Diamond 25 fr.

Won by a head; a length and a half between second and third. Aquatinte II. (Donoghue) and Coram (Bullock) fell, Donoghue sustaining a slight dislocation of the left shoulder. Bullock escaped with a shaking.

The race for the Grand Prix this afternoon attracted a great crowd. President Doumergue, M. De Selves, President of the Senate, and several French Ministers and Foreign Ambassadors, including Lord Crewe, were present. There were eighteen runners, and a good start was effected after the traditional parade in the reserved enclosure where the most fancied candidates were Belfonds, Madame Neuvien, Chubasco, Aquatinte II., Dark Diamond. Erofite rushed off with the lead followed by Chubasco, Sac a Papier, and Truskmore. There was a mix up at the first turn among the horses lying behind, and Donoghue on Aquatinte II., Vatard on Priori, Allemand on Faraway, and F. Bullock on Coram were thrown. Meanwhile Sac a Papier and Chubasco successively took the lead and were neck and neck on entering the straight, where Madame Neuvien, who had been running third, made a great effort, and forging ahead seemed a certain winner. Reine Lumiere, however, suddenly began to draw up, and challenging Madame Neuvien beat the latter by a head in a thrilling finish. Dark Diamond was third, in front of Erofite, Tomy II., and The Sirdar, who finished in this order. Belfonds, the favourite, was never dangerous.

Reine Lumiere's victory, which was very well received, brings her owner, M. J. de Rothschild, 663,900 francs. President Doumergue congratulated M. de Rothschild and the jockey. The latter was riding Reine Lumiere for the first time. The Grand Prix has seldom been won before by a filly.

ULSTER'S VICTORY OVER LEINSTER.

LEAGUE GAMES IN DUBLIN.

At the ground of the North of Ireland Club, Belfast, on Saturday, Ulster gained their first victory over Leinster. The Southerners played in very disappointing fashion, and were well beaten on the merits, Ulster's winning margin being the substantial one of ten wickets.

When stumps were drawn on Friday night Leinster were 190 runs behind, with half their wickets in hand. Play lasted only an hour on Saturday, when the last wicket fell at 131. This meant a follow-on, and at the second attempt Leinster scored 191. The feature was a grand display by J. G. Aston, who scored 63. His driving to the off was very sound, and occasionally he was responsible for beautifully timed square cuts. The Leinster wickets fell as follows:—7, 49, 66, 129, 144, 144, 147, 148. The ninth wicket went down at 150, after which G. N. Kelly treated the spectators to some good hitting. His partner, W. Allen, showed a stout resistance, and they added 41 for the last wicket, Kelly's share being 34.

Ulster were thus left only 80 runs to get for victory, and, despite the efforts of Allen, Ganly, G. N. Kelly, Bookman and McCausland, all of whom had a chance with the ball, Pollock and Walton knocked off the runs in an hour. Soon afterwards both were dismissed, Pollock's share being 43 and Walton's 41. When stumps were drawn the Ulster total was 127 for four wickets.

Owing to the senior interprovincial at Belfast neither Pembroke nor Leinster could turn out at full strength for their League game at Sydney Parade on Saturday. The visitors were particularly weak and received a decisive defeat, Pembroke winning by 70 runs, with five wickets to spare. Against some splendid bowling by P. Murphy Leinster fared badly, and in one and a half hours were dismissed for 79. Sharkey got top score with 14, while Hill displayed a sound defence and was forty minutes batting for 13. Murphy bowled in quite his best form, securing seven wickets for 30, the remaining three falling to Hirst for 19 runs.

Pembroke got the runs for the loss of three wickets, and, continuing on, had scored 149 for five wickets when play ceased. The brothers Aylward were the chief run-getters for Pembroke. "W. T." played a very fine innings for 51, getting his runs on all sides of the wicket and making many pretty strokes. B. H. Aylward hit out freely, and was unbeaten at the finish with 27 to his credit.

Under ideal weather conditions and on a fast wicket this Senior League match, on the Phœnix ground, resulted in a win for the Railway Union by 54 runs. Neither side was strongly represented, and the home team suffered the more in this respect. Batting first, the Park avenue side scored consistently, six of the first seven batsmen dismissed getting well into double figures—Woakes 19, V. Sully 15, E. Hool 24, F. Kelly 28, Rankin 43, and Owens 19. Woakes and E. Hool hit four boundaries each, and Owens had two sixes and a four in his contribution. Five wickets had put up 132 despite several bowling changes, and when Rankin was dismissed, having hit eight fours, the innings ended at 177. R. Fox, the Belvedere schoolboy, bowled very well, and took 6 wickets for 30, while Pigot had 3 for 30. Phœnix started badly, and had four wickets down for 74, but Peacocke played sound cricket for 67, in which were 10 fours, and had the lion's share of the runs in a total of 123, the only other doubles being D. R. Pigot (10) and C. Carroll (14 not out). Owens had the good figures of 6 for 29, and E. Hool took 2 for 34.

On the Civil Service ground, Phœnix Park, the home club had an easy win against University College by 141 runs. Batting first on a fast wicket, the Civil Service put up runs rapidly, the first hundred in sixty-five minutes and the second in five minutes less, the innings closing for 201. O'Rourke and Fitzsimons put on 52 for the fifth wicket, O'Rourke batting steadily an hour for 43, his hits including six 4's. Fitzsimons batted freely, if a bit luckily, fifty minutes for 40 (including seven 4's). He gave an early chance, and a very easy catch back to the bowler when 38. A last wicket stand between Pemberton and Hanrahan, with the bowling rather loose, put on 63, Pemberton batting a little over half an hour for 39. Culhane had 4 wickets for 53 and Denny 3 for 43. The visitors collapsed badly before the fine attack, Glanville's 15 being the only double figure contribution in a total of 60. Fitzsimons carried off the bowling honours of the day, taking 6 wickets for 11 runs, achieving the "hat trick" by dismissing Denny, McCarron, and Smith on successive balls.

SURREY COLLAPSE.

GOOD BATTING BY LANCASHIRE.

Cricket on Saturday provided many unexpected turns. Of a number of batting collapses, that of Surrey stands by itself. On a wicket somewhat affected by rain they could make no hand of the Yorkshire attack, and were all dismissed for 105, Macaulay and Kilner being responsible.

But for a splendid 61 by B. Hill-Wood, Derbyshire would have been routed by Kent, thanks to some excellent bowling by Cornwallis and Wright. Kent also failed on going in, Horsley and Bestwick bringing about a startling collapse when they took 8 wickets for [illegible], and, quite unexpectedly, the home side secured a first innings lead of 34. Another poor showing was that of Northants against Essex, for whom Hipkin bowled in wonderful style, taking 6 wickets for 28.

At Swansea, Gloucestershire and Glamorgan failed in turn, but towards the close the former recovered to some extent, and are [illegible]23 runs on with 9 wickets in hand.

The following were the chief performances:

BATTING.

Tyldesley (E.) (Notts v. Lancashire)	114
Titchmarsh (M.C.C. v. Cambridge University)	110
Cox (Warwick v. Sussex)	95
Holmes (Yorkshire v. Surrey)	86

BOWLING.

Hipkin (Essex v. Northants)	6 for 28.
Kennedy (Hants v. Leicestershire)	4 for 24.
Brown (Hants v. Leicestershire)	6 for 35.
Horsley (Derby v. Kent)	5 for 36.
Macaulay (Yorkshire v. Surrey)	5 for 36.
Mercer (Glamorgan v. Gloucestershire)	5 for 38.

TO-DAY'S FIXTURE.

Y.M.C.A. III. v. Sandymount III. Claremont road.

Railway Union require a 2nd XI. fixture at home or away for Saturday, July 4th.

MOTOR CYCLING.

DONEGAL AND BACK TRIAL.

Saturday evening saw the conclusion of the very successful twenty-four hours' trial held by the Dublin and District Motor Cycle Club, when 43 of the competing motor cycles and cars which started from Dublin on Friday evening, finished the course at the Castleknock Gate, Phœnix Park, at 9 p.m. The wonderfully small proportion of non-finishers was quite remarkable, and was even all the more so by reason of the fact that one of the car-drivers, G. V. B. Cooke (11 h.p. Rhode), gave up the trial to get medical aid for F. A. Wallen, who met with a rather serious accident at Kinloch, Co. Donegal, and had to be taken to hospital after treatment by Dr. Walsh, Kinloch. In this connection a special word of praise is due to Dr. Walsh, who in addition to rendering skilled medical aid at such an early hour—the mishap occurred at 4 a.m.—was most attentive to the creature comforts of the occupants of the car. The weather was extremely favourable throughout the twenty-six hours, the night journey being made under very pleasant conditions, the proportion of the hours of darkness being materially reduced by the two hours' stop for supper at Carrick-on-Shannon at 11.50 p.m.

The ascent of Glengesh Mountain, near Ardara, Co. Donegal, was the most critical part of the trial. The hill at this point furnishes the severest gradient to be found on any main road in Ireland, and had to be taken twice in the course of the trial. Success in this climb is necessary to the receiving of a first-class award, and although the variable gear has done much to take from the difficulties of the ascent quite an appreciable number of the competitors failed on it. The surface of its sharp hairpin bends, which had been loosened by a shower early in the day, gave even some of the most experienced riders trouble. The official observer on the hill, Dr. Falvey, of Ardara, reported that in the first attempt the following failed:—F. J. Ryan (2¾ B.S.A.), C. D. Maguire (2¾ Humber), T. Woods (2¾ B.S.A.), J. Healy (8 h.p. Enfield and sidecar), P. Keogh (11.4 Citroen car), P. Scanlon (11 Hillman), A. Paton (10 Salmson). In the second attempt, C. J. Mulcahy (2¾ Raleigh), C. D. Maguire (2¾ Humber), L. A. W. Orr (3½ h.p. Ariel), T. Woods (2¾ B.S.A.), Patton (3½ James), and Adair (2¾ Enfield) failed. Keogh (11.4 Citroen) was unfortunate enough to have a tyre burst after he had completed the most difficult part of the hill, while Kirkpatrick (2¾ h.p. Excelsior) gave a splendid display during the ascents. Among the cars, Triumphs, Singers, Humbers, Fiats, Mathis, Lea Francis and Lancia were driven faultlessly on the hill. The Civic Guard at Ardara co-operated with the officials, and helped in the success of the climb by intelligent traffic manipulation.

When the second ascent of Glengesh was completed the competitors returned to Dublin by the direct route, via Ballyshannon, Bundoran, Manorhamilton, Butler's Bridge, Cavan, Virginia, Kells, and Navan, stops for meals being allowed at Bundoran and Cavan. Both the outward and homeward journeys had to be made within the Irish Free State boundaries. While the club would have liked to have reverted to the old route, which crossed the border of Northern Ireland, north of Dundalk, and took in several stiff test hills in Tyrone county, it was found impossible to make arrangements which would obviate the Customs formalities on the border.

Those who completed the trial were as follows:—James Browne (2¾ h.p. Douglas), M. A. Dawson (3½ Triumph (C. J. Mulcahy (2¾ h.p. Raleigh), A. W. Kirkpatrick (2¾ h.p. Excelsior and sidecar), J. G. Burney (2¾ h.p. Enfield), R. D. Gibson (2¾ h.p Raleigh), F. J. Ryan (2¾ h.p. B.S.A.), Geo. Briggs (2¾ h.p. O.K. Bradshaw), C. D. Maguire (2¾ h.p. Humber), L. A. W. Orr (3½ h.p. Ariel), J. A. Carvill (3½ h.p. Triumph), H. E. Bell (2¾ h.p. James), T. Woods (2¾ h.p. B.S.A.), F. Holmes (3½ h.p. Triumph), E. G. Stapleton (2¾ h.p. H.R.D.), C. M. Ryan (3½ h.p. Sunbeam), J. Healy (8 h.p. Enfield and sidecar), H. Adair (2¾ h.p. Enfield), H. J. Hosie (10/15 h.p. Triumph car), A. P. Huet (11 h.p. Rhode), G. W. A. Boyd (11 h.p. Rhode), G. B. Fraser (11 h.p. Rover), J. G. McEntagart (11.4 h.p. Citroen), P. Keogh (11.4 h.p. Citroen), H. McEntgart (11.4 h.p. Citroen), F. J. Cooper (11 h.p. Clyno), P. A. Bell (10 h.p. Singer), A. F. Buckley (10 h.p. Singer), M. S. Cassidy (10 h.p. Singer), P. Scanlan (11 h.p. Hillman), W. H. Cooper (11 h.p. Hillman), W. Pile (11 h.p. Hillman), J. A. Jones (12 h.p. Thomond), C. S. Maguire (8.18 h.p. Humber), M. English (8.18 h.p. Humber), W. J. O'Callaghan (8.18 h.p. Humber), S. H. McCarthy (12.25 h.p. Humber), A. Paton (10 h.p. Salmson), Gerald Huet (10 h.p. Mathis), J. A. Cross (10/15 h.p. Fiat), P. Sheill (10/15 h.p. Fiat), W. R. Williamson (10/15 h.p. Fiat), and A. J. Buckley (14.40 h.p. Lancia).

The teams, entered for the Judd Cup for the best performance, by three light cars which completed the trial were:—Singer team, all 10 h.p., driven by P. A. Bell, A. F. Buckley, and M. S. Cassidy; Citroen team, all 11.4 h.p., J. G. McEntagart, H. P. McEntagart, and P. Keogh; Humber team, all 8-18 h.p., W. J. O'Callaghan, M. English, and C. S. Maguire; Fiat team, all 10 h.p., J. A. Cross, W. R. Williamson and P. Sheill; Cork club team, W. J. O'Callaghan, 8/18, Humber; M. English, ditto, and S. H. McCarthy, 12/25 ditto.

The completing cycle teams, entered for the W. H. Freeman Cup for a team of three riders were:—Cork Club team, C. J. Mulcahy (2¾ h.p. Raleigh); C. M. Ryan (3½ h.p. Sunbeam), and M. J. Dawson (3½ h.p. Triumph); Enfield team, J. G. Burney (2¾ h.p. Enfield), J. Healy (8 h.p. and sidecar do.), and H. Adair (2¾ h.p. do.); Dublin and District Club team, J. A. Carvill (3½ h.p. Triumph), J. Browne (2¾ h.p. Douglas), and H. E. Bell (2¾ h.p. James); Leinster Club team, F. Holmes (3½ h.p. Triumph), J. G. Burney (2¾ Enfield), and H. Adair (2¾ do.). The various awards will be announced in the course of the next few days.

SPEED CHAMPIONSHIP IN PHŒNIX PARK.

The Committee of the Leinster Motor Cycle Club wish to notify all intending entrants for the speed events, to be held in the Phœnix Park on Saturday next, July 4th, that entries close this evening. Entries will be received up to 6 p.m. by G. Briggs, 191 Pearse street, or D. Allen, c/o J. Kelly, Bachelor's Walk.

GAELIC GAMES.

CONNAUGHT AND MUNSTER CHAMPIONSHIPS.

ULSTER COUNCIL AND AMUSEMENT TAX.

Yesterday at Castlebar Leitrim played Galway in the junior and senior semi-finals of the Connaught Football Championships. The first game was the junior, and at the finish the score was—Leitrim, 1 goal 6 points; Galway, 4 points.

The senior match was most interesting, the teams being well matched throughout. Result:—

Leitrim	1 goal 1 point.
Galway	1 goal 1 point.

At Cork athletic grounds yesterday Kerry and Tipperary met in the Munster Championships, senior football and junior hurling. The first played was the junior hurling, and though the game was fast and at times exciting, Tipperary easily established their superiority, and won without much effort. The result was:—

Tipperary	7 goals 3 points.
Kerry	3 points.

The second match, the senior football, was much more vigorous and stubbornly contested, and Kerry avenged their other defeat. The final scores were:—

Kerry	3 goals 1 point.
Tipperary	4 points.

Mr. P. MacFadden, Chairman, presided at a meeting of the Ulster Council of the G.A.A., held at Clones on Saturday. Delegates were present from Antrim, Armagh, Cavan, Down, Fermanagh, Monaghan and Tyrone. Arising out of the failure of the Central Council to give a decision on the appeal made by the Ulster Council as to whether the latter body should pay the amusement tax or not at provincial fixtures, the Secretary informed the Council that the Central Council did not wish to interfere, and left it optional to the Ulster Council as to whether the tax should be paid or not.

The Chairman said in England the tax was abolished, but not so in Northern Ireland. The most that was paid by collection on the grounds with an open gate was a few coppers. The result was a heavy loss to the Council.

On a division the voting was five a side, and the motion to pay was carried by a casting vote.

The doctors have ordered M. Pachitch, the Prime Minister of Yugo-Slovakia, to take a prolonged rest and undergo a cure at a thermal establishment. The President has consequently charged three leading members of the Radical Party to replace M. Pachitch during his absence in the management of political affairs.—Reuter.

LAWN TENNIS

THE CHAMPIONSHIPS.

A HISTORIC MATCH.

Mlle. Suzanne Lenglen appeared on the centre court at Wimbledon on Saturday, but, for once in a way, she did not provide the large crowd of spectators with the main thrills of the day. In fact, her easy victory with two love sets over Mrs. Beamish came as an anti-climax to the match which had preceded it. In this J. Brugnon and J. O. Anderson fought one of the finest matches in the history of lawn tennis. Brugnon added to his reputation, and Anderson showed that he was possessed of "the will to win" in a marked degree.

When the men entered the court the spectators were mildly interested as to what kind of challenge Brugnon would make to the Australian, who was confidently expected to win. In a little while they were tense with excitement at the prospect of a major sensation. Brugnon took the first two games. His forehand drive was maintained, and Anderson found it so difficult to deal with that he only won three games in the first set.

Again in the second set Brugnon went to 2-0. He worried Anderson with his service, kept well to the back of the court, and went up only for "kills." Then he took another game for a 3-0 lead. Then Anderson won five games running, and the tide seemed to have turned. But Brugnon attacked strongly and reached five all. Anderson got ahead again at 6-5, but was robbed of the set by the forceful tactics of the Frenchman, who, after getting level, won the next game for 7-6, and took the set at 9-7.

Brugnon reached 4-1 in the third set, but Anderson had his back to the wall, and played superbly to break away, and eventually win the set at 6-4. That was two sets to one in favour of France. Again in the fourth set Brugnon went away, and again he led at four games to one, but another fine recovery enabled the Australian to win the set at 6-4. After such a magnificent recovery Anderson deserved to win, and, with his opponent tiring in the fifth and deciding set, he went to 4-2, and eventually to set and match at 6-2.

Mrs. Beamish prolonged the rallies in entertaining fashion at the start of her match again Mlle. Lenglen, but the French girl had matters all her own way. She won the first set to love with the loss of only nine aces, and she took the second set to love for the match with the loss of only five more aces.

MEN'S SINGLES CHAMPIONSHIP.

IRISH CLOSE CHAMPIONSHIPS.

On Monday next the sixteenth Open Tournament of the Sunday's Well L.T.C. will open on the club grounds, Mardyke, Cork. This year, in addition to the Cork Championships, the Irish Close Championships will be played, and with a good entry a full week's tennis is in prospect. The usual handicaps are also included, and entries will close for all eleven events on Friday next, July 3rd, with the Hon. Secretary, Mr. D. C. Morrogh, Rosatta, Blackrock, Co. Cork.

INTER-CLUB COMPETITIONS.

The final of the Leinster inter-club competition (Class I.) between Claremont and Mount Temple was played at Sunbury Gardens on Saturday, and resulted in a win for the holders by six matches to three. Claremont made a fine fight against their experienced opponents. Up to the last two matches, in which they won the first set in each instance, the issue was still in doubt, and only the superior team work of the holders gave them victory. B. R. Towers showed most promising form in the doubles, his service, which has a strong break-back, being particularly useful. J. Teegan, the challengers' first string, also played well, and Maguire had to go all out against a hard-hitting opponent. Details:—

Singles.—E. A. Maguire (M.T.) beat J. Teegan (C.)—7-5, 6-4; T. V. Murphy (M.T.) lost to B. R. Towers (C.)—6-3, 6-0; W. S. Keatinge (M.T.) beat L. Herbert (C.)—6-2, 12-10; M. O'Callaghan (M.T.) lost to P. Dunne (C.)—7-5, 6-0; W. Pollock (M.T.) beat R. Davitt (C.)—2-6, 6-0, 6-3; F. Lane (M.T.) beat P. O'Brien (C.)—8-6, 7-5.

Doubles.—E. A. Maguire and T. V. Murphy (M.T.) beat J. Teegan and B. R. Towers (C.)—3-6, 6-3, 8-6; M. O'Callaghan and F. W. Lane (M.T.) lost to R. Davitt and L. Herbert (C.)—2-6, 6-3, 3-6; W. S. Keatinge and W. Pollock (M.T.) beat P. Dunne and P. O'Brien (C.)—4-6, 6-4, 6-4.

At an inquest in London on Saturday on the bodies of John Thomas Duddles, aged 62, caretaker, and Edwin James Sarson, aged 36, deputy caretaker, who were found dead at Kingsland road Free Library, medical evidence was given that Duddles died from cyanide poisoning, and that Sarson's death was due to laceration of the brain, by a bullet. The jury found a verdict of suicide while of unsound mind in Duddles's case, and an open verdict in Sarson's case.

ATHLETICS AND CYCLING.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS.

A THRILLING SPRINT.

D. J. CUSSEN EQUALS IRISH RECORD.

Although the standard all round displayed a marked improvement, compared to previous years, the achievement of the Dublin University athlete, D. J. Cussen, in the 100 yards on Saturday, was the big feature of the National Championship meeting, which was held on Saturday and yesterday at Croke Park under the auspices of the National Athletic and Cycling Association. For several years the elder of the two brothers has figured prominently in Irish athletics, and has, more or less, specialised with much success in the sprint; but he has accomplished nothing finer on the track than his display in the final on Saturday. Opposed to him were the holder, W. J. Lowe, of the Manchester A.C.; M. Gregan and R. J. Cussen. Gregan had been showing greatly improved form recently, and he excelled himself by beating the holder, but he could not stick the pace set by D. J. Cussen, who in a thrilling race broke the tape four yards in front of his fellow club man in 10 seconds dead, which equalled the Irish record held jointly by F. R. S. Shaw and N. J. Cathmell. There was little wind behind the runners, and there will be no question about the time being accepted, for yesterday evening the distance was officially measured with a steel tape and found to be accurate to the very inch.

The meeting was a splendid success, and if there were not as many competitors as usual at Irish championships the falling off was compensated for by the fact that for the various events the best men in the country turned out. As evidence of the determination of the N.A. and C.A. to stamp out the practice of betting at athletic meetings, it may be stated that the officials caused three men to be arrested who were, it was alleged, found "making a book" on one of the events.

Saturday was all that could be desired so far as climatic conditions went. The attendance, very sparse at first, grew gradually, but it fell far short of what might have been expected, and still left us waiting for that revival of popular interest in athletics which we so flatteringly promise ourselves.

The proceedings opened with the shot. In this, as in all the field events, competition was limited, the D.M.P. and Dublin University providing the majority of actual aspirants. In this department O'Grady, Bermingham, Stanley, and Conner provided the victors, in all but one instance retaining their titles.

The 100 yards proved to be the outstanding event of the day. Lowe, of Manchester, the holder, won the first of two heats from six competitors, including a cross-Channel colleague, Gummer. In the second Denis Cussen, who had done 10 1-5 secs. in the College Park the previous Saturday, had no difficulty in beating two opponents in 10 2-5 secs. Cussen was moving with great freedom and fire. In the final he and Lowe, after a recall, with Gregan and R. J. Cussen, got well away. Lowe was well placed for about a third of the distance, when the two Trinity men moved ahead, and Cussen flashed past to win by four yards at least in 10 secs. dead. It was a splendid victory.

Clarke, of Belfast, the holder, started with ten more for the mile. Quinn, of the Birchfield Harriers, was regarded as his most dangerous rival. He proved more than that—he was in a class alone on the day, and gave us the fastest championship mile in our records—just 6 secs. slower than Hugh Welsh's Irish record. Jagoe, the Cork ex-schoolboy champion, led the best of the opposition in a plucky effort.

Lavan won his heat in the quarter by a yard in fair time, and Lowe made a close thing of the second in a considerably slower race. It was thought he was reserving himself for the final, for which Lavan, Gregan, Stuart, and he qualified. Lavan dashed off at once, and after half the distance Lowe was out of the picture, the University College champion winning, well tried by Gregan, in 51 4-5 secs.

Donnelly, after winning his heat readily, fell at the start of the quarter-mile cycle championship final, and the title went to his brother, N. J., also of the Harps.

Stanley again cleared six feet in the high jump. Though rising well above the bar, he knocked it occasionally, and failed to get over 6ft. 2ins. Shanahan cleared 5ft. 11ins. and Stanley got second in the running hop, step, and jump. Bermingham delivered the discus admirably, and he had an easy victory. Bermingham beat O'Grady, the holder, in a desultory 56lb. contest for height, but the Limerick man retained his shot-putting laurels readily, Colhoun, of Ulsterville, proving his most persistent opponent. Though the winner advanced on last year's putt he could still improve on his method.

The sport yesterday was marred by an unpleasant incident associated with the Mile Cycling Championship. Half a dozen turned out for the second heat, but from the pistol they simply crawled for more than two laps, unmindful of the booing and jeering of the spectators. It was evident that the time limit would be exceeded, and after a burst on the last lap when the leader crossed the line the judges instantly declared it "no race," the decision being greeted with cheers. Such a happening in connection with a cycling championship is not in the interests of the sport, and it is to be hoped that the action of the officials yesterday will be taken to heart by Irish cyclists.

All round, the events were splendidly contested. The University College man, S. Lavan, though running on the outside, achieved a splendid win in the final of the 220 Yards, in which the holder, W. J. Lowe, was beaten into third place by M. Gregan, Lavan leading from pistol to tape, and Lieutenant Coughlan, in the absence of Norman McEachern, the holder, took the Half-Mile, running a fine race and leading all the way.

The result of the Four Miles was at no time in doubt. J. J. Ryan, the holder, and F. B. Quinn, of Birchfield Harriers, ran shoulder to shoulder for two miles, with the Tipperary man putting in an occasional "feeler." But along the far side, after passing the stands the fourth time, Quinn dropped out, and from that on it was simply a matter of how far Ryan would beat C. C. Walker. The Clonliffe lad ran his race out very pluckily, but, of course, he had no chance against Ryan, who finished strongly in 20 mins. 19 2-5 secs. The winner's times for the first three miles were 4 mins. 53 secs., 10 mins., and 15 mins., 9 2-5 secs.

The Marathon from Navan was a trying race, for in parts the roads were bad, with the surface loose, while the heat was also a handicap. J. O'Reilly, of Galway, last year's winner, was again successful, and when he entered the ground he was almost as fresh as when he started. His was a most creditable performance. S. Keavy retained his title with the Javelin, and the Long Jump went to J. Connor, of Belfast. J. O'Grady's title in the 56lb. (between legs) passed to P. J. Bermingham, but W. F. Brittan again won the Hammer.

SATURDAY.

16lb Shot.—John O'Grady, Limerick (holder), 45ft. 5½in., 1st; A. L. Colhoun, Ulsterville H., 42ft. 0½in., 2nd; M. O'Halloran, D.M.P.A.C., 40ft. 7¼in., 3rd. Also competed—B. J. Daly, D.M.P.A.C.

PRESIDENT'S CUP.

100 Yards.—Heat 1—W. J. Lowe, Manchester A.C. (holder), 1st; R. J. Cussen, Dublin University, 2nd. Also ran—P. A. Gummer, London Irish A.C.; J. A. Teevan, Castlepollard; J. Goodwin, St. Laurence A.C. Won by a yard. Time—10 2-5 sec. Heat 2—D. J. Cussen, Dublin University, 1st; M. Gregan, ditto, 2nd. Also ran—F. E. Gasteen, St. James's Gate. Won comfortably by three yards. Time—10 2-5 sec.

FINAL.

D. Cussen	1
Gregan	2
Lowe	3

Also ran—R. J. Cussen.

After being recalled, they got fairly away, and Dennis Cussen, running with great strength and fire, won by four yards in 10 secs. This equals the Irish record made by N. J. Cartmell in 1909 and F. R. Shaw, of Dublin University, in 1913. The breeze with the runners was negligible, and Cussen could have beaten the record if pressed.

Quarter-Mile Cycle.—Heat 1—V. J. Donnelly, Harp A.C., 1st; W. J. Fitzgibbon, ditto, 2nd. Also started—T. Rogers, Dundalk; J. J. Hanrahan, Mullingar, W. J. Fitzgibbon, Harp C.C.; E. Richardson, Crossmaglen. Won nicely in 34 secs. Heat 2—B. J. Donnelly, Harp A. and C.C. (holder), 1st; T. Kelly, Civic Guard A.C., 2nd. Only two started. Won a fine race by a couple of lengths. Time—33 4-5 secs. Heat 3—M. Lynn, Civic Guard A.C., 1st; J. C. Beare, Kickham A.C., 2nd. Also started—P. Lenihan, Kickham A.C.; J. P. Woodcock, Harp C.C. Fastest heat. Won easily. Time—32 4-5 secs.

FINAL.

V. J. Donnelly	1
J. C. Beare	2
M. Lynn	3

B. J. Donnelly came down at the start. Won by five yards. Time—33 4-5 secs.

Running High Jump—Lar. Stanley, D.M.P.A.C. (holder) 6ft. 0in., 1st; W. Shanahan, ditto, 5ft 11in., 2nd. Also competed—A. L. Colhoun, Ulsterville H.; D. A. Quinlan, Dublin University.

Throwing the Discus—P. J. Bermingham, D.M.P.A.C. (holder), 141ft. 8in., 1st; T. F. Power, ditto, 118ft. 7in., 2nd; M. O'Halloran, ditto, 108ft. 10in., 3rd. Also competed—A. L. Colhoun, Ulsterville H.

VICE-PRESIDENT'S CUP.

One Mile Flat—F. B. Quinn, Birchfield H., 1st; J. O. Jagoe, University College, Cork, 2nd; J. N. Peatt, Clonliffe H., 3rd. Also ran—J. P. Clarke, Co. Antrim H. (holder); W. Valentine, St. James's Gate A.C.; A. Gilmore, Ulsterville H.; George Magan, D.M.P.A.C.; W. W. T. Aherne, Mount Nugent; J. J. McGilton, Clonliffe H.; J. J. Conaghan, Dublin City H.; M. McGeoghegan, Kilcock. Quinn made the running at a fine pace for three laps. Aherne then close up; but Quinn never lost the lead, and finished a good winner by twenty yards, in 4 mins. 27 2-5 secs—the fastest Irish Championship mile on record. The intermediate times and leaders were:—First quarter, McGeoghegan, 61 4-5 secs.; second quarter, Quinn, 2 mins. 9 4-5 secs.; third quarter, Quinn, 3 mins. 19 4-5 secs.

Running Hop, Step and Jump—J. Connor, North Belfast Harriers (Holder), 47ft. 5ins., 1st; L. Stanley, D.M.P.A.C., 45ft. 3ins., 2nd. W. Shanahan also competed.

440 Yards—Heat 1.—Sean Lavan, University College, Dublin (Holder), 1st; Ian Stuart, Dublin University, 2nd. Also ran—T. A. Travers, Harp A.C.; T. Ashe, Civic Guard A.C.; M. W. O'Brien, Harp A.C.; F. E. Gasteen, St. James's Gate. Won by two yards. Time—53 4-5 secs. Heat 2—W. J. Lowe, Manchester A.C., 1st; M. Gregan, Dublin University, 2nd. Also ran—P. A. Gummer, London Irish A.C.; H. Delany, Croke A.C. A close finish. Time—56 1-5 secs. Final—Lavan, 1st; Gregan, 2nd; Lowe, 3rd. I. Stuart also ran.

Lavan at once went to the front from a splendid start. Lowe lost ground in the back stretch and the issue lay between the University rivals. Lavan held a tenacious lead, but was pressed to the tape, winning by a yard. Time—51 4-5 secs.

Throwing 56lbs. Over Bar.—P. J. Bermingham, D.M.P.A.C., 14ft. 6ins., 1st; J. O'Grady, Limerick (holder), 13ft. 6ins. 2nd. Only two competed.

Five Miles Cycling Handicap — J. C. Beare, Kickhams A.C. (180 yards), 1st; W. J. Fitzgibbon, Harp C.C. (230 yards), 2nd; J. P. Woodcock, Harp C.C. (160 yards), 3rd. Also started—B. J. Donnelly, J. J. Bennett, T. Kennedy, N. J. Donnelly, N. J. Troy, P. Hughes, M. J. Keogh, T. Keogh, P. Comerford (Harp C.C.), T. Kelly (Civic Guard C.C.), J. J. Kelly, E. Richardson, Crossmaglen; T. Rogers, Dundalk; J. Brady Celbridge; P. Lenihan, J. C. Halahan, W. Carr, P. J. Andrews (Kickham C.C.), J. Buggle, Lucan; J. Conlan, Athboy; J. J. Hanrahan, Mullingar.

SUNDAY.

Marathon Race—Navan to Croke Park, 26 miles 385 yards.

1st, J. O'Reilly, Galway (holder), 2 hours 56 mins. 41secs.; 2nd, C. J. O'Connor, Dublin City H., 3 hours 12 mins. 20 secs.; 3rd, W. Browne, Dublin City H., 3 hours 15 mins. 2 secs.; 4th, P. J. O'Callaghan, Harp C. and A.C., 3 hours 20 mins 53 secs.

Also ran—L. Murphy, City and Suburban H.; J. J. Heffernan, Dublin City H.; Lt. H. J. Beary, Army A.A.; H. J. Ryan, City and Suburban H.

After five miles Ryan dropped out, and nine miles further on Lt. Beary retired. The next to give up was Murphy, who held on as far as Ashtown. Callaghan passed Heffernan at Clonee, but it really was a race between last year's winner, O'Reilly, and Browne, to Blanchardstown. Here Browne strained a thigh muscle, and O'Connor went on second; but he could make no impression on O'Reilly, who finished very fresh.

Slinging 56lbs. between legs—P. J. Bermingham, D.M.P.A.C., 25ft. 6½in., 1; J. O'Grady, Limerick (holder), 24ft. 9in., 2. Also competed—P. Kennedy, D.M.P.A.C., 22ft.

One Mile Cycling—First Heat—B. J. Donnelly, Harp C. and A.C., 1; T. Kelly, Civic Guards A.C., 2; J. J. Kelly, D.M.P.A.C., 3. Also competed—T. Rogers, Dundalk, J. J. Hanrahan, Mullingar; W. J. Fitzgibbon, Harp C. and A.C. Second Heat—The six competitors crawled in a bunch for more than two laps, and, exceeding the time limit it was declared no race. Final—Donnelly, 1; T. Kelly, 2; J. J. Kelly, 0. Won by a length and a half. Time—2 mins. 25 secs.

Half Mile (Ardilaun Cup)—Lieut. G. N. Coughlan, Western Command, 1; T. Ashe, Civic Guards A.C., 2. Also competed—F. B. Quinn, Birchfield H.; T. Travers, Harp C. and A.C.; J. P. Clarke, Co. Antrim H.; M. O'Brien, Harp C. and A.C. Coughlan led all the way and won easily by 5 yards. Only two finished. Time—2 mins. 1 2-5 secs.

Long Jump—J. Connor, North Belfast H., 22ft. 10½in., 1; L. Stanley, D.M.P.A.C., 22ft. 5in., 2; T. Glynn, 21ft. 11in., 3. Also competed—R. J. Cussen, Dublin University H. and A.C.

Throwing the Javelin—S. Keavy, C. J. Kickham's A.C. (holder), 151ft. 7in., 1; L. Stanley, D.M.P.A.C., 129ft. 5½in., 2. Only two competed.

120 Yards Hurdles (Bolger Cup)—W. Shanahan, D.M.P.A.C.,1; J. J. Manning, Army A.A., 2; D. A. Quinlan, Dublin University H. and A.C., disq. Won easily. Time—17 secs.

Four Miles—J. J. Ryan, Tipperary A.C., 1; C. C. Walker, Clonliffe H., 2; D. Coard, Donore H., 3. Also ran—F. B. Quinn, Birchfield H.; D. Baird, Donore H.; W. Valentine, St. James's Gate H.; M. Taylor, St. Laurence A.C.; G. N. Walker, Clonliffe H.; J. J. McGilton, Clonliffe H.; K. Coard, Donore H.; S. J. Daly, Dundrum A.C. Won by 200 yards. Time 20 mins. 19 2-5 secs.

220 Yards (Croker Cup)—First Heat—S. Lavan, University College, Dublin, A.C., 1; W. J. Lowe, Manchester A.C. (holder), 2. Also ran—M. W. O'Brien, Harp C. and A.C. Won easily. Time—24 1-5 secs. Second Heat—M. Gregan, Dublin University H. and A.C., 1; P. A. Gummer, London Irish A.C., 2. Also ran—H. Delany, Croke A.C. Won by a foot. Time—24 1-5 secs. Final—Lavan, 1; Gregan, 2; Lowe, 3. Won by a yard and a half; inches. Time—23 secs.

Half Mile Cycling Handicap—N. J. Donnelly, Harp A.C. (30), 1; W. J. Fitzgibbon, do. (40), 2. Second Heat—B. J. Donnelly, Harp C.C. (scr.), 1; T. Kelly, Civic Guards (20), 2. Third Heat—J. C. Beare, C. J. Kickham A.C. (30), 1; J. J. Bennett, Harp C.C (40), 2. Fourth Heat—M. Lynn, Civic Guards (15), 1; P. J. Andrews, C. J. Kickham A.C. (80), 2. Final—T. Kelly, 1; Beare, 2. Won easily.

FINE PERFORMANCE BY E. LIDDELL.

His final appearance on the track—he will shortly proceed to China as a missionary—was made by Eric Liddell (Edinburgh University) with conspicuous success at the Scottish Amateur Championships at Hampden Park, Glasgow, on Saturday, as he retained his titles in the 100 yards, 220 yards, and the quarter-mile events. In the sprint he repeated his 10 secs. of last year, in the 220 he knocked two-fifths of a second off his 1924 championship performance, and in the quarter-mile he reduced his time of a year ago by 2 secs., while in the latter series he improved upon his British championship time of last year by a similar margin.

UNIVERSITIES ATHLETES FOR U.S.A.

An Oxford and Cambridge Universities athletic contingent of twenty-two men—eleven from each University—captained by D. G. A. Lowe (Cambridge), left Liverpool yesterday on the Cunard Liner Carmania to compete in two meetings in the United States. One meeting will be at Boston against Harvard and Yale Universities, and the second at Atlantic City against Princeton and Cornell Universities.

ROWING.

METROPOLITAN REGATTA.

DUBLIN UNIVERSITY B.C. WIN FOUR CUPS.

Bright and fine, Saturday at Ringsend was much more pleasant than the previous day, but owing to the numerous counter attractions the attendance failed to reach the level of past years. In more kindly mood, the river gods were content with just a hint of their powers, and after the first three races the conditions improved very much, the latter half of the programme being completed quite comfortably. The finalists in both Civic and Gray Cups suffered most. A shift of wind to the nor'-east raised a nasty lump during both these races, but later the wind fell a good deal and veered more to the east, bringing about a great improvement in the water.

In the Civic Cup (Maiden Fours) Wexford Harbour made quite a good show against the D.U.B.C. crew, which showed such promise at Drogheda and Islandbridge. With a decided pull in weight, they had all the best of the early stages, but failed to shake off the winners, and when Simington called on his crew at half-way they went ahead rapidly, and held the issue safe to the line.

Drogheda were ill-advised to go down without wash-boards in the Junior Eight—a mistake they repeated later on in the Subscribers' Race. With two wins to credit against D.U.B.C., they started strong favourites, but failed to justify the position. During the race the course was at its worst, and both crews suffered, Drogheda, on the outside, having a shade the worst of it. It was a dour struggle over the shortened course until the Fishery Steps were reached, at which point D.U.B.C. were a canvas in front. From this on Drogheda weakened, and losing the uniformity, which has been the feature of their rowing, they finally easied for a couple of strokes inside the enclosure. By this time D.U.B.C. were well ahead, and rowing a strong finish reversed the earlier results by the convincing margin of three and a half lengths.

By virtue of the win at Islandbridge, the Drogheda Second Senior Four was also made favourite for the Subscribers, but, although they had the better station (inside), they failed to hold Neptune after half-way, and the Upper Liffey crew romped away with the race.

Represented by the four which defeated the Australians at Islandbridge last year, Derry B.C. proved too good for D.U.B.C. in the Metropolitan Cup. There was nothing in the start, but Derry took the lead at the end of a minute. Coming to half-way D.U.B.C. closed up with a good dozen, but they failed to get on terms, and the winners went away again to win the Cup they have held since 1923.

The Liffey (Junior Fours) produced quite the best race of the day. There was very little between the three up to half-way, where Dolphin and Drogheda, level, led Commercial. The first-named then drew out, but failed to resist a strong Drogheda challenge passing the Steps, and were beaten half a length.

The remaining events, Maiden Eights and Underage Fours, resulted in good wins for D.U.B.C. against Dolphin and Commercial respectively. The Maiden crew maintained their unbeaten record, and, if unpolished, show a real racing sense, with no lack of courage. Details:—

THE CIVIC CHALLENGE CUP (Maiden Fours). Final.

Outside Station.—Dublin University B.C.—H. W. Irwin (bow), 9st. 11lb.; (2) G. Y. O'Keefe Wilson, 10st. 2lb.; (3) J. M. Gibbon, 10st. 5lb.; T. A. Simington (stk), 9st. 2lb.; F. R. Falkner (cox), 8st. 9lb.—1.

Wexford had the best of a flying start, but failed to hold the lead, D.U.B.C. going ahead at half-way to win by one and a half lengths.

THE GRAY CHALLENGE CUP (Junior Eights). Final.

Inside Station.—Dublin University B.C.—C. M. Taylor (bow), 9st. 11lb.; (2) R. T. Shorten, 9st. 1lb.; (3) J. R. Frith, 10st. 13lb.; (4) D. F. McCarthy, 10st. 1lb.; (5) P. O'Donovan, 11st. 0lb.; (6) D. J. Luby, 10st. 8lb.; (7) C. D. Muntz, 10st. 3lb.; T. O. Dunbar (stk), 9st. 8lb.; T. V. Garland (cox), 8st. 5lb.—1.

Outside Station.—Drogheda R.C.—P. Byrne (bow), 9st. 4lb.; (2) J. Duffner, 10st. 4lb.; (3) G. L. Crilly, 10st. 0lb.; (4) P. Morgan, 11st. 0lb.; (5) John Durnin, 11st. 0lb.; (6) V. G. Gogarty, 11st. 2lb.; (7) James Durnin, 11st. 1lb.; T. J. McAuley (stk.), 11st. 0lb.; L. J. Healy (cox), 9st. 4lb.—0.

Sent away to a flying start on a shortened course, there was very little between the crews for half the distance. At the Fishery Steps D.U.B.C. led by a canvas, and drew out to win by three and a half lengths, Drogheda stopping and re-starting in the enclosure.

THE SUBSCRIBERS' CHALLENGE CUP (Senior). Final.

Outside Station.—Neptune R.C.—C. J. Macnamara (bow), 11st. 1lb.; (2) W. J. Collins, 13st. 0lb.; (3) M. McMahon, 12st. 3lb.; A. T. McWilliam (stk.), 11st. 2lb.; J. Nolan (cox), 9st. 6lb.—1.

Inside Station.—Drogheda R.C.—J. J. Dolan (bow), 10st. 0lb.; (2) C. W. Murdock, 10st. 4lb.; (3) T. P. Hughes, 11st. 4lb.; L. F. Branigan (stk.), 10st. 8lb.; L. J. Healy (cox), 9st. 4lb.—0.

A close race to half-way, when Neptune assumed the lead, and never being pressed won by three lengths.

THE VISITORS' CHALLENGE CUP (Maiden Eights).—Final.

Outside Station.—Dublin University B.C.—H. W. Irwin (bow), 9st. 11lb.; 2 W. E. Lewis, 10st. 2lb.; 3 B. E. W. Aldwell, 11st. 1lb.; 4 H. A. Fenton, 12st. 1lb.; 5 S. Behr, 10st. 11lb.; 6 G. Y. O'Keefe Wilson, 10st. 2lb.; 7 J. M. Gibbon, 10st. 5lb.; T. A. Simington (stk.), 9st. 2lb.; F. R. Falkner (cox), 8st. 9lb.—1.

Inside Station.—Dolphin R.C.—T. J. McGrath (bow), 9st. 7lb.; 2 A. Waldron, 9st. 7lb.; 3 S. McLoughlin, 10st. 3lb.; 4 T. A. Pierce, 11st. 7lb.; 5 J. Flood, 11st. 3lb.; 6 G. A. O'Reilly, 11st. 4lb.; 7 P. O'Donnell, 11st. 3lb.; F. C. Friel (stk.), 10st. 7lb.; R. G. Leslie (cox), 8st. 7lb.—0.

Well away, D.U.B.C. were ahead at the end of the first minute, and led a length half-way down. Dolphin hung on well, but could not get on terms, and D.U.B.C., finishing strongly, won by a length and three-quarters.

THE METROPOLITAN CHALLENGE CUP (Senior Fours).—Final.

Outside Station.—Derry B.C.—T. D. Ward (bow), 11st.; 2 D. R. Keown, 11st. 10lb.; 3 E. G. Bigger, 11st. 8lb.; R. S. Bolton (stk.), 11st. 8lb.; W. Smith (cox), 9st.—1.

Inside Station.—Dublin University B.C.—H. L. Dixon (bow), 11st. 13lb.; 2 O. W. McCutcheon, 11st.; 3 C. F. Cope, 10st. 2lb.; E. D. Staunton (stk.), 10st. 5lb.; J. M. McElligott (cox), 9st.—0.

Both crews got away well, and for a quarter of a mile there was little between them. Then Derry went ahead, and although D.U.B.C. drew up passing the steps the leaders went away again, to finish good winners by one and a half lengths.

THE LIFFEY CHALLENGE CUP (Junior Fours). Final.

Outside Station.—Drogheda R.C.—John Durnin (bow), 11st.; 2 V. J. Gogarty, 11st. 2lb.; 3 Jas. Durnin, 11st. 1lb.; T. J. McAuley (stk.), 11st.; L. J. Healy (cox), 9st. 4lb.—1.

Centre Station.—Commercial R.C.—W. J. Wall (bow), 9st. 8lb.; 2 W. Mooney, 10st. 10lb.; 3 K. Timon, 11st.; Terry Byrne (stk.), 11st. 10lb.; E. Burke (cox), 9st.—0.

Inside Station.—Dolphin R.C.—P. B. Costello (bow), 10st. 4lb.; 2 G. V. Watson, 10st. 7lb.; 3 J. O'Dwyer, 11st. 3lb.; R. W. Leslie (stk.), 10st.; R. G. Leslie (cox), 8st. 7lb.—0.

A close race for half the distance, when Dolphin went out, leading Drogheda and Commercial in order. At the steps Drogheda went to the front, and a hard finish resulted in their favour by half a length from Dolphin, Commercial, three lengths away, third.

THE DODDER CHALLENGE CUP (Under-age Fours).—Final.

Outside Station.—Dublin University B.C.—C. M. Taylor (bow), 9st. 11lb.; 2 D. F. McCarthy, 10st. 1lb.; 3 P. O'Donovan, 11st.; T. O. Dunbar (stk.), 9st. 8lb.; T. V. Garland (cox), 8st. 5lb.—1.

Inside Station.—Commercial R.C.—M. Keenan (bow), 9st. 8lb.; 2 T. J. Martin, 10st.; 3 J. McGuinness, 10st. 12lb.; P. Reade (stk.), 10st. 7lb.; E. Burke (cox), 9st.—0.

D.U.B.C. had drawn clear at half-way, and going away to the line won easily by two and a half lengths.

GOLF.

BELGIAN LADIES' CHAMPIONSHIP.

In the final of the Belgian Ladies' Championship, on the course of the Royal Golf Club De Belgique, at Tervueren, on Saturday, Miss Mollie Gourlay (Camberley Heath) beat Miss D. R. Fowler (North Hants) by 5 and 3.

MITCHELL BREAKS COURSE RECORD.

George Duncan (Wentworth) and Abe Mitchell (unattached) travelled from Prestwick, the scene of the Open Championship, to Hawick, where they engaged in an exhibition four ball match on Saturday. They opposed two amateurs, W. Burnett, the Hawick Club captain, and H. M. Duncan, the ex-Border champion. Playing level, the professionals, after being 1 up at the turn, won by 5 and 3. Their better ball score was 69.

In a medal round later in the day, Mitchell had a score of 70, which lowered his previous record by three strokes. Duncan had a 73.

ROYAL DUBLIN.—June medals—A. Chance (6), 72 (winner 1st class); P. Rooney (12), 76; A. D. Clinch (10), 78; F. C. Cooke (12), 80; K. E. O'Duffy (14), 84 (winner 2nd class); J. F. Carroll (17), 87; J. J. Crowe (14), 88.

DUN LAOGHAIRE (KINGSTOWN) (Ladies' Branch).—Captain's prize, Thursday next. Draws at 10.30 and 11 a.m., 2 and 2.30 p.m. July medal, Monday, 6th. Draws at 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. Meeting, 3 o'clock.

SUTTON (Ladies' Section).—Semi-open foursomes. Result:—Mrs. McIntyre and Miss Nestor, 2 down; Mrs. Lauder and Mrs. Madill, 4 down. Miss West's prize. Result—Mrs. Fitzsimons, junior (26), 71; Miss D. McFerran (28), 75.

ISLAND.—Monthly medal, played on June 24th. Class I.—Miss Thornhill (3) and Mrs. H. Mitchell (6), tied, 2 down. Class II.—Mrs. Beamish (18), 10 down. Eclectic competition, strokes, on July 8th, for prize presented by Miss Moore.

BRAY.—Wednesday Cup. Result:—Dr. Wentworth Taylor, A. N. Murphy, and R. C. Williamson tied, with one down.

BATHERS IN DIFFICULTIES.

HUMAN CHAIN FAILS.

Thrilling rescue scenes were witnessed at South Shields yesterday evening. A man named Turner got into difficulties while bathing, and a friend named Miller, who went to his assistance, was also involved, owing to the strong current. They were unable to regain the shore for a time. A surf boat which was launched capsized while the two men were trying to get into it, and members of a "human chain" were carried off their feet eventually.

Turner and Miller, who had drifted a considerable distance along the coast, reached the shore.

SALES BY PRIVATE TREATY.

TWO SEMI-DETACHED VILLAS.

FOR SALE BY PRIVATE TREATY, TWO SEMI-DETACHED VILLAS, in one of the most sought after residential quarters in Belfast. The Houses were built by present owner in 1911, and no expense was spared in securing the best possible material. Both Villas form one palatial dwelling, and between them is built a first class garage, capable of considerable extension. The Houses contain 5 bedrooms, bath, drawingroom, reception-room, large kitchen and scullery, with spacious flower and fruit gardens. The position contains a charming view of the Holywood Cave and Divis Hills and Belfast Lough. Trams pass the door and a penny fare leaves one in the heart of the city.

The premises are held for ever, subject to a ground rent of £5 5/- each, and £20 each valuation. Vacant possession will be given to one of the Houses on completion of sale, and half the purchase money can remain out.

The Auctioneer has confidence in recommending this excellent property as being the best in this very charming suburb, "Stellamaris," Cliftonville.
